

T. DANIEL FRAWLEY, WHO WILL APPEAR AT CORDRAY'S IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

ried at the home of the bride's parents in Salem last Sunday evening. They will reside here. Mr. Herman Segrist is at Hillsboro, Or., this week on a visit. Mrs. L. G. Allen has returned from a visit with Seattle friends. The Misses Maynard, of Olympia, spent Sunday with friends in this city. Mrs. H. W. Fenton and daughter Helen have gone to Minnesota to visit friends. Judge A. E. Rice is spending the week in Cathlamet, where he is holding a term of court. Mr. William Urquhart and family visited the family of Mr. Manning in Olympia Sunday. John Howie, who has just returned from a five years' stay in the Klondike, visited friends here Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds arrived home this week from a visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. The members of the Grand Army Post and the Woman's Relief Corps tendered a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Dickson at the Episcopal rectory last Friday evening. Music was furnished by the Reform School Drum Corps. Rev. Dickson is soon to remove to Tacoma.

North Yakima. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell are guests at the home of Mr. F. C. Howard. S. Humes, of Seattle, was a guest of Mr. L. B. Elmhart and son this week. Miss Wyna Wiley has gone to Astoria, Or., where she will remain for some time. The Misses Snelling have returned from a three months' visit with friends in Oregon. Dr. Brooks, of Juneau, Alaska, spent part of the week with his friend, W. E. Ayres. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Malony, of Spokane, were in North Yakima several days recently. John Kelly, of Wichita, Kan., is in the city, and expects to bring his family here to live at once.

Mrs. Robert E. Smith and children have gone to Arlington, Or. They will spend a month with friends there. Miss Sue Lombard expects to leave next week for San Francisco. She will spend a month with relatives there. Mrs. Donovan, who has been visiting her sons, Charles and F. J. Donovan, has returned to her home in Tacoma. John Roof has returned to his home in California. He spent the Summer here with his brother, W. J. Roof. Mrs. Kinney, of Seattle, has returned to her home after a short visit with her friend, Mrs. U. F. Diteaman, in this city. Mrs. A. Schindler came home yesterday from Ellensburg, where she spent several days with relatives and friends. Mrs. W. T. Clark is spending a few weeks at her old home in Kansas. She will probably stay there until the holidays. Rev. Mr. A. H. Lyons, of Sunnyside, spent most of the week here. He was formerly pastor of the Baptist Church of North Yakima. The Rt. Rev. Lemuel H. Wells, Episcopal bishop of this diocese, will be in the city Sunday and will have charge of the services at St. Michael's Church. Judge L. T. Erwin returned from the North a few days ago, and has been visiting his friends here. He left today for Arkansas, where he will be during the Winter. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hill are here from San Francisco, and will make their home here. Mr. Hill is a member of Company E, First Washington Regiment, which went from here to the Philippines.

Centralia. Mr. C. O. Applegahn left Monday for his home in Duluth, Minn. Miss Louise Strong, of South Aberdeen, is visiting friends in this city. On Saturday evening, the members of the High School football eleven, of this city, entertained the Elma High School eleven with a most enjoyable social. At her home in North Centralia, on Monday afternoon from 3 to 5, Mrs. O. P. Taylor gave a "handkerchief shower," in honor of Miss Florence Mead. The house was handsomely decorated, the parlors with Autumn leaves, and the dining-room with green and white. The bride-elect, Miss Florence Mead's chair was tastefully decorated with pink roses and white satin ribbons. The centerpiece of the table was maidenhair ferns and white roses. Two recitations were gracefully rendered during the evening by Miss Berenice Shepherd and little Miss Laura Taylor. Dainty refreshments were served. The collection of handkerchiefs showered upon the bride-elect was dainty and beautiful. Mrs. Taylor, who sustained the part of hostess with her usual grace and ease, was gracefully assisted by Madames P. R. Stahl, W. H. Nudd and J. E. Whinnery. Those present were: Misses Minnie Warren, Lucy Packard, Kate Martin, Anna Robinson, Blanche Ellsbury, Berenice Shepherd, Florence E. Mead, Mrs. H. L. Mead, and Mrs. Fuller Nudd. The afternoon was a most enjoyable one, and will be pleasantly remembered by all. One of the prettiest private weddings of the year took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mead, at 2 P. M. Thursday, when their eldest daughter, Miss Florence Ella, was united in marriage to Mr. George Alden Pencil, of Seattle. Rev. Thomas S. Fritz, of the First Baptist Church, performed the marriage ceremony. During the marriage ceremony Miss Edith Mead, sister of the bride, sang with her usual grace, "Oh, Promise me." Approaching for the ceremony, the bride leaned upon the arm of her father, Hon. H. L. Mead. The bridal party consisted of the groom, with Roy Mead, the bride's brother; the bride, with her father, and Mrs. Mead, with Miss Edith Mead.

The high esteem in which the bride is held is shown by the large and beautiful collection of wedding presents. The bride has spent the greater part of her life in this city, and her worthy character and many accomplishments have made for her a host of friends here. The groom is a well-known young business man of Seattle. The reception took place in the afternoon, from 2:30 to 4:30, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Pencil left on the 5:30 P. M. train for Seattle and other Sound cities. They received an abundant shower of rice as they stepped on the train. They will make their home in Seattle, where Mr. Pencil is engaged in business.

Flowers by the Wagon-load. Probably never before in Portland has a planter been so smothered in flowers as was Beatrice Barlow Clarke last week. The huge basket of white chrysanthemums—a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Max Felschauer—at the close of the Sonata, Assoluto, inaugurated the floral deluge which was showered upon her from all parts of the great building, till the programme was ended. This was a case where flowers must be estimated by the wagon-load.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD. (Concluded on Page 21.) returning from a trip to Buffalo, visited relatives here this week, being en route to their home at Marshfield. Hillsboro. Mrs. Letitia Smith is visiting with relatives at Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Reasoner, of Gale City, have taken up their residence in this city. Dorwin has returned from Wisconsin, where he had been since June. Mrs. Wellington Clark has returned from Seattle, where she has been visiting her parents several weeks. George H. Chamberlain has moved to Sunnyside, Or., to reside. His wife and daughters are in Bucoda visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Compton have come from Wyoming to spend the Winter. They are with Mrs. R. H. Rees, mother of Mrs. Compton. Ex-Governor Miles C. Moore has returned from Chicago. While gone he made a notable speech at the bankers' convention in Milwaukee. Mrs. D. S. Baker and daughter, Mrs. L. P. Anderson, have gone to California to visit Mrs. Baker's daughter, Louise, who is seriously ill at Mill's Seminary. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Ankeny went to Portland Sunday to attend their daughter, Miss Charity Ankeny, who was seriously injured by a falling elevator at St. Helens' Hall. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Patrick Lyons, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. John P. Kent, Mrs. W. H. Dunphy and Misses Kate and Theresa Lyons, entertained 100 or more of the elite of the city at the Lyons home on Newell street. Her parlors and other rooms were elaborately decorated with chrysanthemums and ivy. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon. Chehalis. Sherwood Gillespy, of Seattle, was in the city Thursday. Mrs. L. H. Leach went to Olympia Sunday, returning Tuesday. Mr. U. E. Harmon was in Olympia a part of the week. Mr. W. A. Shaner, of Chehalis, and Miss Katie Stauber, of Salem, Or., were married at the home of the bride's parents in Salem last Sunday evening. They will reside here. Mr. Herman Segrist is at Hillsboro, Or., this week on a visit. Mrs. L. G.
