

SOCIETY

Camp H Auxiliary at her home, 185 Seventeenth street, North, on Monday, December 17, 1900. The occasion was the second anniversary of the society, which was organized two years ago, while the boys were in Manila, as an auxiliary to Company H, Second Oregon, and after the return of the regiment, reorganized without disbanded into an auxiliary to Company H. As a love token from the members, Mrs. Freeman presented the hostess with a brooch pin, and soon after came a big bouquet from the boys of Company H. There were 35 members present, and all did justice to the refreshments served by the young ladies.

Coming Events.
The Arion Society announces that the dance of the Auxiliary will be held January 1, at Arion Hall, and invitations will soon be issued.
The December party of the Yeller-Miller Club will take place Friday evening at Parsons Hall. The patronesses will be Mrs. Charles Hilton, Mrs. F. M. Bachelor and Mrs. Edward Lyons.

For the Benefit of the Poor.
A delightful entertainment was given Sunday evening at the Arion Hall by the Sisters of Israel Benevolent Society, the proceeds of which will go for the benefit of the deserving poor. The success of the evening was mainly due to Mrs. I. Dantoff and Mrs. I. Friedman, the president and first trustee of the society.

Surprise Party.
Monday night a number of Miss Eva Taylor's friends surprised her by calling in a body to spend the evening. They were all masked and amused themselves and their hostess variously with music, games and refreshments.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.
Miss M. Greenough left on Tuesday for San Francisco.
Miss Habersham is on a visit to relatives at Astoria.
