NO FEAR OF EMPIRE

President McKinley's After-Election Speech

AT PHILADELPHIA UNION LEAGUE

FORENSIC SOCIETY REPORTS ABOUT THE TERROR, AND GREAT IMPORTANCE OF THE MARCH.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2, President McKinley's after-election speech before the Forensic Society of the Union League, in which he spoke about the march of progress, the dignity of America, and the greatness of the American people, and said that there is no fear of empire, and that the United States are not at war, nor is there likely to be war.

NEW WAR TAX BILL

Progress Being Made by Ways and Means Committee.

SCHEDULE WIIL BE WRITTEN OUT

FORENSIC SOCIETY REPORTS ABOUT THE TERROR, AND GREAT IMPORTANCE OF THE MARCH.

WASHINGTON, D.C., November 2d. The Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives has been hard at work, and is making progress on the new war tax bill. The committee is expected to report the bill early next week.

CR. B. TEEVES

MAYOR OF SAVANNAH

Mr. B. L. Teeves, Mayor of Savannah, was born in October, 1800. He is a man of great ability and eloquence, and is a leading figure in Savannah politics. He is a strong advocate of free speech, and has been active in the cause of prohibition.

THE ODD FELLOWS

The Odd Fellows, an order of benevolent societies, has been in existence for over 100 years. It was founded in Scotland, and has spread to many countries around the world. The Odd Fellows hold a annual convention, and this year's convention is to be held in Savannah.

TURKISH COMPLICATION.

Special messenger being sent to the Sultan of Turkey to express the views of the American government on the Turkish question. The American government has long been concerned with the situation in the Middle East, and has expressed its desire for peace and stability in the region.

BEGIN ALPACOA.

The Alpaca, a species of camel, is being introduced into the United States for the first time. The Alpaca is native to South America, and is known for its fine wool.

WASHINGTON, D.C., November 2d. The Turf Association of America has held its annual meeting in Washington, D.C. The meeting was attended by representatives from all over the country, and was a great success.

The meeting was held at the Turf Club, and was attended by over 200 people. The speakers included Dr. C. L. Ternan, President of the Turf Association, and Mr. H. B. C. Smith, Secretary of the Turf Association. The speakers discussed the current state of the turf industry, and the challenges that it faces.

The meeting was a great success, and was a great opportunity for members of the turf industry to come together and discuss important issues.