

HEAVY WHEAT SHIPMENTS

PORTLAND CLEARED A CARGO A DAY LAST WEEK.

British Steamship Langbank Arrives for Wheat—Fleet of Sailors Off the River.

Portland got out six wheat and four cargoes in five days last week, the Neesima, which finished Friday and cleared yesterday, making the sixth, an average of more than a cargo per day for the week.

Table with columns: Name, Wheat, bushels. Includes entries for Lady Isabella, Lady Isabella, G. H. Wappaus, etc.

Flour reduced to wheat. The record of a cargo a day may not be maintained for the coming week, but as a number of big cargoes will finish, the amount of wheat set afloat will be about equal to that of the past week.

Portland is at a decided disadvantage in this contest, as we have the slowest ship. The Australian and the Edenballymore have both made fast passages out of here, but the East India proved a slow mover when she sailed from this port. However, the fresh water of the Willamette sent the craft out with a good, clean bottom, which of itself is as good as a 10 days' handicap when compared with the shape that both of the other ships will go out in. If the East Indian does not lead the trio into Queenstown, she will not be far behind them.

FLEET IN THE OFFING.

French Bark, Three-Masted Ship and Four-Masted Barkentine Outside. The southerly weather of the past few days is bringing up another fleet of vessels, and while none of the grain ships except the steamer Langbank arrived in yesterday, a fleet is reported outside. A. M. Simpson's clipper barkentine Addenda arrived in from Callao yesterday afternoon. The exact time made by this vessel is not known as yet, but as she was in port at Callao September 19, she has undoubtedly made pretty fast time. She arrived in about 10 o'clock yesterday. The barkentine Rendell is out 25 days from Pisagua, but that is too near to a record-breaking passage for her, and the vessel is probably a coaster.

First July Ship.

The British ship Nivelle, which had a 30-day start of the Madagascari, which led the 1901-02 Portland grain fleet into Queenstown, arrived out at the Irish port Friday, after a good voyage of 12 days, which was one day better than an average passage, but over two weeks slower than the run made by the Madagascari. The 110-tonners of the Great Western are still on the way, but will undoubtedly be heard from within a few days.

to attain so, both being the expression, as nearly as possible, of the will of the people as decided by a majority vote. That some who proclaim socialism may be emotional and act in many ways without reason, no one can deny; but that socialism of itself is emotional is equivalent to saying that any good thing is emotional. The socialism we already have is neither emotional nor unreasonable; it will cite, for instance, all streets and public highways; our school system, to the extent it deals alike with all; our postal system; our courts, so long as they carry out their intent of doing justice to all parties; and our cities where they hold and operate public utilities for the general welfare rather than for profit. There is no part in the above cited instances that the people would wish restricted; and no candid thought can admit of but one course, and that is to enlarge rather than to restrict the field of public control. Socialism is something that has come forward for consideration, and it is going to be considered, and the more thoroughly it is understood the more favorable is going to be the result. discovered the elixir of life. That he is able with the aid of a mysterious compound, known or produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life-giving boon, to cure any and every disease that is known to man's body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim, and the remarkable cures that he is daily effecting seem to bear him out very strongly. His theory which he advances is one of reason and based on sound experience in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free to anyone who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure, so there is absolutely no risk to run. Some of the cures cited are very remarkable, and but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and friends in perfect health. Rheumatism, neuralgia, stomach, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs or any vital organs are easily overcome in a space of time that is almost marvelous. Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissues, restores normal nerve power, circulation and a state of perfect health is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike and equally affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be cured of and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

AWFUL RESULTS OF EPILEPSY OR FITS

A Remarkable Discovery Has Been Made Whereby All Afflicted With Epilepsy or Fits Can be Permanently Cured.

FREE, A FULL 16-OUNCE BOTTLE

Many disastrous and fatal accidents have been directly caused through Epilepsy or Fits. Not long ago a prominent actor, who had just performed by having an epileptic fit, fell from the stage and was killed. Not recently a young lady being seized with a fit and falling from the third floor of a building, was killed. In 1890 there was a large party for a citizen of Virginia, I. T., to have the most exciting experience of his life. He was invited to 20 John Chouteau, while on his pony near Virginia, I. T., suddenly uttered a heartrending yell and fell from his pony. His feet still in the stirrups. The pony became frightened and started to run. The great excitement will permanently and positively cure fits in all its forms, no matter from what cause, and will convince every one that his statement is a fact. He therefore asks every person in the United States suffering with Epilepsy or Fits to send their name and address to Dr. Fred E. Clark, 222 N. Kilday Street, Portland, Ore., and receive absolutely free a large bottle of this wonderful remedy. Remember, it is not a magic bottle, it does not cure fits, it cures the cause of fits. It is a permanent cure that takes the cause of fits and restores the system to its normal state. It is a permanent cure that takes the cause of fits and restores the system to its normal state.
