

WEDDINGS.

Whitehurst-Gambell, A very pretty wedding took place in the presence of immediate friends only at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gambell, 286 Hollaweenue, Monday morning, September The contracting parties were Mr. L. Whitehurst, of Tacoma, Wash., and Miss Sussan Gambell, the well-known so-prano soloist of this city. The Rev. W. O. Forbes was the officiating clergyman. The parlors were tastily decorated with green and poited plants and cut flowers. the prevailing colors being pink, a deli-cate shade of which also marked the bride's gown. The bride sang one of her favorite solos at the request of the com-pany, after which all partook of an ele-gant wedding breakfast delicately served. At two o'clock the bride and groom took their leave for their new home in Ta-coma, where Mr. Whitehurst is engaged Their many friends wish Misener-Young.

On last Tuesday evening, in the presence of a few intimate friends, Mr. Jo-seph Misener and Mrs. Kate J. Young were united in wedlock by the Rev. Mr. Lathrop, of the Grace M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed in the church pariors, immediately after which the new-ly married couple left for Southern Ore-gon for a ten days' trip and shall return to make their home in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Misener are both well and favorably known in fraternal and social circles in this city, Mrs. Meisner having the honor of serving as the first grand chief of honor of the Degree of Honor of Oregon, and Mr. Misener served as Grand Chancellor Commander of the K. of P. Domain of Oregon. The many friends of the happy couple wish them a happy and prosperous journey through

Sturgill-Duckworth,

At the residence of Mr. Dubois, 367 Til-At the residence of Mr. Dubois, 367 Til-ismook street, on Thursday evening, Sep-tember 18, J. J. Sturgill and Barbara A. Duckworth of Sumpter, Or., were united in marriage, the Rev. W. O. Forbes offi-ciating. The happy couple will be at home to their friends at 376 Yamhill street, Mr. Sturgill is state organizer of one of the beneficiary orders. the beneficiary orders.

Woody-O'Toole.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of D. O'Toole, in Phoenix, Jackson County, on Thursday, September 26, when Catherine A. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O'Toole, was married to George W. Woody by Rev. Father George Doyle. Miss Frances O'Toole was maild of honor, and Mr. Miller Anderson County And Mrs. and Mr. Milton Anderson acted as best

At the residence of the bride's mother

Stowe-Breck.

Mrs. J. M. Breck, Annie A. Breck was married to Clarendon C. Stowe, the Rev. W. A. M. Breck officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Stowe have taken the Case cottage adjoining Mrs. Breck's home, where they will be at home to their friends after October 16. No cards Jefferies-Hiddink.

Mr. George H. Jefferies, of Portland, and Miss Minnie Hiddink, of Buxton, were quietly married at the bride's parents', October 1, 1901. Only relatives and kn-mediate friends were present. The hapby couple left immediately for their future me in Seattle, Wash.

Collins-Albert.

A pretty wedding took place in Los Angeles lately, the contracting parties being Miss Bose Albert, a well-known Portland girl, and Mr. A. J. Collins, of Los Angeles. The young couple have gone to housekeeping in their own beau-tifully furnished home.

Witt-Freidrich

At the residence of the officiating clergyman, W. O. Forbes, on Wednesday evening, September 25, Mr. George Witt, of Beaverton, and Mergaret Freidrich were united in marriage, and will make their future home at Beaverton, Or. Tressler-Frehnuf.

Mr. E. E. Tressler and Miss Elizabeth R. Frehauf were married at the residence of Dr. Alexander Blackburn on September 29. At home, 265 Fifth street, after No ber 1. No cards.

Engagements.

Miss Harriette Buckner, of Waterbury, Conn., to Mr. Nathan Solomon, of this city. At home Sunday, the 18th inst., at J. E. Solomon's, 89 West Park

Surprise Party.

