ANNOUNCEMENT OF POLICY OF THE ENGLISH LIBERAL PARTY.

Taken as a Bid for the Support of the Irish Nationalists-Marie Corelli's Complaint.

LONDON, Jan. 18 .- The most important event of the reassembling of Parliament was undoubtedly the emphatic declaration of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Lib or sir reeny Campoen-Bannerman, Locard leader, in the House of Commons that the Liberal party is still committed to home rule. This was so utterly at variance with Lord Rosebery's Chester-field speech that it was taken to nullify completely the other passages of Str Henry's opening speech, in which he en-deavored to conciliate the Rosebery fac-

The Spectator says this renailing of the home rule flag to the Liberal mast is a "new and violent repudiation of the im-perialist wing." In other quarters the home rule announcement has been taken to be a de facto bid for the support of the Irish Parliamentary party, but this does not appear to be a probable condoes not appear to be a probable con-tingency, as John Redmond and other lead. ers of the Irish Nationalists have contin-ually declared and proved it to be their intention to fight the home-rule battle unhampered by alliances, only support-ing Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman when ecasion suits them,

The purchase of Literature (published by the London Times) by John Morgan Rich ards, president of the American Society of London, and father of John Oliver Hobbes (Mrs. Craigie), has created no little comment in literary circles. Mr. Richards is also proprietor of the Acad-emy, with which Literature is now incorporated. The Times will replace the pa-per sold with occasional literary supplements, the first of which appeared Friday.

The Outlook, commenting on the incorporation, says: "The Daily Mail and the Times, Tit-Bits and the Athenaeum, Pearson's Weekly and the Nineteenth Century, are evidently incorporations which we may expect in the near future."

The pantomime season is threatened with an untimely close, "Gulliver's Travwith an unimery cross. Web Davis' I are no less than eight of these perform-ances struggling for existence in the West End. Their experience proves that only two pantomimes can be supported. What business "Bluebell in Fairyland" and "Bluebeard" have not monopolized has gone to John Hure in "A Pair of Spectacios" at the Criterion Theater, and William Gillette in "Sherlock Holmes" at the Lyceum Theater, These houses are nightly packed to overflowing, and have proved immensely popular as holiday re-sorts, especially to the younger element.

King Edward's visit to Earl Howe at Penn House, Amersham, is proving a brilliant social and sporting event. The other guests include most of those known as the "inner circle," the Hon. George as the "inner circle," the Hon. George Keppel and Mrs. Keppel; Earl de Grey, the Hon. Signey Greville, Lord Vane Tempest and Viscount Curzon. The King daily uses his motor car and prob-ably will use it for the journey February 21 from Penn House to Windsor, where the Queen will join him. Her Majesty, at present, is at Marlborough House.

Considerable flutter was created here by the announcement that King Edward had appeared in a frock coat with deep, turned velvet cuffs. Hundreds of fashionable men immediately rushed to their tailors and ordered similar garments, in spite of their extraordinary novelty. Consternation now prevails, as it is learned that what the King wore was a frock overcoat, on which velvet cuffs

Marie Correlli, in a letter to a paper, caps the climax of the anti-German feeling existing in England. This authoress decialmed passionately against the similarity of the new British Army uniforms with those of the German Army.

"Bearing in mind," she writes, "the absolutely criminal offense against our King by the vile prints circulated in Germany, is it justifiable to insult our brave officers by compelling them to wear any uniform even remotely resembling that by admitted slanderers of our King, army and country?" Marie Corelli admits that it is scarcely necessary to allude to the "widespread indignation" which prevails everywhere at the color and design of the new post-age stamps, which are essentially German in appearance.

Andrew Lang joins the long list of critics of Rudyard Kipling's poem, "The Islanders," with a scathing denunciation of the author's personality. Mr. Lang takes the character in "Stalky and Com pany," generally supposed to be Kip-ling himself, holds him up to derision for his "unathletic brutality," and concludes: "The Americans notoriously excel in many games, like the Australians. Surely they are none the worse for that. It is not games but the fanaticism about the games and the rubbish written against he games that we have to regret."

Whenever any officer remotely connected with cricket or football is killed or ded in South Africa, several of the papers now always sardonically refer to "muddled oaf" or "flan neled fool," after Kipling's lines.

