

IT IS A VALUABLE BOOK

SOME OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY PORTLAND PEOPLE.

The Oregonian's Handbook Spoken of as a Most Reliable and Attractive Publication.

Since the publication of the handbook on Monday last The Oregonian has received many flattering testimonials from different parts of the Northwest...

Hon. H. W. Corbett: "As an exponent of the advancement of the industries of Oregon and the Northwest during the past century..."

Ralph W. Hoyt, cashier Merchants National Bank: "It is my idea of advertising the resources of the state..."

W. A. MacRae, manager London & San Francisco Bank, limited: "Brimful of statistics covering industries, resources and climate of city and state..."

Mayor H. S. Rowe: "The Oregonian's book descriptive of Portland and its tributaries is an object-lesson much more expressive than words..."

J. M. Long, City Attorney and one of the leading spirits of the Lewis and Clark Centennial, American-Pacific Exposition and Oriental Fair: "The enterprise of The Oregonian in getting out this handbook will be productive of more good for Portland and the Northwest..."

Allen B. Crossman, postmaster, Portland: "It is an 'Oregon peach' I am in a position where I can appreciate it often receive 30 letters a day, mostly of inquiry..."

H. C. Bowers, manager Portland Hotel: "It is the nicest thing of the kind that I have seen. It is artistically beautiful, and coming from The Oregonian, I take it for granted that the information is accurate..."

A. L. Craig, general passenger agent O. R. & N. Co.: "I think it is good that I have laid it aside for future reference in connection with our correspondence and printed matter..."

R. B. Muller, general passenger agent Southern Pacific Company: "A very good publication. It is in very attractive form, not only to strangers, but to home people..."

A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent Northern Pacific Railway Company: "The Lewis and Clark Handbook of Portland and tributaries, published by The Oregonian, is a work of art and could not be improved upon..."

A. C. Sheldon, general agent, Burlington Route: "I found it so complete and concise that I forwarded a number of copies to representatives of the passenger department of our line in the East..."

A. B. C. Denniston, city passenger and ticket agent, Great Northern Railway: "It is accurate and reliable. It furnishes a correct and accurate medium of information. The resources and advantages of the Northwest are most fully set forth..."

F. R. Johnson, freight and passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway: "It strikes me that with a population of 1,500,000 in the Northwest to draw from, and with the wonderful diversity of Oregon's resources, as set forth in this book, the success of the 1901 Exposition should be practically assured..."

Charles J. Eddy, general passenger agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway: "At a glance I saw at once that it was a very valuable book of reference, conveying information that will be acceptable to everybody..."

Martin Winch, administrator S. G. Reed estate: "It is very creditable to The Oregonian. I shall take a great deal of pleasure in sending it to our friends. I think it will be a great thing for Oregon..."

W. P. Olds (Olds, Wertman & King): "A compact arrangement of cold facts without bombast. Should have a wide distribution in the Middle West and be used as a text-book by Portland's people..."

I. N. Fleischer, of Fleischer, Mayer & Co.: "I have carefully read it. I find its pages filled with instructive and interesting matter relating to the city, the state and the Northwest..."

H. W. Goode, general manager Portland General Electric Company: "The booklet gives a very concise and comprehensive statement of Oregon's trade and resources. It cannot fail to interest Eastern capitalists, farmers and manufacturers in whose hands it may fall. It should be widely distributed..."

Captain W. C. Langitt, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., Portland: "The book should be in more permanent form; I mean with a more durable cover..."

H. C. Bredren: "In compilation it is most comprehensive. In the beneficial results that will follow the issue, it is beyond my power of expression to predict..."

Sam P. Jones, of Kentucky: "It is a credit to The Oregonian. Its typographical and illustrative features are most tasty. Its subject-matter I have not had time to read carefully..."

H. B. Litter: "Excellent. I consider it excellent in every detail, and that is as much as a man can say. I believe it will have a better effect than anything I have ever seen printed in advising outsiders of the advantages of Portland and the Northwest..."

F. S. Doernbecher, of the Doernbecher Manufacturing Company: "I have bought 500 copies of the handbook, which I intend to distribute among my leading patrons outside of Portland..."

Francis I. McKenna: "We have received 500 copies of the Handbook. It is by far the best thing of the kind ever published in the state..."

Philip Buehner, treasurer and manager Eastern Union Company: "I think it is all right. The information furnished is broad and accurate. We are sending them to all our Eastern customers..."

