On this point the records disclose that the average mortality for the past five years was but 72 per cent of the expected, the savings thus effected reaching upward of three and a half million dollars, which sum was added to the dividends to policy holders. The Penn Mutual has for many years been noted for the liberal treatment ac-corded policy-holders who, through misfortune or otherwise, withdrew from company; and its example has excited emulation that has served greatly to increase the popularity of life insurance. ability and integrity of management than an increase in surplus. This is the su-preme test. Under such circumstances the medical selection has been contin-uously cautious and thorough: expenses have been kept below the provision for them contained in the premiums collect-ed; investments have produced more than an adequate interest return, and their value much exceeds their cost. OPEN LETTER TO TEACHERS.

No More Marking Pupils Present When They Are Absent.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 8-State Su-perintendent Bryan has issued the subolned open letter to the school teachers of the state. The cause of its issuance is said to be the practice some of the teachers in the smaller schools in marking pupils as present when absent in order to swell the district's apportionment, which is made upon the umber of pupils in attendance. The letter follows:

"Teachers, principals and city superin-tendents, in keeping registers and mak-ing reports, should record and report only the actual attendance of pupils. School districts are entitled to accredited or con-structive attendance in but one case, and that is when the school is closed for the purpose of allowing the teachers to at-tend a teachers' institute. In this instance the accredited attendance should be added by the County Superintendent, before making his annual report, and should be determined by multiplying the average dally attendance as reported by the teach-er, by the number of days the teacher was actually in attendance at the institute. "The teacher who marks pupils present on days when the school was for any reason not in session, is guilty of faisify-ing his records and is liable to prosecu-tion for so doing.

"County Superintendents are hereby re-quested to give publicity to this ruling and to see that it is observed by the teachers of their respective countles."
