THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK .- The cop ies of the handbook which The Oregonian will be able to dispose of to the public will be placed on sale over the counters of the business office tomorrow. The principal part of the edition of 59,000 copies have already been sold on advance orders. After this edition has been exhausted, it will be impossible to secure any additional books. The price of the handbook to any postoffice address in the United States, postage prepaid, will be 7 cents

FAMED FROS DISAPPEARS .- The City Hall frog, which furnished several items within the past six months, has disap peared and no one knows whither. He had become quite a pet, and would est dead flies from the hand, and it is thought some boy visitor to the museum fell in love with him and lugged him off. His me-lodious voice had begun to reverberate through the silent halls of the big mar-ble building of evenings after the officials had gone home, and no one was near to enjoy the music but the janitor. Just on the eve of a rain he was most noisy and he seemed to enjoy the anticipation of the coming shower, even though he could not expose his coat to its gentle influence. The big blue basin in which he disported has also disappeared, but the frog's companion, a horned toad, still wel-comes visitors to the third floor of the City Hall. This reptile, if he is permitted to remain, will prove that some creatures can live without water, as his hed is dry sand, and no drink has yet been offered him. Yet he wayes for Yet he waxes fat.

BANKRUPT SALE, WOLFF & ZWICKER IRON WORKS.—The auction sale of the plant of Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works has been postponed to October 8, 1991, at 30 A. M., at which time I will offer for sale, on the premises, at the east end of the Madison-street bridge, Portland, & Zwicker Iron Works, including real estate, machinery, tools, equipment of all kinds, office furniture, etc. Up to and until 19 A. M. of October 8, 1901, I will also receive written offers for any speci-fied lots or portlons of the said plant, or any specified machines or tools, or the real estate, separately. Deposit at the time of bid must be made if required by trustee. The trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids not satisfactory. Inventory and abstract of title can be examined, and all inquiries answered at office on premises. The sale of merchandise will continue each day, beginning Friday, September 27, until completed. TAKES DEFEAT GRACEFULLY .- The general impression around town is that Sir Thomas Lipton takes his defeat gracefully for a man who had so much hope so were it not for the fact that he can procure the celebrated Felfer's Union 5s, which is absolutely the best cigar that skill can produce for 5 cents. If you have not tried this famous brand of nickel goods, you had better begin today.

Norice of Removal.-I have removed my offices from 250 Stark to 251 Washing-ton street (Oregon telephone Main 688), transacting a general fire insurance bustress, under the firm name of Puffer, Burgard & Co., representing several large companies. Indorsements, assignments and renewals of existing policies written by the old firm of Puffer, Dooly & Co.

NEEDLEWORK will receive prompt attention at my hands upon notice. W. C. Puffer.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.-It appearing to this court that to enable the completion of the improvements on the Vancouver bridge it will be necessary to suspend all team travel thereon, it is hereby ordered that from and after Monday. October 7, 2801, and until further orders of the court, footmen only will be allowed on said bridge. By order of the County Court, October 4, 190L

Do not forget the whist social and dance Wednesday evening, October 9, Foresters Hall.

—As Dr. C. E. Stolte, who resides at 200 Wheeler street, was walking along Clack-amas street shortly after 8 o'clock last night, he was set upon by two robbers who wore masks, and who had revolvers in each hand. "Keep quiet or it'll be the worse for you." said one footpad, warningly, and he came close to Dr. Stolte, grabbad his watch-chain and charm and weenched them from the watchring. The wrenched them from the watchring. The other robber went rapidly through Dr. Stolte's pockets and relieved him of $5 in cash. Then with a parting warning that they must not be followed, they departed. Strange to say, the robbers did not take their victim's watch. The watch charm is a Masonic emblem, valuable only to the owner, and, as it is a family Dr. Stolte is specially anxious to get it again. PRESENTED WITH A CHAIN.—Maurice Barrymore Smith, the Chesterfieldian treasurer of Cordray's Theater, was as-tonished and delighted Friday night by receiving from the ushers and doorkeep-ers of the playhouse a handsome gold chain as a tyken of the estern in which chain, as a token of the esteem in which he is held by all who are associated with him. It was Mr. Smith's —th birthday, and he will wear the chain as long as he keeps on having that kind of anniversaries, which his friends hope will be many acons. Those who presented the chain were as follows: Sidney Blumen-thal, Joseph Copeland, F. Chaney, W. Heater, F. Miller, W. A. Walpole, F.

