

The German entertainment at St. Helen's Hall Friday evening proved to be adelightful affair. The first part of the evening was taken up by a programme, a production from "Alice in Wonderland." The scenes were charmingly rendered, and the work of the young netresses evoked much applause. After the programme a pleasant rocial hour was passed, and reat a number of pretty booths. The comic art exhibition was visited by a large number of guests, who pronounced the display the best ever seen in the city. The entertainment was attended by a large number of friends of the school including numerous puptls from other institutions. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of a Lenten offering for the

In another week the Lenten season will be at an end, and society will resume its former gayety. Lent has been unusually quiet this year, but indications point to a very busy season after Easter. Invitations are out for any number of parties and other entertainments, while the little birds are telling of some pretty weddings that are on the calendar. Lent, with all its quietness, will give way to a gay and happy season of enjoyment.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The girls of the High School "Dix" So rotity gave an informal dancing party on Thursday evening at Larowe Hall, Excellent music was provided, and the young people all had a delightful time in the enjoyment of their favorite amusement, The patronesses were: Mrs. Owen, Mrs. T. N. Word and Mrs. De Bevoise. The others present were as follows: Misses Lola Bradford, Grace Watkins, Hattle Ward, Jane Owen, Semele Groat, Ednah Pike, Bess Allen, Laura Dunn, Ethel Allen, Marion Chase, May Bachelor, Edwa De Bevoise, Molly Bachelor, Bess De Bevoise; Messrs, Alex De France, J. H. Upton, Ed Jorgensen, Lloyd Wickersham, Timothy Wood, Guy Thatcher, Sam Hol-brook, Harry Nicolai, Robert Holt, James McGowan, William Banks, David Honeyman, Bert Staver, Barney Struhal, Claud Mathena and Mr. Eastham, of Spokane,

Under the auspices of the Women's For-Baptist Church, an afternoon social was held on March 19, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Fraser, 381 East Main street. An instructive and interesting programme was given. The pastor, Rev. William Randall, gave a brief address, which was well re-ceived. Two piano solos were rendered by Miss Majora; two vocal solos each by Miss Habighorst and Mrs. Montgomery; a recitation by Mrs. Patterson, of Sunnyside; readings by Mrs. Werschul and Mrs. Toombs, closed the formalities of the day. A dainty collation was served by the host-ess, Mrs. McLinn, and Miss Anna Welch presiding at the table, which was decorated with carnations. Forty-six were in attendance. The financial results were as liberal as the hospitality of the hostess,

'Lend Me Five Shillings,' a well-known and most popular little play, is now being rehearsed by Mr. Maurice Chiel, Dr. Arch Stewart, Mr. Ralph Wilbur, Mr. Rollin Page, Mr. Lloyd Smith and Miss Lucy Sitton and Miss Henrietta Eliot, for prosentation at Arion Hall shortly after Eas-ter. The play will be given under the aus-pices of the William G. Ellot Fraternity of the Unitarian Church, whose annual theatricals have become a well-known feature in Portland's after-Easter festivi-

George Wright Post, No. 1, G. A. R., at its last meeting, gave the first of a was enjoyed to a late hour. ments were served, followed by a free and easy interchange of jokes, reminis-cences and reviews of current topics. The Auxiliary Relief Corps will be invited to participate, also the comrades of other posts and corps in the city. It is hoped in this manner to arouse the zeal of many who have grown lukewarm and bring increased attendance at meetings.

The members of the Octet Whist Club were entertained in a very delightful man-ner by Dr. Dallas on Thursday evening, at his apartments in the Falling. After the game of whist, at which J. B. Wilson won game of whist, at which J. B. Wilson won first prize and Dr. Thomson received the consolation, a dainty supper was served. The members of the club are: Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Thomson, Misses Stringer, Thompson and Sprenger; Messrs. Wilson and Thompson and Dr. Dallas.

The members of St. Ann's Society were entertained by Mrs. F. Zimmerman on Thursday afternoon at her residence on Market street. A large number were pres-ent during the afternoon, and delightful refreshments were served.

A pleasant whist party was given Friday evening at the home of W. G. Kerns, on the Base Line road. There was a large attendance, and the evening was pleasantly spent. The house was attractively decorated.

Engagements. pleasantly specific tively decorated.

A very enjoyable party was given Friday, the 14th, at the home of Mr. C. C. Cline, 174 Glbbs street, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Cline. Old-time friends were the guests.

In honor of Norrie Parks, their new member, the Albeftileons gave a very pleasant stag theater party at the Marquam last Tuesday evening.

The Vade Mecum Club has issued invitations for a party to be given Tuesday evening, April 1, at Burkhard's Hall.

Miss Buckenmeyer will give a "shirt-waist party" at Parsons Hall soon after Lent. These parties are very popular in

Mrs. Ralph R. Duniway entertained the Progress Club last Monday afternoon at her residence, 748 East Burnside street, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Logan gave an in formal whist party at their residence last Thursday evening. The New Century Dancing Club gave Naval Battalion, have issued very neat and artistic invitations for a social dance, to be given at the Armory on April 1.

delightful party Thursday evening at

The annual concert of the choral class of St. Helen's Hall will be given April I.