I. N. Lipman, of Lipman Wolfe & Co.: "It is an exceedingly unique production and should attract a great deal of attention back East..."

Studebaker Bros. Co., Northwest: "We consider the finest thing that has ever been published in the Northwest, as an advertisement of its resources..."

F. L. Selick, manager J. I. Case Company: "It is very fine. It is the duty of everybody in Oregon to send out one to every inquiring friend..."

Henry Meldrum, U. S. Surveyor-General of Oregon: "A good exposition of the resources of the state. The data seem exceptionally accurate. It is a valuable medium for informing the people of the East..."

H. H. Newhall, president East Side Bank: "It reflects great credit on The Oregonian to publish such a work as this. It is the superior of any like publication ever gotten out in the state..."

Ed Blumauer, of Blumauer & Hoch: "It is an average book. The best The Oregonian ever got out for the purpose. I think it the best possible medium for advertising the state..."

Thomas C. Devlin, City Auditor, Portland: "The Oregonian handbook presents an attractive, concise and clear statement of the advantages of Portland..."

W. H. Hurlburt, president Portland City & Oregon Railway Company: "My attention is called to the publication of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition booklet, and while I have not found time to go over the same carefully..."

Star-Eyed Goddess Takes Heart: "Louisville Courier-Journal: 'What Southern heart does not warm with the thought of noble old Wade Hampton going back to the Senate of the United States...'"

Registration in New York: "NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The total of the first day's registration of voters in this city yesterday was 23,035. In 1900 it was 25,518..."

This season Blanche Walsh will make an extended tour of the important cities in the South and on the Pacific Coast, presenting her new romantic drama 'Joan of the Sword Hand'...

Pat Crowe heard from: "OFFERS TO GIVE HIMSELF UP IF THE REWARD IS WITHDRAWN. Afraid if it is still hanging over him, Manufactured Testimony Would Convict Him..."

OMAHA, Oct. 12.—Chief of Police Donahue has received from Patrick Crowe through a friend of the latter, a letter offering to surrender himself and stand trial in the courts if the reward of $50,000 hanging over his head for the alleged kidnaping of Edward A. Cudahy, Jr., is withdrawn...

There was a legal fight today over the case of James Callahan, held for perjury in the Cudahy kidnaping trial. The plea in bar was not argued, but Callahan's attorneys filed a motion to quash on the ground that the jury has been called, and that indictment, rather than information, is the proper charge...

A BUTTE TRAGEDY: "MINER MURDERED BY ANOTHER MAN IN COLD BLOOD. BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 12.—William J. McKane, a miner, was this evening shot dead by Patrick Hayes..."

Burglars Terrorized a Village: "SAGINAW, Mich., Oct. 12.—Early today, burglars, who had previously blown open the safe in the office of the United States Graphite Company here, and secured $30,000 in cash, terrorized the inhabitants of the village of Fosters, near here..."

Kentucky Postoffice Robbed: "DANVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—At Harrodsburg, 10 miles from here, five men early today robbed the postoffice, securing a small sum of money, and afterwards attempted to effect entrance to the First National Bank..."

Killed a Maniac: "MATTOON, Ill., Oct. 12.—An unknown man, supposed to be James Bourke, after escaping from the detention hospital, where he had been sent several days ago in a from of delirium tremens, entered the home of John Herman, as the family were seated at the table..."

Suspected of Stealing Stamps: "WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Oct. 12.—G. Munnell was arrested at Williams, 15 miles east of here, as an accomplice of the man arrested in Chicago a few days ago with $150 worth of postage stamps on his person..."

Officers Killed by Outlaws: "ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 12.—News last week of this city that Deputy Sheriff William Maxwell, of Hobbs, Ariz., and another officer named Trefalla were killed in a recent battle with outlaws near Springerville, it is thought the outlaws belong to the 'Hole-in-the-Wall' gang..."

Maggie Indicted: "ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 12.—Antonio Maggio, the anarchist, who was arrested in Silver City before the alleged predictions of the assassination of President McKinley, was indicted by the Federal grand jury for conspiracy to kill the President. His bail was fixed at $500..."

A Murder and Suicide: "LOUISVILLE, Colo., Oct. 12.—John Taylor, a weigh boss at the Rex mine, shot and killed his divorced wife this afternoon and then blew out his own brains. Taylor had tried in vain to induce his wife to return to him..."

Suspected of Murder: "BOZEMAN, Mont., Oct. 12.—John Black, a wealthy rancher, resident of the Galatin Valley, died last night from morphine poisoning. His wife and hired man are under arrest, charged with the crime. Black is said to have been over 60 years of age..."