A delightful birthday surprise party was tendered Mr. M. Solomon, 405 Third street, late last Wednesday evening, at his home. The next day was Mr. Solo-mon's natal morning, and his relatives quietly prepared a feast of good things in the dining-room and invited several friends. When the guest of honor was asked to step down stairs and see the dainty supper and meet his guests, the surprise was complete. Midnight sounded shortly afterward and Mr. Solomon was the recipient of many happy wishes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. S. Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harris, Mr, and Mrs. H. Solomon, Mrs. G. Michael, Mrs. J. Blu-menthal, Miss Hattle Buckner, Miss Carrie Hawes, Miss Paloma Blumenthal, Mr. N. Solomon, Mr. D. Solomon, Mr. D. Parrott, Mr. J. Everest, Mr. A. Solomon, and Master E. Blumenthal.

The Dierke Recital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierke gave a charming musicale last Sunday evening to a number of their friends. The impression Mrs. Dierke made by playing the masterpleces of Beethoven, Chopin, Schuman, Schubert, Wagner, Liszt and Tschalkowsky were such as only a world-famed planist could have created. Mrs. Charles Rueff, who was in excellent voice, delighted the listeners with songs by Massenet, George Bizet, and others, which she sang with the genuine French spirit. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rueff, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoge, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mey-er, of New York; Mrs. Selling, of Corvallis; Mrs. Ben Selling, Miss Rae Selling, Miss Louise Mesick, Miss Alice Sandsbury, and Mr. Agnew, of Vancouver, B. C.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

at their new home 715 Hoyt street.

een spending the Summer. Mrs. R. Knoll left on Tuesday on visit to her sister in Victoria, B. C.

Miss Hattle Spurrier is spending a nonth in Heppner with Miss Bessie Ew-Miss Julia Rosenthal, of Seattle, is vis-iting Miss Florence Mayer, 241 Thirteenth

Dr. James Cananne has left for Chicago where he will attend the Chicago Dental Mr. N. E. Ayre, who was called East by the illness of his father, will return home tonight.

J. M. Church, a banker of La Grande, is in the city for a few days, and is stopping at the Portland.

Mrs. B. A. Chilberg, of Seattle, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Schuitz, returned home last night. Miss Mary Hicks leaves Tuesday, the 8th, to take charge of Dr. Cole's private sanitarium, in Conneaut, Ohlo, formerly her old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Runyon, who have been visiting Portland for the past month, departed last Wednesday for their home in Red Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. McCraken leave tomorrow evening for the Pan-American Exposition, at Buffalo, after which they will visit the principal cities of the East. Major-General O. O. Howard and Mrs. Howard will be at their daughter's, Mrs. James T. Gray's on Tuesday and Wednes-day next, 715 Thompson street, Irvington. Mrs. A. L. Derbyshire, who has been visiting in the city a few days, resumed her journey to Nome Friday, where her husband, Dr. A. L. Derbyshire, is now located.

Dr. Victor H. Smith went to China as surgeon on the British ship Knight Companion. His father, W. K. Smith, will meet him at Hong Kong, and they will visit the Philippines.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Olds have turned from a September sojourn at New-port beaches, and are at home to their friends, 373 Hassalo street. Mrs. Olds will receive on first Mondays and Fri-

I. Labovitch has returned from a visit of Several weeks to New York and Chi-cago. He visited the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, and says the Oregon exhibit excites the admiration and wonder of all beholders.

Mrs. Fred May and daughter, Maud, have returned from a month's visit with Mr. May's brother, Walter May, of Ta-coma. They were accompanied home by the Misses Sadle and Mattie Doran, of Tacoma, who will visit friends here.

Miss Grace Holmes, who is well known in educational circles in Portland, has accepted the position as instructor of oratory in the Webb City College, at Webb City, Mo. Miss Holmes expects to return to Portland at the close of the college term.