WEDDINGS. Kerry-Glen.

Wednesday, March 19, at high noon the marriage of Miss Katherine A. Glen and Mr. A. S. Kerry, of Seattle, was celebrated Mrs. Anna Irwin Fisher, who has been 311 Morrison Street at the home of the bride's parents, in Dayton, Or. The rooms were decorated with evergreens, ferns, and a profusion of rare and beautiful flowers. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present. To the strains of the Swedish wedding march, played by Miss Grace/Barrager, of Seattle, the bride and groom took their places at the altar, the bride being attended by Miss Faye Swick, of Dayton, and the groom by Mr. Charles E. Patten, of Seattle. The bridal robe was of white silk muli, over white silk peau de soie, trimmed in embroidered chiffon. The bride's veil was caught in place by bride roses, of which flowers was composed the bride's bouquet. The Rev. John Glen, father of the bride, assisted by President H. L. Boardman, of McMinnville College, was the officiating elergyman, Having received the congratulations of those present, Mr. and Mrs. Kerry departed, after the wedding breakfast, on their wedding tour through California.

Miss Estelle King has been visiting friends in Astoria.

C. G. Field, of Cincinnati, O., is in the city for a few days. Charles Kahn, of Bolse City, is visiting relatives in the city. Miss Grace Bloodgood is visiting Miss Lulu Holmes at Eugene.

James Atchison, of Oskaloosa, Ia., is isiting relatives in the city. Mrs. J. T. Bowen has gone to Kallspell. Mont., to visit her children for a fer

Mrs. William Kapus and family have moved to 201 North Twenty-third street, corner Kearney. Edward R. Davies, one of Eugene's popular young men, visited Portland last week, returning home on Friday. Miss Jessie Crandall, of Elmira, N. Y., will spend the year with her uncie, Lon DeYarmond, 425% Jefferson street.

Mrs. George H. Wiser, of San Diego, Cal., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert E. Butterfield, of $15 Kearney street. The many friends of Mrs. H. C. Brandes will be pleased to hear that she is improving, after an illness of two months. Captain Theo H. Eckerson, United States Army, started for Los Angeles, Saturday, panied by his wife. A. B. West returned home last Thursday night after a six months' visit with relatives and friends in Illinois. Miss Gien is well known in Oregon mu-sical and educational circles, where she won for herself an enviable reputation as and daughter, leave today for a visit of ............

BRAVE BOY

TRINITY

CHURCH

Formerly

PROPERTY

Gustave Cramer,

In the Choir.

Gustave Cramer, who showed great presence of mind last Monday at the fire which damaged

the Trinity Protestant

Episcopal Church, when he plunged through the smoke and saved the gold cross carried at the head of the sur-pliced choir, and also assisted in saving the altar and cloths. He sang in Trinity choir for five years, until his voice changed, and then he was relegated to the congregation until he can blomom out as tenor or bass. He was in the neighborhood of the fire when it broke out and he placed a wet handkerchief over his face, and succeeded in saving a portion of the imperiled property. The congregation are grateful to him for his timely work.

of his parents.

week.

At the Woman's Union.

the Union Friday evening

ne of the week's new comers.

summons of lilness in her family,

Exclusively for Ladies.

Not a spring opening through the window, but I will open my new store, 311 Morrison street, Friday morning,

March 28, 8 o'clock, with a complete line of high-class and medium-priced

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Clocks

and Silverware, etc.

man in Western Washington, with large many years at Newport, She is a gradu-ste of St. Helen's Hall, and has a wide Sigel-Trittnek.

mony, Mr. and Mrs. Sigel led the march to the banquet table, which was sumptu-ously set. Following the dinner, dancing Wedding Anniversaries.

ALBANY, March 22.—The 50th anniver-sary of the marriage of Hon. and Mrs.

Allen Parker was celebrated at Toledo

Tuesday in a quiet manner. Allen Par-ker and Julia A. Umphrey were married at Burlington, Ia., in 1852, and came to Oregon in that year, actiling in Linn County, where Mr. Parker engaged in farming, running a saw mill and a ware-house. He was elected Sheriff in 1872 and Mayor of Albany in 1878. In 1878 he moved to Benton County, and in 1880 and 1882 was elected to the state Legislature. Four children are crominent in their home towns, W. H. prominent in their home towns, W. H. Parker, of the Princville Journal; Mrs. A.

J. McMillan, of Vancouver, B. C.: Mrs. A.

B. Hughes, of Astoria; Mrs. Virgil Par-ker, of Albany, and Frank Parker, of VANCOUVER, Wash., March 22-Mr.

and Mrs. C. W. Slocum, two of the best-known ploneers of Vancouver, celebrated their 40th wedding auniversary at their home in this city Tuesdays Among their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Jaggy, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brown, William C. Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Knowles,

Mr. and Mrs. George Gumbert announce the engagement of their daughter Flora

The Junior Bachelors have issued invitations for a dancing party to be given at Parsons Hall on Friday, April 4, Mra. Hubert Holman, Mrs. William Harder and Mrs. Charles Hilton will act as patron-the East, but this will be the first one

The marriage of Miss Fannic Henrietta

Rosenblatt and Mr. George W. Simon will be solemnized Tuesday, April 8, at 4 o'clock, at the family residence, 141 Tenth street.

