The Oregonian knows the great value of its classified columns for quick and positive returns on a minimum expenditure. Patrons of The Oregonian's "want" columns frequently find cash purchasers for farm, suburban and city property of a value running into the thousands of dollars, and calls for meetings, demands for servants and office help, announcements of articles lost and found, chances for profitable investment, calls for loans at low interest rates, etc., all meet with ready responses if advertised in The Oregonian's classified columns. The "want" columns of The Oregonian constitute a complete directory for giving publicity to the business demands of Oregon's people.

*

As a token of appreciation of the generous use of its classified columns, The Oregonian will make a Thanksgiving offering of Newton A. Wells' latest production.

A Yard of Roses

To all patrons who may insert a paid advertisement in the classified columns, issue of Sunday next (the 25th inst.). This famous work of art is printed in seven colors, and in technique and finish it is a masterpiece. It will be displayed this week in the windows of The Oregonian's business office. The Oregonian enjoys the sole rights of distribution on the Pacific Coast, and the offer made in the present instance will afford Portland people the only opportunity to obtain a copy of this fine lithographic production.

When mailed to out-of-town patrons of the classified columns next Sunday, a 2-cent stamp will be required for postage.

UNIVERSITY PARK, PORTEMOUTH, Northern Hill-Real estate has reached rock-bottom prices. It will never go lower. Big money will be made in real estate investments in the next 12 months by those who purchase before January 1. Look at the millions in the banks of the country earning nothing. These depositors will invest this money now that they are assured that the country is safe. Real estate offers the only safe outlet for these millions. It can't go into business, as the trusts and department stores have a monopoly of business lines det in before the boom that is coming. University Park, Portsmouth and Northern Hill is the best investment for the speculator, as this property will be in big demand for homes. There is not a vacant house in this part of the city. There is a beavy demand for houses to real. It is 115 fest above high water, close to manufacturing and wholesale districts; city water, city schools, streets, car lines, electric street lights, graded streets, aldewalks, etc. Terms, 15 per cent cash, balance & per month, on seach lot.
