

OLDS & KING

Our 23d Annual Clearance Sale

BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY NEXT, JANUARY 2, 1901

To be continued, as is our custom, 30 days. It will be conducted on the same broad and liberal basis that has made our 22 former clearance sales so popular. During this sale

Great Price Reductions Will Be Made on Every Article

In our immense stock, excepting only a few lines, the prices of which are controlled by the makers. These sales are so well known to our customers from far and near, as to need no explanation; but to the many new comers in the northwest we wish to state that since this firm was first established, we have at the beginning of each year held a great Clearance Sale for the purpose of closing out all goods on hand and by preventing any accumulation keep our great stocks of merchandise always of the newest kinds. It is conducted in good faith, for this special purpose and with many increased facilities, and the largest stock we have ever offered, this sale will excel all others in attractiveness and be as our Clearance Sales have always been.

Portland's Greatest Annual Bargain Event

We specially mention our fine stock of Ladies' and Children's Muslin Underwear

This year as usual it's the largest and best collection of undermuslins in Portland. Every garment is made to our especial order, full in size, correct in proportions and finishings, and daintily trimmed. Made in factories fully equipped with the best modern machinery and under state supervision. NO SWEAT SHOP GARMENTS ALLOWED IN OUR STOCK. SEE DISPLAY IN 2d FLOOR ANNEX.

The announcement is hereby made that on January 1, 1901, the name of the firm of Olds & King will be changed to OLDS, WORTMAN & KING.

This act does not in any way change the management, or personnel, of the firm. The liberal patronage of many years extended to us as OLDS & KING is at this time gratefully acknowledged, and a continuance under the new name respectfully solicited.

ance. The music was furnished by the Columbia Orchestra.

Professor Herdman, of the Portland Academy, was the guest on Thursday of Frederick Warren, of Warrenton.

Sam A. Koser and Mrs. Koser, of Salem, and J. W. Belcher, of Portland, spent their Christmas in this city, the guests of Mrs. Belcher.

Pendleton.

Ralph Wade is spending the holidays here. He is attending school in Seattle.

Miss Maude Crawford has gone to Redon, Wash., to visit her sister, Mrs. Harvey Burns.

Mrs. Christine Proebstel has returned home after a week's visit with the Misses Thompson.

Mrs. John Vert, worthy grand matron of Eastern Star, is spending the holidays at her home.

Miss Pearl Luckey is at home for the holidays from Eugene, where she is attending school.

Mrs. Fred W. Waite, son and mother, Mrs. Woodward, have gone to Colfax to visit with relatives.

Allen Shuster, a student at the University of Oregon, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shuster.

The Misses Eleanor and Constance Despain are spending the holidays here. They are students at St. Paul's School, Walla Walla.

Miss Katherine Parsons has gone East, where she will remain for some time, visiting with relatives in Washington, D. C., and New Haven, Conn.

Miss Nellie Day and Thomas Drumheller were married recently at Dayton. Miss Day is well known in Pendleton, where she was formerly a teacher in the public school.

Mrs. Lina Sturgis, of this city, and L. S. LaGrave and his daughter, Mrs. Susan Walsh, of Walla Walla, left Wednesday for Matanzas, Cuba, to visit Mrs. Captain Winn, daughter of Mr. LaGrave.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen had the following to enjoy Christmas dinner with them: Mrs. M. J. Lane, Miss Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Borie, Mr. J. T. Lambirth and Robert Forster.

Mrs. R. G. Thompson entertained at dinner on Christmas Day at her home on Water street. At the table were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. S. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson, Miss Ida Thompson, Miss Harriette Thompson, Miss Ted Thompson, Miss Fanchon Borie, Miss Harriette Johnson, James B. Welch, F. E. Welch.

Corvallis.

The Social Club gave a card party at Fremen's Hall, Friday evening.

George Buxton, of Portland, spent Christmas with Corvallis relatives.

The firemen gave a pleasant dancing party at their hall, Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Whist Club was entertained by the Misses Jacobs, Thursday afternoon.

Miss Winnie Davis, of Newport, was the guest during the week of her cousin, Miss Mabel Davis.

