Attention is called to Geomwell, of Huestler & Co.'s glove-fitting corset, the ad which appears on page 15 of this issue. Their corset is world renowned, because the secret of it all lies in substituting for the ordinary transverse seams in graceful curves, which adapt themselves to all figures, thus securing the most perfect and comfortable fit. The fit is perfect, for it is automatic or self-adjusting, yielding so easily to every movement that the wearer is unconscious of any feeling of constraint. The straight front, style, is their latest novelty. For sale by the leading dry goods and fancy dealers in Oregon and Washington.

H. B. Litt. Over 3000 retail suitcases of a grade not kept anywhere excepting at Dr. Aliman's, of New York, are displayed at Litt's, and as usual, considering the material, make, finish and advance style, are marked at a lower figure than any first-class suitcase in New York. New golf caps received Saturday.

After your bicycle ride today, enjoy the Winter Garden dinner.
