STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION. Mississippi-Avenue Branch Will Be Built Four Blocks Northward.

J. M. Turner, of the Central Albina Board of Trade, says that the City & Suburban Railway company has completed the Mississippi-avenue branch to Shaver street, and he has been informed that the company will extend the line four blocks further north. This will carry that branch well through Multnomah Addition, which will be highly satisfactory to residents. The intention is finally to extend the branch to a connection with the St. John railway.

BRISK BOAT BUILDING.

Work Has Been Started on a Shallow-Water Craft for the Yukon.

Boat building promises to be brisk all through the year. At the Supply yard the two large high-class barges are finished and will be launched the coming week.

Yesterday the new Alaska shallow water boat was laid down in the vacant block on the west side of East Water street. It will be 120 feet long by 24 feet wide.

There is considerable inquiry concerning shallow-water boats, and a letter came from California asking for information as to this class of crafts.

Last of Our Factory Men Leaves.

John Suders, who came to Portland to act as foreman of the now defunct our factory on East Water and East Clay streets, left last evening for Clarendon, Ark.

Want Ladd Avenue Replanked.

Clinton Kelly Board of Trade will try and have Ladd avenue through the Ladd tract south of Hawthorne avenue replanked.

New Factory Buildings.

The surveyors have set the grade stakes for the building of the Frank Smith Company, sash, door and finishing factory, on the block between East Seventh and East Eighth and East Taylor and East Yamhill streets.

Chimney Fire Causes Excitement.

A fire alarm was struck yesterday afternoon from box 24, Hawthorne avenue and East Water street, for a chimney fire in the grocery store of C. Swain.

Death of Mrs. Louise R. Tyler.

Mrs. Louise R. Tyler, wife of A. L. Tyler, died yesterday at her home, 686 East Washington street, after a lingering illness.

East Side Notes.

Captain J. W. Stapleton, living at 418 Brazer street, Alameda, while trying to catch a Woodlawn car last evening, slipped, and, falling, dislocated his right shoulder and suffered a painful injury.

WIDEN WHITE HOUSE ROAD.

Boleward Will Be Increased to 60 or 80 Feet the Entire Length.

The widening of the White House road from 60 to 80 feet, which has been agitated for over a year past, will soon be commenced.

The road will be straightened at curves as much as possible, and also leveled wherever this can readily be accomplished.

A MEAN TRICK.

To knowingly give a friend a poor cigar should be a punishable offense.
