THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK.

The Oregonian's Handbook tells all about Portland, the entire Columbia River watershed and the 1965 World's Fair, comm the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon. The book contains over 150 handsome illustrations, and it is printed on enumeled book paper. It will be mailed to any address in the United States or Canada for 7 cents a copy.

MRS. C. S. FERRIS JOINS HER HUSBAND. C. Stanley Ferris was yesterday re-joined by his wife, Margaret Ferris, who has been discharged from the insane asylum in sound health. They are residing at M6 Yamhill street, but may go to Seattle, where Mr. Ferris has had employment for several months past. Ferris was the plaintiff in a $20,000 damage suit against Thomas Gibbons for having allenated the effections of his wife, but a verdict was rendered in favor of the latter. The facts attending the differences between the parties and the history of the case generally were at that time gone into

FOR THE FREE SWIMMING BATHS.-Did you ever see a living book? Did you ever attend an auction of living books? No? Then you don't know what fun you have missed. Do you know that Mr. J. T. Wilson will auction off 50 popular living books at Arion Hall, Friday evening, December 27, at 8 o'clock? "Ivanhoe," "Looking Backwards," "Under Two Flags," "When Knighthood Was in Flower," "Vanity Fair," "The Old-Fashioned Giri" and "To Have and to Hold" are the titles of some of the books. Come and enjoy yourself and help us complete the fund. Admis-

Manual Training Tool Boxes.-Selected by Professor W. J. Standley, are being sold by the Y. M. C. A. for Christmas presents for boys. The purpose of the association in selling these tool cabinets for $5 each is not to make money, but to get boys to using real tools (not toys). The cabinet is convenient; can be hung on the wall or carried about the house, and contains just the tools a boy will use and needs in the development of his creative faculty. Orders taken at Y. M. C. A., Fourth and Yamhill streets, for a limited number of these cabinets.

USEPUL HOLIDAY GIFTS .- Select your remembrances early Monday morning. Toward the evening the crowds cause confusion, and hurrled purchases are often unsatisfactory. Our display of silk mufflers, handkerchiefs, neckwear and substand overcoats is at its best and but slightly disturbed. See our "ad." on page 6 of this issue. Samuel Rosenblatt & Co., Third and Morrison streets,

BOISE MAN ARRESTED .- As Paul Evilene, of Boise, Idaho, was about to board a train at the terminal depot last night for Denver, Colo., he was arrested by Policeman Mallett, charged with perjury on the complaint of the Sheriff of Ada County, Idaho. Evilene's arrest relates to a law case in which a Judgment for $800 was obtained against him to Idubo.

PARTIES contemplating purchasing razors, strops or anything else in the shav-ing line will do well to call at the Lewis-Stenger Burber Supply Company, Ed First street, the only place in the Pacific North-west where goods of that kind can be ought in a satisfactory manner. Every article is guaranteed as absolutely first class or money refunded.

VANETTA IS INNOCENT.—Sumner Vanet. ta, colored, who was recently arrested in connection with the $10,000 diamond robbery from the Portland Hotel, has been discharged from custody, as the police have now discovered that he had nothing to do with the matter. Nothing has been sald against Vanetta's character.

LATEST EUROPEAN IMPORTATIONS in smokers' soveities are now on display. We buy direct from the manufacturer, therefore we are enabled to give better value to the consumer. Our stock is large and every article guaranteed. Ladies expecially can rely upon us. Foelier & O'Neill, Chamber of Commerce.

OYSTERS opened 24 hours have lost their snap, flavor and nutriment; are revolting to refined taste as those from Chinatown, Xmas oysters are opened by us that day— Toke Points or others. We are the great family supply house of the Coast. Portland Oyster Company. Tel, Main 300; Co.

ART AND SCIENCE.-Signor G. Ferrari, the only Italian vocal teacher in Portland, formerly of La Scala Theater, Milan, Italy, cures catarrh and asthma simply by his method of voice culture. Testimonials open to inspection at his studio, Mulkey building, corner Second and Mor-

No DOOLEY LETTER TODAY.-The Sunday Oregonian is without the letter of Mr. Dooley for this issue. Mr. P. F. Dunne, Dooley for this issue. Mf. F. F. Dunne, the author, is now traveling in Mexico for his health, and his "copy," if it was sent, did not reach this office in time for publication.

If the publication is now traveling in Mexico shadows, is the best and most economical light in the world, one are costing but 154 cents per hour to operate.

A BRILLIANT LIGHT.

For Your House, Store, Church, Town or City.

Parrott's Gasmaker produces a fixed gas out of 5 per cent of gasoline and 15 per cent of air, which is the cheapest and best illuminant known today, and as a fuel for gas ranges, engines, etc., is un-equaled by coal, gas or electricity, and in localities where coul and wood are dear it is by far the most economical fuel to use. It operates perfectly.

For heavy fighting, such as stores, halls and streets, the Meridan Arc Light, which is more powerful than the electric arc, as it gives 1600 candle-power, never flickers or dies down, and does not cast any shadows, is the best and most econom-

$1 00 a Month Will Keep Your Clothing Cleaned and Pressed, and n Ticket Good for Eight Shines.

We wish to call your attention to the extensive improvements which we are making. One of the most important is the installing of a 14-inch cylinder clothes brush. Heretofore we have used the ordinary hand brushes, which were not at all satisfactory. The new brush is de-signed and built by us to meet the necessary requirements. There are 16 brushes, 2x30 inches, fastened to a cylinder, which is hung on coll springs, and by touching a lever the brush can be raised or low-ered to brush hard or light, as the garment requires. The bristles are very soft, and cannot injure the finest fabric. In addition to the regular service, beginning with January 1, we will present to our monthly members a ticket each month our monthly members a ticket each month good for eight shines at the Oriental bootblack stand, 228 Washington street, Call us up.
