THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, NOVEMBER 10, 1901.

On Wednesday, at the Portland Hotel, firs. I. N. Fleischner and Mrs. M. G. Fleischner gave a luncheon party to a member of their inde strends which was Mrs. I. N. Fleischner and Mrs. M. G. Fleischner gave a luncheon party to a number of their lady friends, which was one of the most elaborate affairs that has ever taken place in this city. The lunchcon was served in the main drawing-room, which for the occasion was deporated in a most artistic and exculsite fashion. Around the walls was arranged a dado, composed of Oregon fern and inurel, in which was a profusion of Ellen Bloodgood and Robinson long-stemmed chrysanthemums, so arranged as to give the appearance of a veritable growing hedge. In the center of the room, attached to the. celling, was a superb arrangement of Queen chrysanthemums, which were thrown into relief by a rich assortment of Boston ferns. Depending from this home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Loomis, North the different corners of the apartment were gariands of tiny incandescent lights, were garlands of tiny incandescent lights, entwined by filmy sprays of smilax, which held in place large golden wickerware cornucopias, filled to overflowing with pink rosebuds. At the east end of the room was a superb ornamentation of potted plants and ferns, in the midst of which were daintily⁴ tinted vases, which held in place great, clusters of superb chrysanthemums

The mantels were all filled in with ferns, while attached to the side of the mirrors were delicate bunches of pink roses, which were tied with dainty French bowknots of plnk slik ribbons, with long streamers, which fell in graceful profuover the foliage below. On either side of the room were long, oval tables, upon which were cloths of pale pink satin, in Fortland. covered with white lace. The ornamentation consisted of a magnificent display of bridesmald's roses, arranged in the form of an S, and resting upon a mossy bank of maldenhair ferns. At intervals, carelessly arranged in the midst of this exouisite ornamentation, were tall golden candelabra, with fluffy pink shades. At each guest plate was a magnificent golden wicker-ware cornucopia, filled with Princess violets; surmounting this being the hand-painted name card in violet hue, which was held in place by long stickpins of violets and brilliants. The round table in the center of the room was all in shades of green. The cloth was of green satin, while in the middle of the table myriads of tiny green incandescent lights glimmered through a bower of maidenhair ferns, while scattered over the cloth were fragrant violets. The general effect of the Moines, scene was one of exquisite beauty, the color scheme having been arranged with artistic taste of a very high degree. The menu was simply superb, and fully in keeping with the magnificent surroundings. During the luncheon De Caprio's full-stringed orchestra rendered a fine programme of music, which softly floated through the dining-hall from an adjoining room. At 4 o'clock, while coffee was being served, a delightful entertainment, which enhanced the pleasure of the occasion, was given by a number of fine specialty artists, who happened to be in the city at the time.

The costuming of the ladies present was especially noted for its beauty and elegance. Mrs. I. N. Fleischner was excookingly handsome in a gown of pale grey crepe, en traine, the coreage being relieved with' tiny knots of rare lace. Her hat was of white and grey mousse line de sole, with long, graceful white ostrich plumes.

Mrs. M. G. Fleischner was most beingly attired in a lovely reception robe of pale blue creps, the skirt and bodice being decked with beautiful embroidery She wore a hat of black, trimmed with black ostrich tips, relieved by a dash of blue.

ing, Mrs. C. N. Hankin opened the pro-gramme with two humorous selections, "Miss Huida's Choice" and "The First Baajo," and by skillful portrayal brought the simpering "old maid" face to face with the audience, while the ingenious Ham readily found the necessary wood in Nout's Ark to manufacture the first banjo with which to while away the tedious 40 days' storm. Mrs. Fletcher Linn followed with a vocal solo, executed with skill, which was rendered very ef-Fifteenth street, where a reception was given to relatives and immediate friends. The bride was beautifully attired in cream sik mule, with a hat orma-mented with white estrich feathers. She carried a houquet of white roses. The maid of henor wore a lavender organdle and carried a bouquet of La France roses. The Cathedral was filled with feather is the henor counts both of whom reast. The Cathedrat was hird when friends of the happy couple, both of whom are held in high esteem in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will leave November 11 for San Francisco. From there they will go to the Philippines, where the Twenty-techt. with skill, which was rendered very ef-fective by the delightful plano accom-panist. Mrs. Shultze. Mr. Harry Gardpanies, Mrs. Sinulize. All, Harry Gara-ner, though a stranger here, soon made many friends through the sweet strains of his violin, and kindly responded to a recall. In Mrs. Rankin's next selection the fire of pairiotism was kindled anew by her excellent rendition of "The Hero of Lake Eric," Mrs. Linn concluded the programme her two observing selections eighth Regiment has been ordered.