Mrs. Charles Kohn, Miss Florence Kohn, and Miss Selling returned to Portland Monday, after a brief visit with relatives.

Ernest W. Arnold entertained a number of friends at the home of Mrs. Geary Monday evening. The occasion was a chafing dish party, and about 20 guests enjoyed the event.

Miss Lilla Brown, of Corvallis, and Harry A. Patterson, of Red Bluff, Cal., were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride, by Rev. P. S. Knight. They left on the noon train for their future home in California.

Albert Leavens and Miss Vera Maxfield, of Corvallis, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Tuesday. Both bride and groom are graduates of O. A. C., and have many friends in Corvallis. They left at once for Portland for a wedding trip.

Eugene.

Mrs. C. M. Young is visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. T. A. Bennett is visiting relatives in San Francisco.

Miss Kate Patterson, of Huntington, is visiting relatives in Eugene.

J. W. White is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Moffett, at Bremerton, Wash.

Mr. L. S. Logan came in from Prineville to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Winter have returned from a visit with relatives in Berkeley, Cal.

Miss Lulu Applegate has gone to Pasadena, Cal., where she expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. L. H. Patterson returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives in Berkeley, Cal.

Miss Helen Stott, of Portland, visited in Eugene the past week, the guest of Miss Edythe Hoffman.

J. W. Bean, mayor of Ellenburg, was, is visiting in Eugene, the guest of his brother, L. E. Bean.

W. S. Durkheimer, of Prairie City, is visiting in Eugene, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwarzschild.

Mrs. W. E. Loughmiller returned the first of the week from Walla Walla, where she has been for some weeks visiting relatives.

J. E. Bronaugh, of Portland, visited relatives in Eugene several days the past week, returning Wednesday. Mrs. Bronaugh will visit here some weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lowe entertained a small party Wednesday evening. The popular game of high five occupied the early portion of the evening, followed by a jolly time around the festive board.

Mr. J. T. Pointdexter, of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Dottie E. Buerce, of Mound, were married Christmas morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halden, in Eugene, Rev. M. H. Wallace officiating.

James M. Lane, of Tower, Wash., and Miss Theresa Morden, of Eugene, were married Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morden, Rev. W. B. Hollingshead officiating.

Oregon City.

Mrs. H. V. V. Bean, of Seattle, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Hedges.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Cowing, of Anacortes, Wash., are visiting relatives here.

Captain and Mrs. M. D. Phillips are visiting Albany relatives during the Christmas holidays.

Hon. and Mrs. C. B. Moores entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore and Wilbur Hill, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shultz and the Misses Bertha and Carrie Moores, of Portland, on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George McBride, of Astoria, visited his parents, Judge and Mrs. T. A. McBride, during the Christmas holidays.

James Roake returned from an extended trip to California on Christmas Day, and his family here were joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roake, of Everett, Wash.

The first annual ball given by McLoughlin's Cabin, Native Sons of Oregon, at the Armory on Christmas night, was the greatest social event of the winter. Fully 120 couples participated in the festivities of the function. The hall was artistically decorated with Oregon grape, cedar boughs, ferns and National flags, and was very attractive. Many of the electric globes were draped royal purple, the Native Son color, and the lettering on the walls, emblematic of the cabin, were formed of the green leaves of the Oregon wild grape. The draping around the music stand also was attractive in its effects. The souvenir programmes were of Oregon pulp board, printed in purple, and the covers were ornamented with the cut of a log cabin and an Indian in costume. Several guests were present from Portland and other sections of the state, while local society was out in full force. A number of pioneers also were in evidence, two or three old-time dances having been placed on the programme for their especial benefit.

McMinnville.

Miss Lena Wyner, of Portland, spent Christmas vacation with relatives in McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Harkness left on Saturday for Oakland, Cal., the former going by Coos Bay and steamer, and the latter direct by rail.

The Firemen's Calico Ball at the opera-house on Christmas night was a big success. The floor was crowded, and dancing was kept up till early morning.

Fred Roper, of the firm of Wilson & Roper, was married on Sunday to Miss Ella Williams, the couple leaving the same day for a honeymoon in San Francisco.

