ROOSEVELT REMOVED THE GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA.

Jenkins Made an Improper Contract for Care of the Insane—Ferguson Gets the Place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The President today appointed Thomas B. Ferguson Governor of Oklahoma, vice William M. Jenkins, removed. In taking this action the President attached to the papers the following memorandum:

"Governor Jenkins, of Oklahoma, is hereby removed because of his improper connection with a contract between the territory and the Oklahoma Sanatorium Company. The decision is based wholly upon his own written statements and his oral explanations of them at the hearing."

"One of the duties of the Territorial Governor is to enter into the contract with some person or corporation for the keeping of the insane of the territory. Governor Jenkins made such a contract with the Oklahoma Sanatorium Company, a corporation, the promoters of which received $10,000 of its stock for the Governor and subject to his orders. In the Governor's explanation of the affair he says he told the promoters, at the time they desired him to sanction the contract, that it was an important contract, that I had some friends who would be interested in the company, to whom I owed some obligations which I would not be able to pay by an appointment or anything of that kind. The stock was delivered to a banker, subject to the Governor's order, and was turned over to these friends whose political service the Governor had sought to reward. The extent of the favor to the Governor and his friends is suggested by the fact that the only known sale of the stock since the contract was given out was at double the price paid for it."

"As performance of the contract was to be the sole business of the corporation, it is obvious either the territory was obligated to pay for more than the service was worth or that its helpless wards were to have the enormous profits contemplated taken out of their keep."

"The Governor's confessed relation to the matter displays such a lack of appreciation of the high fiduciary nature of the duties of his office as to unfit him for their further discharge. A sound rule of public policy and good government is particular servant from seeking or accepting any personal benefit in a transaction wherein he has a public duty to perform. A Chancellor would not for a moment retain a trustee who, in dealing for the trust, reserved an advantage to himself. The thought is not to be tolerated that the President can be less vigilant and exacting in the public interest."

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Thomas Ferguson, of Watonga, Oklahoma, went to Oklahoma in 1888, and settled at Watonga when the Cheyenne country was located. He was married, and has a family. He has been a newspaper editor continuously since. He was recently appointed Postmaster at Watonga. He is about 40 years of age, was educated in Kansas, and left college a minister in the Christian church. For four years he has been secretary of the territorial committee.

COLONEL MEADE ON THE STAND.

All the Evidence in the Brooklyn Court-Martial.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The taking of evidence in the Meade court-martial ended today. The last witness on the stand was the accused himself. After the cross-examination of Colonel Meade the court handed this question to the Judge-Advocate:

"In using the word 'collusion' in your testimony before the court of inquiry, referring to Colonel Denny and the architect, Mr. Boring, did you mean it in a military sense?"

"No, sir, I did not," replied Colonel Meade. "The word was not mine. The cross-examiner used the expression, and in the heat of the cross-examination I inadvertently accepted Major Lauchlin's phrase. I meant that of the letter written by Mr. Boring to Colonel Denny, in which I was accused of collusion, and as all of the men of my command considered me an inebriate and other things, I inferred that the architect was associated with Colonel Denny to make trouble for me."

Colonel Meade, Captain Shaw, Lieutenant K. Harrison, R. L. Meade (son of the Colonel) and Edward R. Allen testified that Major Lauchlin was intoxicated at the party in Colonel Meade's home in Boston.

WHITEHOUSE WILL START ON A FRESH EXPEDITION.

Rhode Island Man Proposes to Explore the Unknown Portions of Lake Albert.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—William Fitzhugh Whitehouse, Jr., of Newport, R. I., who has been in London this week, testifying in an arbitration case in connection with a personal dispute between two members of the Harlow-Whitehouse Abyssinian expedition of 1890, intends to start in a few weeks on a fresh expedition to the heart of Africa, accompanied by Captain Powell Cotton, of the Northumberland Fusiliers. They intend to go in a Belgian gunboat up the Congo to Basoko, thence through the papyrus forest to the north, avoiding the usual forest route, the Uganda, and then push on and explore the unknown portions of Lake Albert. The chief objects of the expedition are to obtain big game, but it will also include practical surveys from which valuable geographical results may be expected. Mr. Whitehouse hopes to return in about nine months.

STRIKE NEARLY OVER.

Effect on the Manufacturing Industries of Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 30.—There was little change in the switchmen's strike today. Among the striking switchmen on the Allegheny Valley road there was a rumor that the company was willing to compromise on an additional cent per hour, and that negotiations would likely be begun with this object in view. The rumor, however, could not be verified. All the mills between Eleventh and Fifty-fourth streets are shut down on account of their inability to obtain the necessary coal. It is estimated that about 50,000 men are idle.

