Sweeping reductions on all lines of Ladies' Suits, Jackets, Skirts, Waists, etc. (Second Floor.)

Meier & Frank Co.

Trunks and traveling bags in every size and quality; largest variety in town. (Third Floor.)

New line of crystal cord and checked wash silks—best assortment ever shown, 50c the yard. "The Crisis"—The latest book by that gifted story teller, Winston Churchill, author of "Richard Carvel." Rugs, matings and curtains, for Coast use—an exceptional good line, at very low prices. (3d Floor)

Three Days of Bargains

After a week of phenomenal selling and extensive decorations, we find a great quantity of remnants, odds and ends, and soiled pieces in many lines of merchandise, which we desire to clean out immediately, and to reach this end, we have made price quotations that should bring great throngs of shoppers to these counters early tomorrow morning. Among the bargains you will find odds and ends of muslin underwear, white knit underwear, table linens, napkins, handkerchiefs, laces, embroideries, men's white shirts, white lawns, swisses, lace curtains, boys' white waists, etc., offering the opportunity to buy slightly soiled pieces, and odds and ends at ridiculously low prices. To enable us to get things in good shape, there will be no selling of the special lines until 9 o'clock.

Table Damask, Napkins Towels, Doilies, Etc.

In the Linen and Domestic Departments we never before experienced such active selling as last week—not even excepting the January clearance sale. The result is we have a great quantity of short lengths and soiled pieces used in decorating which we are going to place on sale tomorrow at saving prices. There's remnants of table damasks, odd dozens of napkins, doilies used in decorating, great lot of towels in broken lots, remnants of cottons and sheetings, remnants of lawns, llnens, and muslins. Sheets and pillow-cases at low prices.

Laces, Handkerchiefs and Embroideries

The June "White Days" proved the banner sale of our history in lace and embroideries. We'll wager that no store of equal size the land ever saw seven busier days than we had last week. Naturally remnants accumulate during such selling. They go on the counters tomorrow at a fraction of their real value. All widths and all kinds of laces, both edgings and insertions. Edging and insertion of embroideries, lace and Hamburg, all-overs, etc., etc.

About 4000 handkerchiefs—mussed, others soiled—used for decorating. For three days you can buy them at about half value.

Boys' laundered white waists—slightly soiled—75c kind 52c

Big bargains in men's white shirts, slightly soiled. Children's underwear at very low prices. Cut work scarfs and shams used for decoration at greatly reduced prices.

KNIT UNDERWEAR

Special lot of ladies' vests, all white, used in overhead trimming during the "White Days," to be offered at very low prices. White neckwear at low prices. Butchers' and grocers' aprons and cook caps—slightly soiled at reduced prices.

Muslin Underwear

About 1100 pieces of high-grade muslin underwear, corset covers, drawers, gowns and skirts—all styles lace and Hamburg trimmed—some slightly soiled, others broken sizes, odds and ends. We've made the prices the lowest ever quoted on under-muslins of this quality and promise those who come tomorrow a pleasant surprise on what can be bought with little money. Included in the underwear sale are about 600 pretty white aprons used in decorating, and being slightly soiled we will sell them at prices far below cost.

Lace Curtains

All told about 185 pairs used in decorating the rotunda are to be placed on sale at greatly reduced prices. All are novelty nets of the best styles, divided into two lots, as follows:

Lot 1—115 prs. novelty curtains, full sizes and sizes, good designs, while they last $2.15 Pair