The following students are at home for the holidays: Miss Maud and Roy Krenner, from Portland and San Francisco respectively; Fred Colvig, from Corvallis; Edward Van Dyke and Edward Palmer, from Eugene, and John Galvin, from San Francisco.

The excursion to San Francisco on Wednesday drew about 25 from Grant's Pass and vicinity. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hannum, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Haskins, Miss Addie Harth, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peckham, Mrs. Anna Horn, and Messrs. W. F. Byrne, G. H. Hines, L. V. Bannister, J. Kessler and L. O. Adams.

Baker City.

Messrs. Rodgers and Armstrong, of the Chloride mine, were in Baker for Christmas.

J. Coggriff, of the Red Boy mine, has been in Baker since the commencement of the holiday week.

Miss Harriet Kinsey was the guest of Miss Essie Henry, of La Grande, the week previous to Christmas.

Harry Foster and Alva H. Gunnell, of the Balsley-Elkhorn mine, have been spending the holidays in Baker.

Mrs. Ward, of Prosser, Or., sister of Cato John, of Sumpter, has been visiting her brother for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Kinsey and the many members of their family gave an enjoyable Christmas dinner Tuesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McGregor, of Portland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martyn.

W. H. Leeds and family, of Salem, arrived Monday, and are spending the holidays in Ashland.

Mrs. J. W. Downing, of Portland, arrived from Portland Saturday, to join her husband and spend the winter in Ashland.

Fred R. Nell came from Portland to spend Christmas with his parents, and on Wednesday left for Kansas City for a short visit.

Miss Theresa Bryant arrived home from Seattle, and after spending a few days with her family, has gone to San Francisco on a brief visit.

A Christmas wedding took place at the home of A. Vandercarr Tuesday, R. A. Vandercarr being united in marriage with Miss Elsie Rhoads, of Klamath County, by the Rev. F. G. Strang, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

The J. E. Foss home at Talent was the scene of a very happy wedding, December 23, at high noon, when Welborn Benson and Miss Nellie Foss were united in marriage by Rev. W. B. Moore. An elaborate wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Grant's Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cordy returned from San Francisco on Thursday, after an absence of several months.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Harkness left on Saturday for Oakland, Cal., the former going by Coos Bay and steamer, and the latter direct by rail.

The Firemen's Calico Ball at the opera-house on Christmas night was a big success. The floor was crowded, and dancing was kept up till early morning.

Fred Roper, of the firm of Wilson & Roper, was married on Sunday to Miss Ella Williams, the couple leaving the same day for a honeymoon in San Francisco.

The following students are at home for the holidays: Miss Maud and Roy Krenner, from Portland and San Francisco respectively; Fred Colvig, from Corvallis; Edward Van Dyke and Edward Palmer, from Eugene, and John Galvin, from San Francisco.

The excursion to San Francisco on Wednesday drew about 25 from Grant's Pass and vicinity. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hannum, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Haskins, Miss Addie Harth, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peckham, Mrs. Anna Horn, and Messrs. W. F. Byrne, G. H. Hines, L. V. Bannister, J. Kessler and L. O. Adams.

Baker City.

Messrs. Rodgers and Armstrong, of the Chloride mine, were in Baker for Christmas.

J. Coggriff, of the Red Boy mine, has been in Baker since the commencement of the holiday week.

Miss Harriet Kinsey was the guest of Miss Essie Henry, of La Grande, the week previous to Christmas.

Harry Foster and Alva H. Gunnell, of the Balsley-Elkhorn mine, have been spending the holidays in Baker.

Mrs. Ward, of Prosser, Or., sister of Cato John, of Sumpter, has been visiting her brother for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Kinsey and the last Thursday at the Presbyterian Church by her class, assisted by Gore brothers, of Medford, and local talent, was a most enjoyable affair.

Forest Grove.

John Becker, of Greenville, spent Christmas in Portland.

Mrs. E. E. Larimore, of Scio, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. W. E. Beauchamp, from Lester, Wash., is visiting in this city.

William Baldwin and family, after an absence of two years in Seattle, have returned.

Mrs. Lola Bockmann, of Portland, is spending the holidays here, with Mrs. A. S. Yenor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McEldowney, of Kalama, are visiting the family of C. V. B. Russell.

