HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—THE RED CROSS EMPLOYMENT Office wants every working man and woman to know the lines this office is run on. In the first place, for every out-of-town situation I have a written order to show that help is wanted. This order is signed by the employer ordering the help. Second, I do not send help to any place where there is any doubt of their getting the wages due them. Third, I issue a printed form, guaranteeing a steady situation, and if for any cause whatever a steady situation is not secured, I give another free of charge to the employe. Fourth, I guarantee the employe a prompt refund of the money paid in case of their not securing a situation. Fifth, my office fee for all laboring work is uniform—that is, $1 to each situation secured. Sixth, I give free of charge all housework or domestic places to women.