Gile-Loomis.

A quiet home wedding took place last Vednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the programme by two charming selections. After thanking those who had contributed so much to the pleasure of those pres-ent, refreshments were served by the patronesses, Mesdames Ackerman, Ber-Mr. Henry Stanley Glie, of Porliand. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Mackenzie, of liwaco. Only the imme-diate relatives were present. The bride wore a lovely gown of white organ-die. The rooms were artistically decor-ated with branches of huckleberry. Ore-gon grape and chrysanthemums. After the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was word ast neon Mr. and Mrs. Glie dan, Beech, Brinson, Clarke and Cham-bers, the A, Bs and Cs vying with each other in gracious hospitality. The ladies of the senior class of the nedical department of the University of Oregon gave a reception to the gentlemen of the class on Saturday evening, Novem-ber 2, at the home of Mrs. Bixby, 341 was served and at noon Mr. and Mrs. Gile left for a visit to Eastern Oregon and Washington.

Gilmore-Thompson.

Fourtsenth street. The parlors were decorated with ferns and ivy, intertwined with the college colors of lemon yellow On Wednesday, November 6, at the home and scarlet. Ample entertainment was of the bride's parents, Tacoma, Wnah, Mr. William A. Gilmore and Miss Carrie provided in the form of music, dancing and whist, after which refreshments were I. Thompson were united in marriage by served. The following were present: Mrs. Alys Bixby, Miss Maud Kremer, Mrs. Nina White, Mrs. James Manlon, Misses Edith Morris, Neille Morris, Edith Wilson. Rev. Dr. Hutchison, of Immanuel Pres-byterian Church. The bride has been a popular teacher in Seattle's public schools. The groom is a native of Vancouver, Wash, and has a large circle of friends Evangeline Stafford, Bertie Tappendörf, Mamle Tappendorf and Pauline Tappen-dorf, and Messrs. Van Vechton, Marshall, White, Ray Matson, King, Raiph Malson, Stone, Wiltsie, Haviland, Braden, Smith Lundgren-Bernhardt.

stone, Witten

and Robert Strong.

Friday evening the members of the First Congregational Church held their regular

Mr. Emil Lundgrop and Miss Tillio

Bernhardt were quietly married on the 21 of November, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Friberg, on Fifth street, by the Rev. W. A. M. Brock. Taber-Lovejoy.

annual reunion and pastor's reception. A large gathering of friends assembled in the church parlors to indulge in a social time. The rooms were gaily decorated with flowering plants, and the women of the church had previously prepared a Thursday evening, November 7, Mr. Charles W. C. Tabor, of Dawson, Y. T. was united in marriage to Miss M. 1 Lovejoy, at St. Matthew's rectory, by the Rev. W. A. M. Breck, dainty supper, which was very much ap-preciated. There was no set programme, Hayes-Brown.

the participants contenting themselves with sweet music, desultory conversation and picasant reminiscences. The pastor and Mrs. Ackerman were assisted in re-ceiving by Mrs. I. W. Pratt, Mrs. W. D. Sharp, E. L. Thompson, C. L. Fay, H. G. Colton, W. D. Scott and Louis Rice. The committee of conversion of the second second A very pretty home wedding was sol-emnized Wednesday afternoon at 125 Knött street, the contracting parties being Mr. Orvil M. Hayes and Miss Annie L.

Shaver-McReynolds.

On Monday, November 7, occurred the marriage of George E. Shaver, of Den Moines, Ia., and Miss Lena McReynolds, of 1050 Commercial street, Portland. committee of arrangements was composed of Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Cleland, Mrs. D. D. Clarke, Mrs. Paimer, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Jonkins, Mrs. Lovelace and Mrs. Adalr. One of the pleasant affairs of the week

Engagements.