Stolen Jewels Recovered: "CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 12.—A telegram stating that the jewels stolen from the wife of Denman Thompson last week have been recovered has been received by the actor..."

A Butte Murder: "BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 12.—William J. McKane, a miner, was this evening shot dead by Patrick Hayes..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition..."

A Perfect Woman

If between five feet three inches and five feet seven inches in height, should weigh not more than 140 pounds, nor less than 125. Her bust should measure not less than twenty-eight nor more than thirty-six inches. Her hips will measure six to ten inches more than the bust and her waist line will measure from twenty-two to twenty-eight inches.

That is the artistic standard. According to art perfection can be measured by inches. According to Nature the only measure of womanly perfection is health. Nature's perfect woman is one who is perfectly fit for womanly functions. Of the two, Nature's standard of womanly perfection is higher than that of art. There are more perfectly proportioned women than women who are perfectly healthy. But the natural standard of womanly perfection has this advantage over the artistic—its shortcomings may be repaired. If a woman fails of the artistic requirements in height she cannot add one cubit to her stature. If her nose lacks classical shape or her hands are not formed on classic models, she must forever lack artistic perfection. It is different with the woman who falls short of Nature's standard of perfection—health. By the use of proper means she can, as a rule, become a perfectly healthy woman. The proof of this is that there are thousands of healthy women to-day who once were great sufferers from womanly diseases, but have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Those thousands of cured women represent the cure of every form of womanly disease which can be cured by medicines. No matter what form of womanly disease she may have, a woman knows that some other women have suffered with it too. She also needs to know that many of those other women, once diseased as she is, are among the thousands cured of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Why should any woman endure the torments of womanly disease and the misery of ill-health when the use of "Favorite Prescription" offers her an almost certain cure? It is possible, and but just possible, that in some cases no perfect cure can be made. The statistics show that two women out of every hundred cannot be perfectly cured. That means that the chances in favor of a cure are ninety-eight out of a hundred. But if Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fails to cure in two cases out of a hundred, it never fails to benefit in any case. It enables women who could do no work to have some part again in household duties. It enables women who could not sleep without using narcotics, to sleep naturally. It reduces the pain and the suffering from womanly diseases, and as many a woman writes, "makes life once more worth living." Some of the letters women write, describing their condition and cure are printed below. There are thousands of other women who have written in similar terms about the wonderful cures accomplished by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

Let any sick woman who reads these letters read them as personal letters to herself—a personal invitation from a healthy woman to a sick sister to use the same means of cure which has restored her to perfect and permanent health. If the case described is not exactly like your own, remember that your condition is surely just like that of some of the thousands who owe health and happiness to the curative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and be encouraged by the cure of others to give the medicine a fair trial yourself.

Mrs. Anna Willy of (Michigan House), Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I am now a well and happy woman."

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for female weakness," writes Mrs. Susannah Permenter, of Pauls Store, Shelby Co., Texas. "I was troubled with bearing-down pains in my back and hips for six years, and I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. I tried his 'Favorite Prescription' and six bottles cured me. I feel like a new person and I thank Dr. Pierce for my health. Life is a burden to any one without health."

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness for about two years," writes Mrs. Emma Richardson, of Gose, Wayne Co., Ky. "Could not do my work part of the time. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and felt as well as I ever did."

"About a year ago I had a mishap which left me in very poor health for some time afterward," writes Mrs. Cene Johnson, of Gordon, Sheridan Co., Neb. "I employed a local doctor but got only temporary relief, until I commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine, which I did after consulting you. I am now as well as ever. I took five bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I would recommend these medicines to all who suffer as I did."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It is the best tonic and nerve for weak and run-down women, restoring their strength, soothing the irritated nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing refreshing sleep.

Women who read the letters printed above will note the reference to Dr. Pierce's advice. Any sick woman is invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All letters are held as strictly private and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultation with weak and sick women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PERFECT HEALTH can be preserved only by avoiding the dangers which threaten it. How to preserve the health is the central theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work, containing more than a thousand large pages and over 700 illustrations, is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

Address: Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D.

proposed by Mr. Young. If they want a special session they certainly should strengthen Mr. Young's position by coming to his support in the matter, if not, they are a majority and should advise with Mr. Young as to the best means of getting the proposition on foot. It is our opinion that the Lewis & Clark Centennial is of too great magnitude to be carried to successful termination, by one man, especially when the plan of operation as proposed by that one man does not meet the approval of a majority of the people of the state.