Ayres, Ed Rethlefsen. INDIANS ARRIVE TODAY .- One hundred Indians, who are being brought to Port-land from The Dalles for the Portland land from The Dalles for the Portland Carnival, will arrive this afternoon about 3 o'clock on the Bailey Gatzert. The In-dians will form a parade and will march out Morrison street to the Exposition building. The Indians will be arrayed in their picturesque costumes, and their appearance creates interest wherever they so Vectorer at The Palles 2000. they go. Yesterday at The Dalles, 7000 people gathered to see the braves and their squaws. The Indian camp will be nade on the Multnomah Field.

HOMER DAVENPORT'S FATHER DYING .-T. W. Davenport, father of the famous cartoonist, Homer Davenport, is dying at his home near Silverton. A letter re ceived by a Portland friend of Homer Davenport, states that the physicians have abandoned all hope of recovery, and the patient is gradually growing weaker, un-til at the time of writing there was comparatively no life remaining. Mr. Dav-enport was hurt in an accident, in which he was thrown from a buggy, his head being caught in the running gear of the ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW .- The Oregon State Poultry Association will, as usual, give a poultry show this year. It will be held during the week commencing December 30, and will, of course, include New Year's day. The services of W. W. Browning, of Odgen Utah, have been secured as judge for the occasion. Mr. Browning served in the same capacity before, and gave excellent satisfaction. A meeting of the association will be held Wednesday night of this week at the office of the Pacific Farmer. office of the Pacific Farmer.

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorpora-tion of the Elite Social Club were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Benjamin Chandler, A. Ballard, Harry Hooper, John Wooden and W. L. B. Plummer; capital stock, $500. Articles were filed of the Wooden Telescope Company by E. N. Phillips, F. J. McHenry and Delphine Hall McHenry; capital stock, $1000. The objects are to manufacture trunks, telescopes, etc.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

First Meeting for Fall Work to Be Held Next Tuesday.

It is earnestly hoped that all who have expressed an interest in the Needlework Guild and many who would like to learn of its methods and aims, will attend the next meeting, to be held in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A., Mucleay building, next Tuesday at 3:30 P. M. The requirements of membership are be derived from the distribution of new garments among the hospitals, homes and other charities cannot be estimated, if each and every woman and girl is will-ing to contribute her mite.

ing to contribute her mite.

A most cordial invitation is extended, and will you not come and hear about the great good that has been done in other cities, and the need of a strong and energetic branch guild in our own midst?

Any further information desired can be obtained from the president, Mrs. James S. Reid, 741 Hoyt street, or the secretary, Miss Katherine Sitton, 423 Yamhill street.

SWETLAND'S

For Ideal Luncheons-For High-Grade Confections-For Frozen Dainties.

During the past 15 years sweetmeats and Swetland's have been almost synonymous terms in the minds of Portland people. It has been almost impossible to think of the one without the other. During all these years this house has held a high place in the estimation of the public, and it has earned its reputation standard of excellence in all its manufactures, Perfection and purity have been, are, and will be, its ideals. Prompt and quiet attention, neat and tasteful surroundings, homelike cooking, and appetizing dishes, have made our lunches the most popular in the city. Freshness, purity of ingredients and perfection in manufacture have made our confections a household word in the community, and our untiring efforts to give our patrons the very best in all lines have given us a gratifying popularity throughout the entire North-

Messrs, E. P. and L. E. Swetland have disposed of their interests in the firm to Mr. L. Q. Swetland, whose energy and familiarity with the business will enable him to add to the spiendid reputation al-ready established by the house.

Boys' Suits

Have you ever stopped to think what a difference there is in the makes of boys' clothing? Many suits are bought because the prices are low. It is often the price that governs the purchaser, and not the quality or the substantial makes. Their theory seems to be based on the idea that any kind of a suit is good enough for a boy. Our clothes for boys are the best made, and if you will investigate the merits of our clothing you will find them as low in price as many inferior makes.
