EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Delta Iota Chi Entertain.
Eta Chapter of Delta Iota Chi entertained in a most charming manner last Wednesday evening at the residence of Dr. Rafferty, on the East Side. The spacious parlors were most elaborately trimmed with Autumn foliage and Dix emblems. Progressive hearts was the game of the evening, and was most heartily enjoyed by all. The score cards were most novel, being the exact copy of the society pin. The fortunate winner of the first gentleman's prize was Mr. McGowan. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served in a most cozy Japanese dining-room. All the decorations were Japanese, and the room was lighted by dozens of tiny Japanese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated. After retiring from the dining-room dancing was indulged in for a short time.
The gathering was in honor of Miss Catherine Struble, who leaves shortly for the East, where she intends staying for some time.
The guests were: The Messrs. James McGowan, Irving Pratt, Ernest Dukehart, Ralph Rohr, Ben Norden, Edwin Jorgensen, William Banks, Ray Warner, Harry Neer, Timothy Wood, Harry Nichol and Berry Stranhal.