Mr. Fred A. Howard announces the en gagement of his daughter, Katherine E. The occasion was a happy one and a num-ber of the younger set of society people Howard, to Mr. Fred S. Hamlin. Mrs. Eleanor Hopkins announces the en-gagement of her daughter Helen to Mr. Charles S. Mortimer, of San Francisco. enjoyed themselves by playing the pop-Mrs. Dora Manbelm announces the en-gagement of hor daughter, Miss Amelia Joseph, to Mr. B. S. Backman, At home November 17, from 2 to 5 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward an-nounce the engagement of their daughter Jane to W. C. Noon, Jr. The wedding will take place early in December next. Mr. and Mrs. B. Tscharner announce the marriage of their daughter Kate A. to Mr. Henry A. Henneman, Thursday, Novem-ber 14, 1901, at 12 o'clock, at their resiwas a most delightful affair in every way. The round table was exquisitely decorated with long-stemmed Bridesmaids, which dence, Milwaukie, Or. The announcement is made that the marriage of Miss Ciementine Baum and Mr. Harry A. Holland, of Spokane, will take place November II, 1901, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Baum, 300 were artistically arranged in an exquisite Thiricenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Litherland, Miss Fannie Osborn, Miss Florence Osborn, Miss Belle Johnson, Mr. Edward Dekum and his sister, Mrs. J. R. Myers.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Last Wednesday the Ladles' Ald Society of the First Congregational Church Insugurated the Winter season of enter-tainments with a most delightful literary taliments with a most Gengnitul interesy and musical treat. The parlors had been profusely decorated with flowers and ferns, while the tables were temptingly arrayed in floral garniture and choicest delicacies. After a short business meet-ing, Mrz. C. N. Rankin opened the pro-gramme with two humorous selections.

COMING EVENTS.

persed.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Unitarian Church are arranging for a reception to Rev. Dr. George C. Creasey next Wednes-day evening at the church pariors, cor-ner of Seventh and Yamhill streets. The women desire all friends of the church to meet at this time their new pastor and his wite. his wife,

A delightful "at home" was given last Friday at the residence of Mrs. M. Olsen, 202 Hancook street. Those present were: Mrs. T. W. Nordby, Mrs. William Streibig, Mrs. S. J. Kafurla, Mrs. William Winters. Mrs. S. A. Matthleu, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Fred F. Boody, Mrs. D. B. Morgan, Mrs. Charles Amholt, Mrs. D. E. Lari-more, Mrs. F. L. Schanz, Miss Abby Roody

Arrangements have been perfected for the first grand ball to be given by the various German societies of Portland at Arion Hall on Friday evening, November 29. It will be taken in hand by the committee having in charge the erection of a magnificent Germania Hall in this city, a building to stand as a monument to the Germans. The proposed building, so it is estimated, will cost about $100,000. The gentlemen having same in charge will spars neither time, effort nor expense to make this ball one of the events of the season, and it is being looked forward to with great pleasure and anticipations.

SOCIETY PERSONALS. F. W. Mulkey was in Eugene last Sun-

Mrs. Fletcher Linn has been visiting in

Mrs. N. Hodgson has returned from Alaeka. Miss Breyman, of Salem, was in Port-

Mrs. Joseph Jorgansen, of Walla Walla, is at the Portland. Mr. David C. Lewis has gone to Spokane for a few days. Mrs. J. N. Teal arrived home from San Francisco yesterday morning. Judge and Mrs. T. Raymond White will spend the Winter in Nome, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Jacobsen are spending a few days at their Seaside cottage. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mays are expected home from San Francisco in a few days. Mrs. B. F. Dowell has gone to Jackson ville to visit her daughter, Mrs. G. M.

Mr. C. W. Hollamore left Monday for Vancouver, B. C., for a month's sojourn in that clty.

Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell have taken apartments at the Hobart-Curtis Winter. for the

Mrs. G. D. Greene has returned from her Eastern trip, and is at home, 325 East Eleventh street. Mrs. H. G. Bitner and little daughter are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Roswas a progressive hearts party, given by Harry Failing at the family residence. enberg, in Southern Oregon. Harry Failing at the family residence, 383 West Park street, on Friday evening. Mrs. Captain Malcolm Campbell is in the city on the way to her home in Ju-neau, Alaska, from a trip East.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Gladding and Mr. Julian W. Perkins departed last evening for a short visit to San Francisco. Mrs. H. E. Noble and children left on enjoyed themselves by playing the pop-ular game. The following were present: Misses Burns, Crocker, Whilden, Parke, Langfitt, White, Wilson, Montgomery, Kochler, Morrison, Houghton, Alta Smith, Josephine Smith, Walter, Wood, Kamm, Strong, Labbe, Parker, Thompson, Rob-ertaon and Nichols Mesars, Corbett, Wood, McArthur, Eastham, John Failing, Hon-eyman, Williams, Connor, Whilden, Covie, Taylor, Seeley, Mears, Burkhart, Thursday's train for Southern California, to remain during the Winter months. Mrs. J. T. O'Neil, wife of Captain J. T. O'Neil, U. S. A., has returned from a four months' visit to Fort Stevens, Or. Miss Alice Bretherton, who went to Eu-Coyle, Taylor, Seeley, Mears, Burkhart, Stuart Strong, Harold Strong, Smith, Fisk