Rev. George L. Learn and wife, of Hannibal, N. Y., arrived at Montavilla on Tuesday evening to take charge of Grace Church, Montavilla, and Mount Tabor Church, as their pastor. Until the par-sonage at Montavilla is made ready they will be the guests of W. G. Smith and Miss Teal, who has been at Hood River for the past year and a half, has decided to stay another year. She will occupy the cottage belonging to H. H. Holmes. Hood River air has proven greatly beneficial to Miss Teal, and her many friends will be pleased to hear she has grown much stronger during her stay there.

Mr. L. W. Benedict, for many years a resident of this city, and at one time a Portland policeman, was here for goveral days and returned Monday to Vallejo, Cal. His wife and son accompanied him. They will make their home at Vallejo.

the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., with expert attendants for massage, hair-dressing, manicuring and baths. A. J. Singer, proprietor.

This week hundreds of express and freight shipments will arrive. Coats of the Velour du Nord will predominate, also Newmarkets and several new effects in cloth coats. Stratton's garments are handled exclusively in my house.

Borquist & Refling Have received their new Winter stock, covering all the newest novelties in woolens, 231 Washington, corner Second.

Voice Culture and Elecution. Adelia R. Luse, 185 Thirteenth street.

The Grand Portrait Prize, the highest award given by the Photographic Asso-ciation of the Northwest, was carried off yesterday by our local photographer, C. A. Krauch, of Seventh and Washington streets, whose methods of characteristic portraiture are finding approval by our best artistic element.

Miss Ruth Arnold has opened her danc-ing classes in Mulkey building. Telephone Front 1161. Handsome Raglan coats made by Mrs. Thomas, 351 Oak, near Seventh.

Salem. Miss Edna Price has returned from an extended visit at Le Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald West, of Astoria, Salem visitors last Sunday Mrs. George H. Burnett, of this city, was a visitor at Eugene this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Misner, of Portland, spent a few days in Salem this week. Mrs. Sanford Stevens, of Lakeview, will spend the Winter with relatives in Salem. Mrs. H. K. McCully, of Portland, was a guest of Mrs. E. E. Waters, this week. W. E. Conner, of Ashland, was a guest of his father, J. Conner, of this city, last Sunday. Mrs. Z. F. Moody and Mrs. E. P. Mc-Cornack are visitors at The Dalles for a few days. Governor and Mrs. Geer were Portland risitors on Thursday, and spent Friday at Roseburg.

Mrs. A. B. Gillis returned Monday from a short visit with her brother in Astoria, A. W. Stowell, of Portland, was a guest at the home of General W. H. Odell last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stephens, of Port-land, were guests of Salem relatives early in the week.

Mrs. W. T. Gray returned to her home in Portland last Sunday after a few days' visit in Salem. Miss Ada Hendricks, of Eugene, spent last Wednesday in Salem and went to McMinnville to visit friends there. Eugene Sisson, of Storm Lake, Ia., and Charles Sisson, of Mason, Ill., visited D. W. Matthews, of this city, this week. Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Wire, of Albany, were in Salem this week. Mrs. Wire is attending a missionary society at Scattle. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Steusloff have gone enjoy the sights at the Buffalo Exposi-

Hon. W. H. Leeds has returned from a visit to Eastern cities. He left his daughter, Miss Ruth, to attend school in Philadelphia.

Astoria.

Mrs. J. T. Lighter leaves this week for a short visit in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mars have returned from a short visit in Portland. Miss Louise Rogers is visiting in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. L.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dement and family have left for California, where they will spend the Winter.

Mrs. Sanborn, of Milwaukee, Wis., "the mother of George W. Sanborn, of this city, arrived in Astoria on Friday and will spend the Winter with her son.

A very delightful afternoon was given last week by Mrs. Curtis Trenchard to her sister, Mrs. Westdahl, who leaves shortly for her home in Oakland, Cal. On Wednesday, the 30th of October, Frank Shields and Harriet Sayer will be united in marriage in the First Presby-terian Church. Rev. Henry Marcot, the paster, will perform the ceremony.

Among the prominent Astorians who Among the prominent astorians who have been enjoying the Carnival in Portland, the last week, are: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. George H. George, Mrs. H. F. Prael and Mrs. Ken-

He and his family will leave shortly fo California, where they will make their future home.

