PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30 .- Probably the most distinguished gathering that ever witnessed a football game in this country, and admittedly the greatest crowd that ever entered the gates of Franklin Field, saw West Point defeat Annapolis this afternoon by the score of From the moment that Presi-posevelt and his party entered the 11 to 5. great amphitheater until half an hour after the time-keeper had blown his whistle announcing the beginning of hoshis tilities, there was a continuous uproar such as probably never has taken place on any football field in the country. The President and several members of his Cabinet, worked up to a nervous pitch by the game, left their seats in the private box which had been set apart for their occupation and took positions on the side line benches, which are usually used for sub-players and injured. There was not a seat unoccupied, and hundreds of persons stood around the field throughout the entire game. The attendance was estimated at 30,000.

The day broke cloudy and threatening but just about the time the Presidential train pulled into the city, the sun broke through the clouds as if to welcome the distinction of the clouds as if to welcome the distinguished guests. The train bearing the President and members of his Cab-inet reached South-Street Station a few minutes after 1 o'clock. Lunch was served on the private dining car, and the party, at 1:45, started for Franklin Field, which is but a few yards from the sta-tion. Two lines of policemen had been drawn up on the sidewalk, and the President and his party marched to the en-trance of the grounds under their escort. All the members of the party entered the grounds at the eastern entrance. First came the President with Provost

Harrison, of the University of Pennsyl-vania, on his right and Lleu-tenant-Commander Cowles on his left. They were followed closely by half a dozen Philadelphia detectives, with Chief Wilkie and other scoret service men selected for the occasion, Secretary Long, Secretary Root, Postmaster-General Smith, Secretaries Cortelyou and Loeb and many Army and Navy officers, Admiral Dewey had stepped into the grounds almost unnoticed and had taken a seat in the Navy stand.

President's appearance was the signal for a tremendous outburst of ap plause which continued until he had walked down the center of the gridiron and across the field to his seat in the north stand. The President's slik hat was on his head scarcely five seconds from the time he entered the grounds until he had taken his seat, so continuous

Six minutes later the West Point lads trotted out and then the black, orange and gray of the Army was waved deliriously from the big south stand. No time was consumed in formalities.

The coin was tossed and Captain Nichols. of the Navy, called the turn correctly. He chose the west goal, with a slight advantage of the wind and at 2:15 Graves kicked off. The contest had been in progress less than 10 minutes when he left his seat in the private box and took up his position on the side line bench. With Secretary Long and a de-tective on his right and Secretary Cor-telyou, Lieutenant-Commander Wainwright and Secretary Root on his left, President Roosevelt walked across to the south stand and again occupied a seat on the side line. When the two teams resumed play at 3:28 and Daly, of the Army team, made his great run of 165 yards for a touchdown, President Roosevelt ped to his feet with an expression of surprise on his face and, like thousands of other spectators, could scarcely real-ize what a remarkable piece of football mechanism Daly really is that he could make such a phenomenal run through an Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of "The Oregonian" May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Your other organs may need attention--but your kidneys most, because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.
