CRUSHED UNDER ENGINE WHEELS.—S. R. Bristow, a flagman employed by the Southern Pacific Company and residing at Grant's Pass, was so badly injured in a railroad accident near his home Friday that his two legs were amputated yesterday at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He had attempted to board an engine that was moving along the railroad track, but missed his footing and fell under the wheels. Both of his legs were badly crushed, and it became necessary to amputate the foot of his right leg and his left leg above the knee. It is thought that he will recover. He is about 35 years old and married.

TEA AT CHILDREN'S HOME.—The Ladies Relief Society will give a tea at the Children's Home, Corbett street, South Portland, next Wednesday, from 2 to 5 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend, those who, for years have been interested in the work of the Home, as well as all newcomers and strangers. The society wishes it understood that this tea is not given for the purpose of making money, but to afford all an opportunity of obtaining information as to the work being done in the Home which will be gladly given by the members of the society.

FOR THE FREE BATH FUND.—The Myrtle Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will give an entertainment at 8 o'clock on the night of October 23, in Arion Hall, the proceeds to be turned over to the free bath fund. Parsons orchestra will furnish the music, and the programme will consist of musical numbers, recitations and farces. Admission, 25 cents, and tickets will be placed on sale at Woodward, Clarke & Co.'s.

WHITECHAPEL, MAN TAKEN SICK.—Gus St. Clair, a well-known Whitechapel roysterer, became seriously ill yesterday in his lodgings, on Flinders street, near Second, and he was sent in the police patrol to St. Vincent's Hospital.

THIS AFTERNOON, 3 TO 5, EXPOSITION BUILDING. FULL MILITARY BAND. CHRYSTIE'S AUCTION ROOMS. MISS MARIE SOULE, who has been studying at the Metropolitan College of Music, New York City, will be at her studio, 252 1/2 Washington, on Tuesday, October 15, at 8 o'clock.

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS.—Grand Portland A. O. F. was instituted last night with 27 charter members. Court Deputy High Chief Ranger A. U. Field and High Chief Ranger M. Boehm, of San Francisco, presided by Court Forester, Providence, instituted the court and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: L. Dammach, P. C. R.; J. G. H. C. R.; E. H. Amador, C. R.; P. B. Bolter, treasurer; Thomas Foley, S. C.; Charles S. Konigsberg, R. S.; J. W. Gray, S. W.; M. N. Demmer, J. W.; A. B. Croser, S. E.; William Thompson, J. E.; Dr. S. L. King, physician.

CRIMINAL ASSAULT CHARGED.—Henry Sullivan, of Mill City, Marion County, who was arrested Friday at Ridgefield, Wash., on a charge of criminally assaulting his sisters, was brought to the city jail last night by one of the deputy sheriffs of Clark County, Washington, and handed over to Sheriff Durbin, of Salem, to be taken there for trial. It is already told in The Oregonian, one of his sisters, a girl 15 years old, stated to District Attorney Hart, of Salem, that her brother had reportedly assaulted all of his sisters during the past three years.

PAILED TO TURN OVER COLLECTIONS.—S. C. Thomas, a collector for the Chicago Portrait Company, with an office in this city, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Day and Weiner, charged with embezzling about $100 of the company's funds. V. E. Cox, local agent of the company, stated last night that the defendant had been sent around Spokane to make collections on behalf of his employer, but had started to drink and had failed to turn over the money after collecting it. The warrant was sworn out against Thomas in Spokane.

REPORT ON CHILD-SAVING INSTITUTIONS.—On next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at the chapel of the Unitarian Church, W. T. Gardner, by invitation, will present a report of his experiences lately at the National Conference of Charities and Corrections in Washington City. The report and address will be of special interest to all who are interested in the humane and wise care of neglected children. Mr. Gardner visited several cities and saw the leading workers. The public is cordially invited.

INQUIRIES FOR OIL EXPERT.—Several inquiries were made yesterday concerning an advertisement asking that owners of supposed oil lands send their addresses, with description, location, etc., to the address mentioned. No further information is known at this office. No doubt the advertiser will furnish it on application. The natural inference is that the expert who is coming out, wishes to know where supposed oil lands exist in Oregon and Washington.

COUNTY SCHOOL FUNDS.—Multnomah County's school apportionment fund, amounting to $30,613 46, is in the hands of the County Treasurer. The total sum is based on an apportionment of $1.20 for each pupil. School Superintendent Robinson will defer the district apportionment for a few days, until the returns are all in from those who attended the county institute, which each district will be allotted its portion.

TEACHERS' RECITAL.—A teachers' recital will be given at St. Helen's Hall, Wednesday, October 16, at 8:15 P. M. Miss Fleming and Mrs. Walter Reed are well known to the Portland public. Miss Densell, of Toronto, will render a selection from "Elijah," and Miss Webb will add to the program recitations of a serious and humorous nature. Friends and patrons of the school are invited to be present.

CONCERT EVENTS CLUB.—A club for the study of current and economic literature, science, art, music and electronics has been formed, and all young people of the city are cordially invited to join. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, October 15, at 8 o'clock sharp, in the parlors of the First Congregational Church, corner Park and Madison street.

HUMAN ASSOCIATION.—R. J. O'Hanlon, general organizer of the American Human Association, arrived in the city yesterday, and will return in about three weeks after a visit to Puget Sound cities, to confer with and assist the local humane society. He has named D. P. Thompson as vice-president of the National Association for Oregon.

TO DEVELOP A SALT PROPERTY.—D. S. K. Bullock, of Roseburg, writes to the Chamber of Commerce that he is in need of a practical man to manage a salt plant which will be erected upon a large, free-running salt spring in Douglas County.

DALLAS ROUTE LEAVE PORTLAND EVERY Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 7 A. M. foot Alder street. Leave The Dalles every Sunday, Wednesday and Friday, 7 A. M., carrying both freight and passengers.

THREE BEHR PIANOS Sold in Five Minutes. By GRAVES & CO., 124 6th St.

Our sale of Behr pianos is still going on. Yesterday three Behr Bros. pianos were sold in five minutes, for spot cash. One elegant Colonial Behr, in San Domingo mahogany case, was taken by James Barron, who for many years was cashier of the Fibernia Savings Bank. Another Behr, with cylinder top, in mahogany case, was sold to Mrs. Grant, 440 East Nineteenth (first floor). The third Behr, in quarter-sawn English oak, was sold to be shipped to Mr. Grant at Jess Bay, near Wrangell, Alaska. The Behr Bros' pianos are so standard a make and so well known that when the prices are put as low as we are cutting prices, it does not take a buyer long to decide. We are selling all our pianos, including Behr Bros', at 25 to 50 per cent discount. Do not delay making your selection. Easy terms if desired.