Dr. Newton Kieruff, who was stationed at Fort Stevens this Summer, has been ordered to the Philippine Islands and will leave on Monday to join the transport Dix, at Seattle, which will proceed direct to the Philippines.

Pendleton.

Mrs. William Parsons has gone to San Mr. Edwin Switzler has gone to Portland for a brief visit,

Mrs. George Hartman is visiting rela-iives and friends in Portland. Mrs. W. S. Ford has returned from a month's vielt with relatives in Spokane. J. T. Lambirth has returned from visiting his brother, James Lambirth, in Sa-

Mrs. William Roesch and daughter, Miss Frieda Roesch, are visiting in Port-Miss Semele Groate, who has been a guest of Miss Flo Hallock, has returned

Mrs. J. E. Rubeden, of Moscow, Idaho, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Morse have arrived from Portland and will again make Pen-dleton their home. Miss Edna Thompson and Miss Lavelle Moorhouse were in Walla Walla during the week of the Fruit Fair.

Mrs. R. Alexander and daughter, Miss Bertha, and son Ray, have returned from month's stay in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. William House have returned from a short wedding journey and are living, in rooms at the Hotel Pendle-

Mr. O. E. Boettcher has returned from Chicago, where he accompanied Mrs. Boettcher, who will visit her mother for a month or two. Rev. W. E. Potwine and brother, Robert

N. Potewine, left Saturday for San Francisco to attend the national convention of the Episcopal Church to be held in that city. The engagement of Mr. E. Y. Judd, of Pendleton, and Miss Elizabeth Bryant, of Hartford, Conn., is announced. Mr. Judd Is at present visiting his old home in Hartford, John Wallace, of this city, and Miss Myrtie Wilson were married recently at the home of the bride in Walla Walla. The young couple will make their home in Pendleton Mrs. A. D. Stillman has returned from Portland, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Disosway, who has been taking treatment at the Good Samaritan Hospital for some months past.

Miss Dalsy Howard, of Kerby, is visit-ing relatives here this week, Mrs. Alex Orme and daughter Miss Bertha, visited Medford friends this week. Miss Alta Naylor and Misses Kate and Emma Reed visited Jacksonville this week. Miss Eva Sills, of Grant's Pass, spent several days visiting friends here this week. will spend the Winter.

Mr. Frank Sanborn returned on Friday from an extended Eastern trip, and left will visit relatives several weeks. Mr.

men's Relief Corps of this city, and a prominent and efficient worker in the Central M. E. Church on Russell street, and will be much missed by a large circle of church and social friends.

PIANO RECITAL.

Beatrice Barlow Dierke, the Great Pinnist, at the White Temple. Beatrice Barlow Dierke, the great planist, will give a plano recital at the First Baptist Church (White Temple), Tuesday evening, October 29. Tickets at Woodard, Clarke & Co., Ellers Plano House, and at the box-office.

Makes Ladies Beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Dooly are now at their new home, 715 Hoyt street.

Mrs. C. R. Templeton arrived home last

Mrs. Benedict was president of the Wo- immediately to enter the Portland Academy.

(9)

have returned from the coast and will spend the Winter in Astoria. illness, has entirely recovered.

Mrs. Charles Rupert Higgins, who has been spending the Summer at Warrenton, has returned to her home in this city. Mr. V. Bowling, who has been traveling in the East for the past two months, has returned, having had a very delightful

Mrs. Neal, of Oakland, Cal., sister of William Hume, who has been visiting in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs.

Mrs. William Kinney and Miss Bennet visited friends in Oregon City last Sunday. quietly married at the Congregational par-

Jacksonville, spent several days visiting Paine.
Medford friends this week. Miss

Mrs. W. J. Redden left Sunday for Selma, Cal., having been called by the thress of her son, who fell from a bicycle arrived several days ago and will visit during the Winter with their daughter, Mrs. L. D. Minear and family. Miss C. Osenbrugge, of Winnipeg, Ont., spend the Winter in Astoria.