Officials of all roads affected by the strike except the Allegheny Valley report tonight that the strike is over. The Valley officials say the worst is over, and that by Monday or Tuesday their road will be in normal condition. While the strike is practically disposed of, the companies find themselves confronted with the worst condition of freight-handling in the history of the city. Mills along the Monongahela River are working tonight at an unusually high pressure, and connecting roads find it impossible to supply cars to the big plants fast enough to get the manufactured product away. It is said that in the yards of the Homestead mill 20,000 tons of plates are stored, with little room left. If relief does not come soon it is feared the work will have to be shut down. The 10-inch mill suspended today, and the 24-inch mill is likely to follow soon. Manufacturers and merchants throughout this entire district are being made to suffer severely by the lack of means for transportation.

Labor Union Officers Arrested.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., Nov. 30.—C. C. Barnaby, vice-president of the Twenty-third District, United Mineworkers of America, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with confederating and banding together with others for the unlawful intimidation of nonunion miners. Barnaby's home was fixed at $100, which he gave. William Blakey, another organizer, was arrested tonight, charged with intimidation. The trial of Charles L. Plackman, another union organizer, was continued today until next Tuesday. Plackman gave bonds for his appearance.

by the commission to a special committee, and it was agreed that the Chamber of Commerce could perform efficient service toward getting the wharf owners to unite on some plan that would be of great benefit to the port.

Proposal Fair to All.

Commissioner Swigert said this proposal was so fair that all the property-owners should be able to agree and act on it. He regretted to observe, however, that some of the wharf owners seemed to think they would be doing a great service to the port and the community if they should construct bulkheads on their property and prevent the dredge from filling in the dredge. He said that in his opinion this position was wrong on the part of the property-owners, but said it was a condition that had to be met.

Several of the gentlemen present expressed themselves in favor of hiring the dredge of the North Pacific Lumber Company to dredge within the harbor while the dredge of the Port of Portland is engaged in other work. It was not made entirely clear, however, whether that dredge would excavate clay and gravel. Trustee Means finally moved "that the Chamber of Commerce request the Port of Portland Commission to inform us whether it will take action in reference to the employment of an outside dredge in addition to its own, for the improvement of the harbor and channel at an early date."

THE DEATH ROLL.

James Hale Dates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—James Hale Bates is dead at his home in Brooklyn. He was born near Proctorsville, Vt., in the early '30s. While still a child his family removed to Michigan. He entered the University of Michigan, and was graduated. After leaving college he came to New York and became one of the originators of the Mercantile Registry business.

Dr. Hermann Strecker.

READING, Pa., Nov. 30.—Dr. Hermann Strecker, a sculptor and entomologist of world-wide fame, died here today, aged 66. Mr. Strecker had been gathering his superb collection of butterflies, which contains 200,000 specimens, the largest collection in America, and upon which he expended $25,000.

Edgar A. Sada.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Edgar A. Sada, general baggage agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, is dead at his residence in Chicago, at the age of 55. He was 30 years in the service of the "Q." for over 20 years, and rose from the position of passenger conductor to be general baggage agent.

PRESIDENT CARROLL'S WONDERFUL RECOVERY

Catarrh Claims a Multitude of Victims Every Winter.

The Vast Majority of Whom Never Recover.

Will You Be One of Them?

Catarrh is silent and insidious in its ravages, but it pervades nearly every household and hovers like a pestilence over every hamlet and city in our land. Catarrh (and its legitimate consequences) have desolated more hearthstones, made wretched more happy lives, and ended more brilliant careers than all other diseases combined.

Catarrh may end in deafness, blindness, loss of smell, loss of taste, or the entire loss of voice.

Diphtheria, bronchitis, pneumonia, consumption and pleurisy begin almost always as the result of a catarrhal attack.

The worst forms of dyspepsia and Bright's disease of the kidneys are also the direct consequences of neglected cases of acute catarrh.

Even when the victims of acute catarrh escape all of the above-mentioned disabilities, there remains the great probability of its ending in chronic catarrh. The only hope of success in the permanent cure of a case of chronic catarrh is to devise some remedy that will stimulate the nerves which supply the capillary blood vessels.

There is but one remedy that has this most desirable effect, and that remedy is Peruna.

This remedy strikes at once at the root of the catarrh by restoring to the capillary vessels their healthful elasticity.

Peruna is not a temporary palliative, but a radical cure.