gene last week to witness the Multnoman bregon football game, returned on Mon-

Mrs. J. E. Perkins gave a luncheon party on Wednesday at the Norton, which Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, who have been spending the Summer in Portland, left for their home in San Francisco last

Miss Elbry A. Hays, of the Sterling, has left to spend a few weeks with her friend, Miss Harriette Thompson, of Pendieton. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton arrived home from San Francisco Fridaprices on eiderdown sacques and shirt walsts. The Little Art Shop, Macleny Bldg. Now is the time to make your reserves the hollpletures, casts, etc., for

Two dressed dolls given away. Special

WEDDINGS.

Clark-Dwinnell.

One of the prettient home weddings of the season took place Wednesday evening. October 16, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark, 589 Fourth street, when their eldest daughter, Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank H. Dwinnell, of Chicago. The caremony was per-formed in the presence of immediate friends and relatives by the Rev. Dr. Hili, of the First Presbyterian Church. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with an abundance of Autumn foliage, palms and cut flowers. The bride was charming in a dainty gown of white silk with veil and shower boquet of bride's roses, and Miss Jeanette Clark, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, was dainty in white organdle over pink, carrying La France roses. Mr. Eugene Rice acted as best man, and Miss Mary Cold-wel played the wedding march. Immedi-ately after the ceremony the guests ropaired to the dining-room, where an elaborate repast was served. Among the many beautiful presents received was noticeable a handsome silver service, the sift of the Eggert, Young Company. The happy couple left early in the evening mid a shower of rice and congratulations, for a brief sofourn at Gearhart Park, and on the morning of October 23, took their departure for their future home in Baraboo, Wis., carrying with, them the best wishes of their many friends in this city.

Shields-Sayre.

One of the most interesting social events the past week was the marriage of Frank Duncan Shields and Miss Harof the rict Merwin Sayre, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian Church, in Astoria, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Marcotte, officiating The church was decorated with chrysan-themums, paims and laurel. Lohengrin's wedding march was rendered by Miss Fin vel, as the bridal procession entered the church. The ushers, Mr. A. T. Findiay church. The ushers, Mr. A. T. Findiny and Mr. J. R. Bennett, were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Grace Amos, of Portland, and Miss Pearl Cole. The maid native of honor, Miss Lillian Edna Amos, of Portland, who preceded the bride, was dressed in white organdle and carried a Portland. beautiful bouquet of white chrysenthe muma. The bridget of waite chrysanthe-muma. The bridge exquisitely gowned in white organize, with tuile yell, and car-rying a shower bouquet of bridge roass, was met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, Mr. W. M. Malburn, of Sait Tabe Char. Lake City. The impressive Episcopal ser. vice was used. The bride was given away by Rev. Mr. Milligan, of Portland, After the ccremony a reception was held at the home of Rev. Mr. Marcotte, where the bride and groom received the congratula-tions of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Shleids left in the evening for an extended trip on the Sound and in California.

Parker-Sution.

The wedding of Lleutenant Hugh A, Par-ker, Twenty-eighth Infantry, U. S. A., and Miss Rose Sutton, a well-known young lady of this city, was solemnized at the young Cathedral at 7 o'clock last evening. At the appointed hour Miss McGinn began playing the "Lobensrin" wedding march, and the groom, accompanied by his best man, Lieutenant Hisks, entered the Cathe-dral. Shortly afterward the bride, fean-ing upon the arm of her father, J. B. SutRECEPTION IN HAWAIL