F. V. Medynski, an engineer on one of the large boats between St. Michaels and Dawson during the Summer months, returned Friday. Mr. and Mrs F. Pike, of Maxwell, Ia.,

Dr. A. A. Finch, who has been confined to his room with a short but severe day en route to Germany, her old home, which she has not seen for 19 years, > Oregon City. Mrs. Ida Hassel, of Scattle, is the guest of Mrs. Weldon M. Shank. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McKittrick have moved to Willamette Falls.

>
> Mr. Walter Williams, of Ilwaco, Wash.

The Misses Battin, of Canby, were in the city this week, the guests of their sis-ter, Mrs. J. L. Waldron, of Ely. Mr. George M. Eberle, of Baker County, and Miss Ada Palmer, of Portland, were

GREAT LINE OF ===

ECLIPSE STEEL RANGES AND HEATERS

Over one hundred styles of Eclipse Steel Ranges and Heaters. Each Range warranted absolutely a perfect baker, and not to crack in fifteen years. Buy the best at the price of the cheapest.

Prize

Eclipse

Airtight....

Cast top, botton

sectional lining,

nickel swing top,

rails and knobs

Russia

Airtight

Steel-lined.

15-inch ... $1.25 22-inch ...$4.00

Iron

24-inch

Six-hole No. 8 Eclipse Steel Range and high closet

$15.00 No 8 Cook Stove$8.50

Carpets Each week we offer a special bargain in Carpets. This week, 500 yards best $50.00; sale, Tapestry Brussels, beautiful patterns, regular $1.00 grade

65c yard

Parlor Suits

Cheaper than ever before. 100 styles at way-down prices. This beautiful An immense line at out prices. This five-piece Parior Suit, piano polish beautiful Iron Bed, how front, brass finished mahogany frame, beautiful rail on head and foot, brass eags and velour coverings, spring edge, regular Cimmings, extra high, three coats $35.00

Pive-piece Parlor Sults from $22.00 up. Iron Beds from $3.50 up.

No. 8 Tin Tea Kettle, copper bottom,

white enamel, regular $14.00; sale,

1. GEVURTZ & SONS

The Homefurnishers

173-175 First St. 219-225 Yamhill St. PORTLAND, OREGON.

sonage Monday evening by Rev. E. S.

J. R. Beegle, at one time a newspaper man of this city, has been elected to the City Council of Ketchican, Alaska. Mrs. J. W. Gray, who left Oregon City September 4 to join her husband in Alas-ka, arrived at Dawson September 17. Rev. W. S. Grim, with his wife and son, returned Monday from Hillsboro, where he attended the Methodist Conference, The marriage of Miss Kitty Parks and Mr. Charles Nass, of Clackamas, was solemnized at the Congregational Church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. John Roth and daughter, Miss Anna Roth, of Canby, were in the city Wednes-Miss Roth recently returned from the East, where she spent two years, Mr. H. L. Kelly, senior warden of St. Paul's Church, is in San Francisco, attending the Episcopal Convention to which he is a delegate from the Oregon Diocese. Mr. Kelly will visit relatives in San Jose before returning home,

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs George A. Harding entertained 35 friends at their residence, the occasion being a surprise party for Mr. Harding, who was presented with a handsome chair. Music and conversation were indulged in, and the evening passed pleasantly. Refreshments

Eugene.

