WITNESSES GO TO JAIL - Conductor John Loughran, of the O. R. & N., who rebuffed shot Walter Rose because it was too late to have been ejected from a train about 20 miles from this city, appeared for a hearing yesterday before Justice of the Peace Kraemer and waived the hearing. Two witnesses were present, C. W. Gaupp and Uriah Miller, but Rose, who is still in the Good Samaritan Hospital, was unable to be in court. Loughran was held in jail to answer before the grand jury. The judge stated that he regretted that it would be necessary to ask both witnesses to furnish $200 each. Gaupp and Miller protested. "I'm very sorry," said the judge, "but my duty compels me to see that you furnish satisfactory bonds for your appearance before the grand jury. Rose is not out of danger. Perhaps some of your friends can assist you." As Gaupp and Miller were unable to furnish the bonds required, they were sent to the County Jail. It is some time since witnesses were sent to jail because they could not furnish bonds to appear before the grand jury or court. Two friends went on Loughran's bond. Rose was resting easily last night.

ALWAYS BICYCLISTS' OPEN SEASON - Bicyclists are seen more frequently on Portland streets and sidewalks since the November 1 in spite of the damp weather, which renders the thoroughfares somewhat slippery. Bicyclists are now given the legal use of the sidewalks, and so those who preferred to go afoot or take the street-cars last month have now much better wheeled when they were confined to the use of the streets during the summer. In the downtown streets, where sidewalks are too crowded with pedestrians to allow wheeled traffic, street-car tracks prove a trap for many an amateur cyclist. Yesterday a boy came near being killed on First street, near Morrison, by crossing the tracks to permit the passage of an Oregon City car. His bicycle slipped on the wet steel and was caught by the car, but slid along for several feet without being crushed. Bystanders expected to see the lad held, but the quick stopping of the car by the motorman who saved the lad. Old wheelmen claim that the best way to cross wet street-car tracks is at right angles.

WATER-UTENSILS PAY UP - Water office clerks were kept busy receiving October dues yesterday, and at times there would be a string of 30 persons waiting their turn to hand over their silver and obtain receipts. Water rates are delinquent on the 15th day of each month, and as the 15th comes on Sunday this time, Saturday was the last day of grace. A very small proportion of water consumers pay on the first of the month, and the balance of that day are not delayed. A good many persons think the rates are not payable until the 10th, because their receipts read "delinquent on the 10th," and this hallucination causes considerable surprise when the water is suddenly turned off.

PROHIBITION OFFICERS - At a meeting of the Prohibition Alliance held Wednesday evening a permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers: President, F. W. Miller; vice-president, J. E. Burke; secretary, F. L. Kneeland; treasurer, Charles Saunders; chaplain, Professor D. P. Hayes. A short program was rendered and an enjoyable hour spent. All its meetings are open to the public, and it is expected that its programs will be both entertaining and instructive.

THE MEIER & FRANK COMPANY on Saturday last distributed among their salespeople the sum of $127.40 as their share of the receipts of the successful department managers' sale which was held in October. Many of the salespeople clearing $15 to $20 in addition to their regular salaries. Both employers and employees are deserving of great credit for carrying out successfully one of the most unique sales ideas ever inaugurated in the far West.

GERMAN CHORAL CLASS - A slight singing class is being organized among the Germans of this city. Its purpose is to furnish a number of competent singers so as to make a fine male and mixed chorus one of the features in the planned amalgamation of the German societies of artistic and also to improve the standard of congregational singing in German churches and lodges.

PAY-DAY FOR TEACHERS - Yesterday was pay-day for city school teachers, and School Clerk Allen was kept busy handing out checks to nearly 30 good-looking women who had climbed two flights of marble staircase to get their pay for October. There was no complaint over being compelled to visit the City Hall for the purpose, although the school authorities had signified their willingness to send the checks to the principals of the respective schools, when they could be handed the teachers. This mode of proceeding would entail delay, however, as the checks cannot be made out until the time of each teacher has been obtained from the reports of the principals, and so teachers desiring to receive their checks at the schools could not do so until Monday.

MORE FOR BATH FUND - President Edward Holman reported yesterday that he had received $45 in the proceeds of the recent entertainment given at Arion Hall by the Social Auxiliaries, No. 15, Order of the Eastern Star, for the bath fund. The collectors report that only one subscriber has so far refused to pay what he promised to give to the bath fund, and that this man's financial status is excellent. It is stated that the swimming bath will be ready for the boys and girls early in May.

HIGH-GRADE FURS. Interesting Opinions From Portland's Leading Furrier.

Furs furnish an entertaining subject of discussion in these Fall days. In conversation, yesterday, Mr. S. Silverfeld, the well-known furrier, remarked: "The fur business with us is in remarkably fine shape this year. There is an unusually heavy demand for high-grade garments, particularly in the line of sealskins and foxes. We were very fortunate early in the year in securing from the interior of Alaska one of the largest and finest assortments of fur skins I have ever seen out of that country. While I was in Leipzig this summer I made arrangements to have our furs dyed there. As a result we have secured fairly cheaply, from all over the country, it is surprising to the untitled to learn how far the European-dyed furs surpass the American-dyed article. And we sell the foreign-dyed fur as low as many houses sell the inferior home-dyed fur. The fact is giving us immense prestige. Sealskins are much in demand this season, and where high-grade goods are sought a house of acknowledged reliability has, of course, a great advantage. We use only London-dyed goods of the highest quality, made up under our own personal supervision. In fact, we practically handle the skins from the backs of the animals to the backs of the wearers. Silverfeld's took first prize at the Exposition this year for quality and workmanship of fur garments. It will well repay any lover of fine furs to visit the establishment. A talk with the experts of the house is most interesting."

SMOKE THE BEST. "Mi Preferida," Usually Sold at Three for 50 Cents, Handley & Co.'s - Price 10 Cents Straight.

Try this cigar. It is the best value on the market at the price. All lovers of a high grade cigar are delighted with it. We also have a great run on "Miss Smith," a cigar commonly retailed at 10 cents straight; our price, 5 cents, or six for 25 cents. Handley & Co.'s cigar and news store, 221 Washington street, Perkins Hotel building.

IT CHANCES TO HAPPEN - This fall that our new frames, pictures and picture moldings have the effects that the lovers of artistic things have desired these many seasons. We have just received large shipments of them. Their prices illustrate the fact that an abundance of good taste can do as much as an abundance of money in making a home beautiful. Sanborn, Vail & Co., 179 First street.