One of the pretilest out-of-door dances and garden fetce given in Honolulu for several seasons was given October 24 by Mrs. Love at her residence on Fort street, in honor of Miss Eva Dennis, Miss Mabei Jones and Miss Bessie Church, of Portland, Or., who are the guests for the season of Miss Stella Love. The finely wooded premises with their great branching paim trees forming a canopy above a beautiful carpet of lawn, were well adapted for the outdoor function, and from the street the moving scene 10 parti-colored Japanese lanterns, swaying from tree to tree and over the dancing pavilion, was a fascinating picture. From the main entrance gateway to the em-bowered porte-cochere two strings of Japanese lanterns lighted the way. The great expanse of lawn was dotted here and there with settees beneath the trees, which invited the guests to enjoy a cool interval between the dances. At the foot of the steps to the main lanni a canvas-covered dancing floor was laid. High above this and caught up in the limbe of the paim trees was a canopy of canvas. Beneath were strung festoons of Japan-Bencald were strung rescons of Japan-ese lanterns. Surrounding the floor, pot-ted paims, pandanus and other pretty island greenery were arranged to give the interior a truly tropical aspect. With the natural surroundings of wood and abrubbery the effect was at once artistic and striking. The steps were lined with boxianters of red, white and blue, Two flags - Hawalian and American - were caught up over the land, heightening the general decorative effect of the plants and ianterne. The land and pariors were prettily decorated with flowers and ferns, one of the handsomest pieces being a huge jardiniere filled with yellow coreopsis and marguerites, which restad upon and concealed a table. Everywhere dainty hands had artistically arranged the floral decorations, and had not forgotten to place the lawn settees in prettily shaded Fred O. Jenning and bride, nee Miss Berna A. Farmer, both of this city. A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. owers. Solomon's orchestra of Hawallan mu sicfans was placed near the dancing pa-vilion, partially concealed from view by Farmer, when their daughter Bernace was united in marriage to Mr. Fred O. Jenning, a a barrier of paims and pandanus. Their well-known young business man of this city. The coremony was performed by Rev. Alexnative melodies found favor in the deux temps and the song accompaniment servander Blackburn, in the presence of a few relaed to enliven the spirits of the dancers,

The dance music was interspersed with ative songs rendered by the vocalists tives and immediate friends. The house was scautifully decorated and the happy couple haive songs rendered by the vocalisis of the Quinictle Club, among these songs were: "Nuuanu," "Sweet Rossbud," "Sweet Leilehua," "Pulupe nel fil I ke anu," "Kekohi," "Like no a Like," "Aloha Oe," and "Hawaii Ponol." In a pretty hower of vines and potted plants a lemonade bowl was a favorited plants a lemonade bowl was a favorited were the recipients of many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Jenning left on Wednesday night's train for California, where they will retreat between dances. Sherbet, honbons and dainty refreshments of cake were also served. Miss Church looked quite pretty in a white organdle, with lace trimmings, cut decollete, en traine, Miss Jones was a dainty dancer in gray stik and Miss Dennis, a winning piece of femininity in blue crepe de chine. Miss Love was an attractive hostess in a pretty creation of pink crepe de chine with applique trimming, worn decollete, en traine. Mr. Will Love, who recently returned from the East, assisted the young hostess. The young ladies from Portland were entirely charmed with the delightful reception given them, and their memories of Hawali, when they return to the cold and rainy North, will be most pleasant. About 200 guests enjoyed Mrs. Love's hospitality, the pleasure of meeting the soung ladies in whose honor it was ex-tended, and a must admirably environed were artistically arranged in an exquisite crystal epergne, while scattered about the snowy cloth were the same beauti-ful flowers. The menu was very elabor-ate, and it was nearly 4 o'clock before its discussion was finished. Mrs. Perkins' guests were: Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver, Mrs. N. A. Gladding, of Indianapolts, Ind.: Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. F. C. Mil-ber and Miss Helen Van Schuyver. ing, and are at the Hobart-Curtis for the Winter.

ler and Miss Helen Van Schuyver. Miss Laura Gale Dunne gave a farewell party to Miss Blanche Robinson, at the residence of her parents, Seventeenth and

Mr. and Mrs. James B. McCraken, who have been traveling in the Eastern States for the past month, are expected home on Tuesday. Miss Jane Clark arrived from St. Paul

> Popular Young People Married Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. Eliza R. Barchus has re-opened her studio, corner Fifth and Morrison streets, Multnomah block. Lessons given in landscape painting; Xmas work a Miss Ione Dunlap will receive private pupils, individually or classes, 555 Yam. hill.