Miss Agnes Mathews is visiting in Port-Miss Maud Morris has returned from a visit at Salem. Miss Marian White visited Cottage Grova

Mrs. Mac H. Wallace and little son are nome from a visit at The Dalles, Mrs. Miles Perkins and children left Tuesday for Phoenix, Ariz., to reside. George W. Pickett returned Wednesday from an extended visit at Boswell Springs, Miss Mira Calef and Minnie Harlow attended the Carnival at Portland the past

Rev. T. E. Dorris, of Allegheny, Pa. visiting his brother, M. L. Dorris, in Eugene. Miss Anna Driver returned to Salem after having visited her father, Dr. Driver, of Eugene, Mrs C. W. Lowe has returned from a ant visit with her mother and sister, at McMinnville, Judge R. S. Bean returned to Salem after having attended Dr. and Mrs. Strong's reception, Friday night, Frank Test, of Portland, who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. M. S. Barker of this city, has returned home. A large crowd listened to the open-air concert given by the Fourth Regiment Band on the Courthouse Square Friday night. Mrs. W. F. Williamson, of Salem, came up to visit a few days with the families of Hon. S. H. Friendly and Dr. D. A.

Miss Lillian McEiroy has returned from a visit in Salem. She was accompanied by George and Agnes McElroy, Mr. and Mrs Willis McElroy's children, who will visit here. Saturday evening, at their home in University Addition, President and Mrs, Frank Strong tendered a reception to the University of Oregon faculty that they might meet their new colleagues and con-freres in educational work. The Board of Regents, together with members of the faculty and their families, were present, making about 60 guests in all.

The Dalles. Dr. T. Beal, of Salem, is the guest of Miss Michell. Mrs. Joseph Bonn left here Wednesday or a visit with her parents in Belview, la. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Stadleman returned Saturday from their wedding journey. Miss Lytle, of Wasco, is visiting Miss Prudence Patterson, during the carnival. Mr. and Mrs. E. Height, of Antelope, have spent part of Carnival week in this dleton, are the guests of Mrs. L. E. Crowe, in this city. Mrs. M. V. Lang and Miss Lang have returned from a three weeks' sojourn at Hot Lake, Union County.

Mrs. Z. F. Moody and her daughter, Mrs. E. P. McCornack, of Salem, are

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fowler, of Pen-

WEDDING INVITATIONS AND VISITING

EMBOSSED STATIONERY

OF ALL KINDS.

WASHINGTON BLDG., Fourth and Washington Streets.

Benjamin Snipes, of Sqattle, has spent the past two weeks in The Dalles, visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. John Dexter, of Vallejo, Cal., is visiting at the residence of her father, Mr. J. B. Crossen, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bolton, of Ante-lope, have spert the past few days in town at the resident of Mr. S. Bolton. Mrs. M. C. George and Miss George, of Portland, spent a few days with Mrs. A. J. Tolmie, in this city, early in the past week. Mrs. Samuel Storrow, of North Yakima, formerly Miss Cora Allen, of this city, left here Wednesday after a short visit with friends Miss Cooper, of Independence, who has spent the past two weeks in this city, the guest of her cousin, Miss Virginia Cooper, has returned to her home. Mrs. S. Langille, of Hood River, with her sister, Mrs. Mecklin, of New York, spent the early part of the week in The Dalles, the guests of Mrs. M. V. Lang. Dr. Gertrude French, of Portland, ar rived in this city yesterday for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith French. Mrs. Wood Gilman and Mrs. Eugene Gilman, of Crook County, are also guests of Mrs. French

Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, of Spokane, has been spending a few days with Mrs. W. H. in the city, the guest of her stater, Mrs. Moody in this city. Mr. and Mrs. C. Sullivan have left for a trip to Seattle and Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bowersox have returned from a trip to the East. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Laforest have returned from a trip to California. Miss Lillian Laning has left for Tacoma,

Miss May Trimble, of Portland, is in Medicated Complexion Powder No face powder in the world has given the universal satisfaction of Pozzoni's; no chalk, lime or sincpure. Sample free.

1 J. A. Pozzoni, St. Louis, M.

Alaska Sealskins

Our well-known exclusive facilities for procuring Sealskins in the raw state make competition impossible. We are the acknowledged leaders for stylish Furs Our garments are always distinguishable for their superior quality and unrivaled workmanship, and their excelience of fit and finish Catalogue mailed free on application

H.Liebes & Company 288 Morrison St. Jno. P. Plagemann