The Marcus White Club, of Irvington, gave a delightful dancing party at Burkhardt's Hall last Wednesday evening.

WEDDINGS.

Peterson-Rudeen.
One of the prettiest social events of last week was the marriage of Miss Hilma Matina Rudeen to Werner Peterson, both of Portland, at Alsky Hall, Saturday evening, January 25. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of friends, by Rev. Joseph W. Carlson. The bride was tastefully decorated with flowers and ribbons. The bride wore a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Emma Nelson and Miss Mabel Hooten. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peterson, on Forty-first street and Hawthorne avenue.

On Thursday afternoon Arthur Seeley took a number of his friends on a sleighing party to Linton. Miss Dewey, of St. Helen's Hall, chaperoned the party, which consisted of Misses Walter, Burns, Wood, Filling, Morrison, Nichols, Wilson, Smith, White and Crocker, and Messrs. Meads, Williams, Wood, Taylor, Strawn, Arthur, Honeyman, Corbett and Felling.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A very agreeable contrast to the prevailing wintry weather was experienced Friday evening by the 20 guests of Miss Mary Lela Goldard, at 455 Going street, when they were ushered into the rooms prepared for an indoor picnic. The walls of the reception hall, front and back parlors were entirely concealed by fir trees, ivy and Oregon grape, the whole being arranged to represent an outdoor scene. Rustic seats and Chinese lanterns served to complete the illusion. Outdoor games, such as archery, pistol practice, etc., occupied the plunkers for the evening.

At the proper time coffee was made on the camp-fire in the fireplace, and lunch boxes, each decorated with a bow of ribbon and containing lunch for two, were distributed to the young men, who had to identify their partners by the ribbons which the ladies wore.

Those present were: Misses Frances Gilh, Edna Mastick, Alla Mastick, Edith Church, Irene St. John, Hattie Wood, Florence Walrath, Mildred Walrath, Maud Hansen, Nettie Garrigue, Marguerite Holman, Milton Ward, Belle Madden, Pearl Mathena, Messrs. Ted Wood, Timothy Wood, Edward Doernbecher, Horace Peterson, Albert Goss, Sam Bennett, Theron Poston, Claude Mathena, Herbert Clarke, Oliver Cutler, Chester Roberts, Frank Rowe, Harry Correll, Ralph Holman.

Blue and gray uniforms brightened by the dainty dresses of pretty girls from St. Helen's Hall were in evidence Friday night at the first dance given this season by the St. Helen's High School Military Academy. The dance was given in the Academy drawing-room, which was attractively decorated for the occasion, and there were enough dancers present to make the affair a pleasant social occasion. Dr. and Mrs. Newell gave a cordial welcome to the guests and the cadets impressed every one by their gentlemanly deportment. The floor committee were: W. O. Rudy, R. Smith and M. W. Plisk. Fourteen numbers were danced, including a grand march and a polka, and music was supplied by Parsons' orchestra. Delicious refreshments were served at the intermission between dances. The hall, stairways and corridors of the Academy were prettily decorated for the event.

Misses Agnes and Beatrice Hill gave a card party Wednesday evening. The house was most beautifully decorated with palms, potted ferns and choice cut flowers. Throughout the parlors were red lights, which made the room a picturesque sight. Hearts were played during the earlier hours. The prizes were won by Miss Jet McCallum and Mr. Rothwell. After awarding the prizes, a dainty supper was served at tete-a-tete tables. Music and dancing were the closing features of the evening, which was kept up till the early morning.

A number of prominent people were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Arata, 38 Tenth street, last Wednesday evening, for the purpose of meeting Signor Liberati, the famous band leader and cornet soloist. Signor Liberati delighted the guests with a cornet solo and graciously to several encores. Liberati improves with age, and his complete mastery of the instrument was never more thoroughly demonstrated. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

A very dainty luncheon was given by Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. William Smith. The decorations consisted of a charming arrangement of pink roses, while the souvenirs were bunches of violets, tied with violet ribbons. Mrs. Ladd's guests were: Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Carl Harbaugh, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Miss Nellie Williams, Mrs. W. S. Houghton, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. Beebe.

Mrs. William Taylor, of Seattle, gave a delightful luncheon January 28 at the home of her mother, Mrs. N. G. Kittle, corner of Steiner street and Pacific avenue, Seattle. Mrs. Green, of Portland, was guest of honor. Covers were laid for 16. The decorations were very artistic, the effects being carried out in white, principally frozies, with a few dainty maid-chair ferns.

Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, the Ladies Aid Literary Club, of the First Congregational Church, will give an interesting literary and musical programme, after which it will entertain its friends during a social hour. The hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. H. W. Caldwell, Mrs. A. H. Birrell, Mrs. D. E. Clark, Mrs. E. Ladd, Mrs. C. M. Colton and Mrs. Coltingham.

The Altar Society, of St. Mary's Cathedral, held a most enjoyable progressive whist party, Thursday afternoon, at which light refreshments were served. The many who braved the cold went home well satisfied with the afternoon's pleasure. The prizes, which were given by Mrs. O'Neill and Mrs. Corcoran, were won by Miss Lawler and Miss Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schroeder, who live at East Seventh and Thompson streets, Irvington, were agreeably surprised, Tuesday evening, January 28, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder were the recipients of some appropriate and beautiful presents.

Lawrence Holman entertained a party of young people at progressive hearts, Saturday evening, January 25, at 729 Overton street. At the conclusion of the game,

George Crosswell Cressy, Dr. and Mrs. Darling departed the same evening for California. They will return in the early part of February.