Mrs. R. B. Bean was a guest of relaives in Eugene this week. Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Meredith were in Portland several days this week. Mrs. A. B. Gillis visited several days his week with friends in Albany.

Miss Angle McCullough has returned from a brief visit with friends at Eugene

Mrs. M. A. Rodgers, of Portland, is a guest of her son, George F. Rodgers, of this city

Mrs. Palmyra Mayer and Miss Ernestin Levy have gone to San Francisco to apend the Winter.

Miss Claritta Dumars, daughter of William Dumars, of Portland, spent last Sun-day visiting at the home of Claud Gatch, this city

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chatten, of Portiand, spent last Sunday in this city, visit-ing Mrs. Chatten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins.

On Tuesday, November 5, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Miss Ethel Gillingham was mar-ried to Mr. S. E. King, of Walla Walla, Wash. The marriage ceremony was per. formed by Rev. George C. Ritchie, of the Christian Church.

Christian Church. The young ladles of Willamette Univer-sity organized a social club hast Thurs-day afternoon, to be known as "The Women's Students' Association of Wil-lamette University." The object is to promote social intercourse and to conduct social events at the university. The folsocial events at the university. The fol-lowing officers were elected: President, Miss Winnie Rigdon; vice-president, Miss Holstrom; secretary, Miss Emma Clark; treasurer, Miss Lucy Morcom.

The Dalles.

Mrs. D. V. Poling, of this city, is visit-ing friends in Walla Walla, Mrr. A. A. Jayne, of Hood River, spent day or two in The Dalles during the tives. past week. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Fredden were given a surprise party by their friends on Mrs. Spaulding, of Almote, Wash., spent the early part of the week in th the guest of Mrs. C. J. Crandall. this city.

Mrs. Joseph T. Peters gave an after-noon party on Friday in henor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Nosworthy, of Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seufert, with their daughter, Lillie, left here on Friday for New York, where they will spend the ing month.

Mrs. L. E. Koontz, nee McFarland, of Seattle, left Friday for her home, after visiting relatives and friends in The Dalles and Antelope.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Heitkemper gave a Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson have spent Mr. Edward S. Osborne, of Tacoma, and reception in honor of Miss Jane Wood- the past week in Puliman, Wash., where Miss Laura D. Ranck, of this city, were city.

city.

ferson.

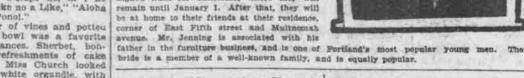

friends

week.

ments ordered will be carefully selected and subject to examination.

Couch streets, Friday evening. The even-Lower streets, Friday evening, the even-ing was pleasantly apent playing progress-ive hearta. After which a dainty supper was served. The first priz-es were won by Miss Somele Groat and Mr. Waiter B. Honeyman. Groat and ar. waiter B. Honeyman. Those present were: Misses Blanche Robinson, Claire Senders, Ethel Shea, Semele Groat, Etta Stewart, Laura Dunne, Cora Lang, Ivy Barker, Mra, S. C. Spen-cor, Mra, Robinson and Messrs, David T. Honeyman, Brandt Wickersham, Will Whelan, Ned Manley, Mr. Rounsefel, Bob Usersham, Sam Arabar Waltar B. Hon-eyman and Morris Dunne. A crowd of merry young people sur-prized Miss Edna Pferdner Tuesday even-ing at her home, 1274 First street. The rooms were prattily decorated with ferns and Autumn leaves. The annusoments of the evening consisted of dancing, instru-mental solos by Miss Bens Kelly, comic periations by Miss Mobel Strengton and Miss Nanny Wood, who has been visiting her brother, Erskine Wood, who is now at La Grande, is expected home this Republic, is visiting friends in Portland. She is accompanied by Miss Bertha Hub-bard, a talented musician, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Mackey, who have been traveling in the Eastern States for the past four months, will return home on Tuesday, and will take their former apartments at the Hobart-Curtis, Miss Susie Payette left last Friday for Grand Rapids, Mich., where she will visit ton, came up the aisle, accompanied by her sister. Miss Daisy Sution, the meld of henor. They were met at the altar by two small choristers and Rev. Father

McCraken, Sam Archer, Walter B. Hon-eyman and Morris Dunne.

Wednesday, and left the next day for Glendale to join her sister, Mrs. Frank I. Towle.

Friday evening.

Mrs. W. P. Lord, of Salem, wife of ex-Governor Lord, Minister to the Argentine