High Church Circles Think There Is

Something Wrong With It. BERLIN, Jan. 18.-The action of Em eror William in sitting through a long peror William in sitting through the Assyri-lecture by Professor Delitzsch, the Assyri-ologist, on the Babylonish origin of Hebrew ideas, has alarmed the ultra-orthodox circles of the state church, who begin to think something is wrong with His Majesty's theology. They have noted that in Gotha three weeks ago the Emperor intimated that all churches were equally dear to him, saying that one of the great ses of his life was to bring about church unity. His allowing Professor De-litzsch's conclusions as to the historical foundation of Hebrewism to have imperial approval is regarded as a dangerous symptom. Professor Delitzsch, at the termination of his address, thanked Emperor William for his countenance and large personal contribution, enabling researchto be made in the territory of ancient

The provisional programme for Prince Henry's vielt, as arranged by Sccretary Hay and Dr. von Holleben, has been re-ceived at the Foreign Office here, but has not yet been considered by the Em-peror who is expected to take up the peror, who is expected to take up the matter Monday. The announcement that Director Bal-lin, of the Hamburg-American steamship line, and Director Wiegand, of the North German Lloyd line, intend to go to New York together at the end of January, causes much conjecture as to the object of their trip. The most generally accepted theory is that it refers to pooling ar-rangements with the United States lines. The Lokal Anzelger says it learns that the object of the trip is to participate in the festivities in the United States on the occasion of the visit of Prince Henry.

The friends of the tariff bill continue to express themselves in pessimistic term regarding the prospects of that measure It is significant that an agrarian organ, the Deutsches Tages Zeitung, has print-ed an article notifying the tariff committee that there is no use wasting time upon the bill unless the agricultural du-ties are raised still higher, as the agricultural members will never vote for the bill in its present form. PARIS, Jan. 18.-Colonel Arthur Lynch, the newly-elected member of the House of Commons for Galway City, who is said to have fought on the side of the Boers in South Africa, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press today denied that he had tried to go to England for the opening of Parlia-ment. Web Davis' Long Petition. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 18.—Webster Davis started for New York last night with a petition carrying the signatures of 212,604 citizens of the South and West, which eventually are to be taken before Congress, asking for National sympathy for the Boers. These signatures have been received in answer to an appeal sent out by Mr. Davis some four months ago, and are addressed to the several Congressmen, asking them to vote for a reso-lution already framed for them. The pe-

Dr. Clark's Mysterious Mission. NEW YORK, Jan. 18 .- Dr. W. B. Clark, mber of Parliament for Caithi and formerly Consul-General of the Orange Free State in London, will ar-rive in New York on the steamship Ivernia, on some mysterious mission, cables the World's London correspondent. His exertions in the Boer cause have evoked bitter animosity among the "jingoes," and it is now alleged that he has gone to Washington to influence President Roose-velt toward intervention. This object was attributed to him in an interview by a correspondent of the Paris Matin, but Dr. Clark denied having said so. Whereupon the correspondent, in a letter to the Times, repeated his statements.

Krause Found Guilty.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Lord Chief Jus tice, Baron Alverstock, today sustained the contention of the defense of Dr. Krause, that the charge of inciting to murder must fall, as there was no evidence that the letters in the case had reached Broecksman; but held that the uestion of "attempting to persuade" must go to the jury.'

Dr. Krause was found guilty and sen tenced to two years' imprisonment, The Lord Chief Justice, in passing sentence, declared the offense was morally as great as though the crime had been carried out, The prisoner, the court said, did everything he could to insure murder being itted, and the maximum sentence was, therefore, imposed.

Crusade Against Bad Milk.

PARIS, Jan. 18 .- A crusade has been started here to fight the adulteration of milk, to which the great mortality of infants is largely attributed. The agitation is the outcome of the grave concern expressed at the depopulation of France. The Matin has organized a "Citizens" League for the Protection of Human Life," which will carry through the prosecutions of every case of milk adultera-tion. As an instance of the unscrupulous character of the milk adulteration here, it is pointed out that a carrier was re-cently arrested at night time, while he was filling his cans with filthy, stagnant water from the fountains in the Place de la Concorde. The Matin announces today that President Loubet, M. Fallieries, President of the Senate, and M. LONDON, Jan. 18.-Dr. Leyds, represent-ative in Europe of the Transvaal, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram Company, held a con-ference today with the Boer delegation at The Hague, at the house of Mr. Wolma-rens. No official statement has been giv-en out, but there is the best authority for asserting that the conference was merely a periodical meeting. The dis-patch says the reports of peace are ridiculed by the Boers themselves, who say such stories are simply fabricated by British agents with a view to British publication, hoping to turn them to advantage in South Africa. The Boers deny that any negotiations are in progress.