She Paid Life Insurance for 45 Years. Statement. One of the largest life insurance companies in New York has on its books the names of many women who years ago insured their lives in the company. The dividend results on their policies are precisely the same as on men's policies. Where the premiums are paid each year in cash and in full, the dividends accumulated by Mr. Young. If they want a special session they certainly should strengthen Mr. Young's position by coming to his support in the matter, if not, they are a majority and should advise with Mr. Young as to the best means of getting the proposition on foot. It is our opinion that the Lewis & Clark Centennial is of too great magnitude to be carried to successful termination, by one man, especially when the plan of operation as proposed by that one man does not meet the approval of a majority of the people of the state.

Harry Berezford began his first tour as a star September 23, appearing in Broadhurst's "The Wrong Mr. Wright," a comedy in which the late Roland Reed had much success.

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition. The very uniqueness of the book is a charm. One can find examples of oratory in almost every field. The wit of the after-dinner speeches; the humor of the lecturers; the brusque eloquence of the stump speaker; the solid rhetoric of the occasional oration, are all there. Then we have a marshalling of gifted men of modern times when at their best. The sayings of the babies, and the anecdotes of the story-tellers are at hand to tempt us in our weariness. Then the pictures! How they set the men before us! When our looks on the books he feels that he has the acme of the bookmaker's art, and when he looks into them he forgets all about the outside in his enjoyment of the matter. The selections have been fully made, and I know of no set of books in which there may be found so good a portraiture of so many men.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BLACKBURN

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D.

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition. The very uniqueness of the book is a charm. One can find examples of oratory in almost every field. The wit of the after-dinner speeches; the humor of the lecturers; the brusque eloquence of the stump speaker; the solid rhetoric of the occasional oration, are all there. Then we have a marshalling of gifted men of modern times when at their best. The sayings of the babies, and the anecdotes of the story-tellers are at hand to tempt us in our weariness. Then the pictures! How they set the men before us! When our looks on the books he feels that he has the acme of the bookmaker's art, and when he looks into them he forgets all about the outside in his enjoyment of the matter. The selections have been fully made, and I know of no set of books in which there may be found so good a portraiture of so many men.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BLACKBURN

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D.

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition. The very uniqueness of the book is a charm. One can find examples of oratory in almost every field. The wit of the after-dinner speeches; the humor of the lecturers; the brusque eloquence of the stump speaker; the solid rhetoric of the occasional oration, are all there. Then we have a marshalling of gifted men of modern times when at their best. The sayings of the babies, and the anecdotes of the story-tellers are at hand to tempt us in our weariness. Then the pictures! How they set the men before us! When our looks on the books he feels that he has the acme of the bookmaker's art, and when he looks into them he forgets all about the outside in his enjoyment of the matter. The selections have been fully made, and I know of no set of books in which there may be found so good a portraiture of so many men.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BLACKBURN

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D.

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition. The very uniqueness of the book is a charm. One can find examples of oratory in almost every field. The wit of the after-dinner speeches; the humor of the lecturers; the brusque eloquence of the stump speaker; the solid rhetoric of the occasional oration, are all there. Then we have a marshalling of gifted men of modern times when at their best. The sayings of the babies, and the anecdotes of the story-tellers are at hand to tempt us in our weariness. Then the pictures! How they set the men before us! When our looks on the books he feels that he has the acme of the bookmaker's art, and when he looks into them he forgets all about the outside in his enjoyment of the matter. The selections have been fully made, and I know of no set of books in which there may be found so good a portraiture of so many men.

(Signed) ALEXANDER BLACKBURN

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, D. D.

THE OREGONIAN: "Dear Sirs: The ten volumes of 'Modern Eloquence' received. Already I have discovered that my library has a very valuable addition. The very uniqueness of the book is a charm. One can find examples of oratory in almost every field. The wit of the after-dinner speeches; the humor of the lecturers; the brusque eloquence of the stump speaker; the solid rhetoric of the occasional oration, are all there. Then we have a marshalling of gifted men of modern times when at their best. The sayings of the babies, and the anecdotes of the story-tellers are at hand to tempt us in our weariness. Then the pictures! How they set the men before us! When our looks on the books he feels that he has the acme of the bookmaker's art, and when he looks into them he forgets all about the outside in his enjoyment of the matter. The selections have been fully made, and I know of no set of books in which there may be found so good a portraiture of so many men.