Mr. Joseph A. Bosong, 464 West Thirty-seventh street, New York City, N. Y., is Chief Ranger of Court Independence, of the Ancient Order of Foresters of America. He is in the grocery business at 464 West Thirty-seventh street. He is a young man of splendid stature and physique. He writes as follows:

"In my business I have to be at my store at 4 o'clock every morning, Summer and Winter, and I am subject to severe colds from draughts and dampness. Three years ago catarrh attacked me in the head and nose."

"It soon got into my stomach. I suffered from a painful headache from loss of sleep and nervousness. I lost my appetite, and when I did eat heartily of anything that I relished, I had a distressed feeling and my stomach refused to work. I read about others who suffered as I did being cured by Peruna, and I tried it. In two months I was as well as though I never knew what catarrh was, and the first symptoms of the malady have never come back since I got rid of it. Ten bottles of Peruna cured me."—J. A. Bosong.

Chronic Catarrh Fifteen Years.

W. S. Arnold, Peachtree, Ga., writes: "I was a victim of chronic catarrh for fifteen years, and was cured in two months by Peruna. I had tried every medicine that came under my observation, but my disease only became worse, and I continued to suffer day and night, with my head. I would to God every one knew of the great benefit resulting from the use of Peruna."—W. S. Arnold.

Hon. H. W. Ogden, Congressman from Louisiana, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says the following of Peruna, the national catarrh remedy: "I can conscientiously recommend

Mr. John Carroll, President Fluke Beneficial Society, writes from room 33, 331 Fifth avenue, New York City, as follows:

"Two years ago I had an aggravated case of catarrh which hung to me despite the treatment I received from the doctors. I was persuaded to try Peruna, and improved rapidly, and before I had used three bottles was completely cured. I consider Peruna a boon to humanity."—JOHN CARROLL.

your Peruna as a fine tonic and all-around good medicine. I weigh 170 pounds more than I have for years."—H. E. Vaughn.

A Louisiana Congressman.

Hon. J. Floyd King, ex-Member of Congress from Louisiana, ex-Brigadier-General in the Confederate army, writes from Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Being personally acquainted with many distinguished men, National statesmen and others of high character from all over the United States, who I observe by the public prints have given their endorsement to your great catarrh remedy, Peruna, I unhesitatingly state that I am convinced it is a medicine which will effect all the cures which are claimed for its use."—J. Floyd King.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

better, says the Vienna correspondent of the London Times and New York Times. Nobody believes that the Ministry will be able to carry the new Austrian (act of union between Austria-Hungary), which is a vital question affecting the existence of the state. A fresh difficulty has arisen in the shape of the anti-Prussian movement in Galicia. At any moment, says the correspondent, the government may find itself between the hammer and the anvil—between the ill humor of the Prussian Government and that of the Poles in the Reichsrath.

Italy Has a Surplus.

ROME, Nov. 30.—In the Chamber of Deputies today the Minister of Finance, Signor Carcano, in presenting the budget, said he was able to announce an absolute surplus of 4,000,000 lire for the past fiscal year, and added that he anticipated a surplus of 12,000,000 lire for 1901-1902. The Minister referred to the economic revival in Italy and announced reform of the octroi duties without prejudicing the equilibrium of the budget.

A London Wedding.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The wedding of Baron Tweedmouth's son, Dudley Church, 11 Marlborough, and Marie, daughter of the War Secretary, Mr. Brodie, at St. George's Church, Hanover Square, this afternoon, was a smart society function. There were seven bridesmaids, including Marie White, a daughter of the United States Charge d'Affaires, Mr. White. The presents included gifts from King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

Picture Must Not Leave Italy.

ROME, Nov. 30.—Francisco "Madonna" having been sold to an American for 320,000 francs, the Procureur-General has brought action in the courts demanding that the Marquis Fagnoni and the agent who arranged the sale be condemned to pay a joint fine of 10,000 francs, and that the picture be seized by the state.

Babe Hoisted Alive.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 30.—Mrs. J. Fred Meyer, living five miles from Corcoranville, wrapped her 5-months-old baby in a blanket, put her in the oven of the kitchen stove to keep warm, and went out to gather fuel. When, half an hour later, she returned, the fire in the stove had blazed up, and the room was filled with smoke. Rushing to the oven, she found the blanket and clothes in flames. The baby was dead and its arms and legs were burned to a crisp.

Wilhelmina Is Better.

APPELDOORN, Holland, Nov. 30.—Queen Wilhelmina was able to leave her sick room today and participated in the family dinner. Prince Henry, her husband, returned to Helleo at 6:30 o'clock this evening.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Flanagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."