Miss Clara White Cooley, formerly director of the Conservatory of Music in Pacific University, but now of Whitworth College, Tacoma, is the guest of Mrs. John E. Bailey.

Roseburg.

Dave Montague, of Hornbrook, Cal., is visiting friends here.

Albert Eberhard, of Champoeg, is visiting his aunt Mrs. Dr. DuGas, here.

Hon. J. T. Bridges and family have returned from a visit at Long Beach, Wash.

Charley Stratford, of Willamette University, is spending the holiday with his parents here.

Mrs. J. E. Belsaw, of Farmington, Wash., has been visiting her parents near Roseburg.

Wednesday evening, H. C. Stanton and family gave a reception to the Glee Club and friends, after their entertainment.

Trousdale.

C. B. Williams and family, of Portland, spent Christmas week at their country home here.

A large surprise party from Troutdale and Fairview gathered at W. Tegar's, Friday evening, to celebrate the return of his son, F. D. Tegar. Music, games and an excellent supper made it a very pleasant reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. May invited the Whist Club to supper Friday evening. The company enjoyed music and the game. Justice Harlow and Mrs. Vandever received consolation gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Harlow gained first prizes.

Albany.

Miss Julia Marks is spending the holidays in Albany.

G. A. Westgate has gone to San Francisco to spend the holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Beers, of Wasco, Or., are visiting friends in Albany.

Miss Maggie Whitney, of Eugene, is visiting friends and relatives in Albany.

Mr. James Thompson will leave for Ireland in a few days, to be gone several months.

Miss Marguerite Hopkins has gone to California to spend the winter for the benefit of her health.

Woodburn.

Dr. E. W. Finner and family are visiting Albany relatives.

Mrs. W. A. Leonard and children are visiting relatives in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bonney, of Portland.

Mrs. R. A. Taylor, of Portland, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Finer.

Miss Blanche Barton, of Portland, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Gill.

Among those home from the Portland schools and colleges to spend the holidays are Miss Laura Austin, Robert Armes, Roy and Ralph Matson and William Flint.

WASHINGTON.

Vancouver Barracks.

The death is announced of Mrs. Sarah Lee, wife of Colonel James B. C. Lee, who was stationed here several years ago.

Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and children left before the Christmas holidays for Minneapolis to spend a few weeks with her family.

There was very little gaiety before Christmas, everyone being interested more or less in the Christmas fair, given by the different churches.

Mrs. Bradley also left for San Francisco with her children, where she expected to meet Captain Bradley, when he arrived on the Hancock.

Miss Webster and Miss Griffith have just arrived in New York, having spent the summer in Paris. They will visit friends in the East for several weeks.

The sudden death of Mrs. Henry S. Wygant, wife of Lieutenant Wygant, Third Infantry, at Manila, was a great shock to her friends. She was the eldest daughter of Captain Williams, Third Infantry, and had only been married two or three months.

Vancouver.

Miss Cora Rowland arrived here Monday from Ellensburg.

Misses Cora and Hestie Riegler are visiting friends at Astoria.

Mrs. C. T. Bush is visiting relatives in Falconer, N. Y.

Fred Tempes, of Oregon City is spending the holidays with his parents.

Arthur Cochran, of Tacoma, spent the week with his mother, in this city.

Louis Brandt, of Independence, Or., visited friends here during the week.

Miss Elen Lynch is spending Christmas holidays with her parents, at Elma, Wash.

E. L. Carpenter and wife, of Westport, spent the week in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Mrs. M. Brannan and grandson, of Eugene, Or., are visiting Mrs. Brannan's daughter, Mrs. B. A. Henslee.

Charles Schiele, who is a student at the Pullman Agricultural College, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Schiele.

Walla Walla.

L. W. Spencer has gone to visit his old home in Ohio.

Charles Davis is down from Spokane to visit his sister, Mrs. Alva Brown.

The club gave their lady friends high five and delicate refreshments Friday night.

Dr. S. S. Johnson, of Glasgow, Mont., passed the holidays with his parents, in this city.

Mrs. Rosalia Dusenberry has gone to Europe, via San Francisco, to be a guest of a couple of years.

A couple of score of young society people

(Concluded on Nineteenth Page)