The launching party given Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Mabel H. Taft, of Alameda, Cal., was a delightful event. After a pleasant time spent on the river the party landed at Milwaukee Park where a bonfire was made and luncheon served. Games, stories and singing were the amusements of the evening. The party reached Portland at a late hour.

A party of young men gave an enjoyable river excursion last Monday evening on the launch Constitution in honor of George Berrian. The objective point was Sellwood, where a bonfire was built and refreshments were served. Music was interspersed among the amusements of the evening. The following composed the party: George Berrian, Joseph M. Burke, C. C. Bradley, Herman Grimm, B. Youmans, W. L. Chapman, J. P. Burke, Geo. Butler, Charles Small, Fred Drake and Mr. Ogilvie.

Camp Harrington No. 20, S. A. W. V., gave a delightful excursion to Magnus Park, Sunday, August 4. The veterans made coffee while the ladies arranged a sumptuous lunch, of which all partook with much enjoyment. The day was spent in rambling through the woods and in any manner which pleased.

The Albion Society gave an enjoyable trolley party, chaperoned by Mrs. A. R. Stringer, to Oregon City Thursday evening. The car, Portland, was brilliantly decorated with electric lights for the occasion and attracted much attention along the line. An entertaining programme was given by the club members, the principal number being the club's illustrated song rendered in a very charming manner by Marcus Peel. Oregon City, after being welcomed from its slumbers, by the horns of the city, was visited by burning red fire. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served on the return ride and during the short stop at the grove in Milwaukie. The evening passed so pleasantly and quickly that all were surprised and sorry when Portland was reached at midnight. Those in the party were the Misses Nellie Hickey, Maggie Flood, Alta Rose, Edna Kippel, Florence Peel, Ruth Prentiss, Hattie Pipes, Katherine Stephenson, Emma Strout, Katherine Struble, Marie Thompson, Vesta Townsend, Ione Townsend, Katherine Wood, Messrs. Walter Gaudin, Russell Johnston, Cyrus Gibson, Ray Wainwright, Wallace Sherer, and the members of the club. Messrs. Ernest Allen, Harry Allen, Will Bennett, Fred Hill, Robert Foster, Rance Gilliland, Kenneth Johnston, Charles Nelson, Marcus Peel, Arthur Stringer.

The several camps of Spanish-American War Veterans and auxiliaries are arranging for a social and dinner at Hawthorne Park, Tuesday evening, August 12, in commemoration of the battle of Manila. The veterans will be the guests of the ladies and will be entertained with a dinner from 7 to 9 P. M., after which dancing will be in order. Only members of camps and all Spanish-American War Veterans are invited.

WEDDINGS.

Robinson-McKernan.

At the First Christian Church, Wednesday evening, August 7, Miss Ethel McKernan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKernan, of Portland, was married to J. Curtis Robinson, son of George D. Robinson. The bride was Miss Emma L. Smith, and William H. Goodwin was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Carl Gormley, George C. Watkins, William Banks and Robert Holt. The flower girls were Misses Robinson, niece of the groom, and Ruby E. McKay, cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. F. Gormley. The church was beautifully decorated with mountain ferns, smilax and pink and white flowers. Over the altar a floral umbrella was suspended from an arch of evergreen, studded with white roses. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party moved up the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude Hobson. The bride was attired in white silk organdie and lace and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, tied with streamers of white satin ribbon. The bridesmaid was becomingly dressed in pink silk organdie and carried a shower bouquet of pink La France roses, tied with pink satin ribbon. After the ceremony a number of relatives and friends retired to the home of the bride's parents, 228 Meade street, where a dainty supper was spread. The young couple received many congratulations. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Catherine Lamberson, cousin of the bride.