The sailor lads of the Third Division.

The members of the Young People's Club are planning a dancing party for April 11.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

from the East.

Mrs. Helen Ladd-Corbett has returned to Mr. Karvey Sugarman

circle of friends throughout the state,

John M. Booth, one of the popular young | next Wednesday.

March 11. Mr. Booth belongs to a pioneer | Southern Railroad, exclusively for the use of ladies. The management has engaged the services of management has engaged the services of the most competent women attendants, not only for the baths, but also for pri-vate hairdressing and manicuring. Polite attendance and decorous conduct will be the keynote of the success of these baths in the future. The use of the baths will be limited to the natronage of proper peothe keynote of the success of mess better in the future. The use of the baths will be limited to the patronage of proper peo-ple only. The assurance is given in the most positive manner by the new man-agement that the baths will be run in a way that will demand the best recognition of the leading Portland families.

WHO SAVED

"Old Ladies' Home" Benefit.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Curtis, he annual tea will be held on Easter Monday, March 31, from 2 to 5 P. M., at the "Flobart-Curtis," for the benefit of the "Old Ladies' Home Society." The ladies of the society hope to be as successful as of yore in raising funds to provide for the old ladies in their charge. The public is cordially invited.

There are others, but Centemeri kid gloves are the best, fit the best, wear the best, and are the most stylish. Received a shipment of 100 dozen yesterday. All the new shades for Easter. P. E. Brigham, Seventh and Washington, sole agent.

H. B. Litt. Celebrated Stratton's garments,

Special low prices will be made this week on all Easter millinery. Mrs. M. Patterson, 153 North Seventeenth street.

OREGON.

Salem. Mrs. F. E. DeParcy spent the week visiting relatives in Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, of Gervais, were in the city Thursday evening. Mrs. T. T. Geer spent the latter part of the week visiting relatives in Astoria. Blahop and Mrz. H. L. Barkley have returned from a month's visit in Califor

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Settlemier, of Wood-burn, were guests of Salem friends this Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Willis, of Port-spent several days in Salem this Miss Minta Guiss of Woodburn vis. ited Mrs. E. C. Pation, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Scott and Miss Mary Scott were Portland visitors the latter part of the week. Miss Leona Hirsch returned this week from an extended visit with relatives in Portland.

Mies Grace Catlin, of Burlington, Kan., is in the city visiting at the home of her brother, Russell Catlin.

The Capital City Galety Club gave a dancing party at its hall in the Tioga Block Wednesday evening,

T. W. Bishop, of Bloomington, Ill., is a guest of Mayor and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, He is a brother of Mayor Bishop. Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, of Sodaville, were in the city this week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson. Mrs. A. Merriman has gone to her home in Elkhart, Ind., after a short visit with her son, W. Merriman, Southern Pacific freight agent, in this city.

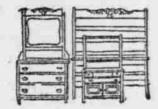

Mrs. G. W. Johnson and Mrs. M. C. Smith gave a double birthday party at the home of the former on Thursday, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Smith are sisters. Mrs. Nellie Guston, of Portland, presi dent of the state assembly of the Re-bekahs, was in Salem Monday to pay an official visit to the local branch of that

The members of the Salem Press Club were guests of the management of Cor-dray's Grand Opera-House Thursday evening when "The Christian" was the attraction. The members of the club occu-pted the boxes and enjoyed a very pleasa contraito soloist and teacher of music. a month in San Francisco and Southern She was at different times connected with California.

This bedroom suit is the very best hardwood, golden oak finish, large French bevel plate mirror, top drawers, swell; regular price, $25.00; this week,

$17.50

Unrivaled Values in Bedroom Suits

Three cars Bedroom Suits from Shower Bros., Bloomington, Ind. Just received. These suits were bought for cash, at an extremely low figure.

To dispose of these goods quickly, we offer this week these wonderfully low prices. * We sell on easy terms. * Your credit is good.

polish finest, large French bevel mirror, top drawers, swell, regular $35.00; this

$27.50

MATTING PRICES THAT ALMOST PASS BELIEF

We have overbought on mattings, and must dispose of safine at once; hence these prices. Linen-warp matting, extra fine straw, carpet patterns, regular 22½c yard

China matting, extra heavy, seamless, 124c yard,

Sacritice in Best Clocks Our entire at remarkprices,

Pris handsome Ingraham clock, S-day, strikes hour and half-hour, movement warranted, perfect timekeeper, solid oak case, beautifully carved. If inches in height, 15 inches wide. This clock is cold by all jewelers at $5.00; our price this week only; one to each customer,

WE WANT YOUR CARPET TRADE

offering wonderfully low prices to get it.

Excellent wearing Brussels, in a wide variety of patterns, he per yard.

All-wood ingrain, best grade made, the party of the part

DANN GO-CARTS

Dann adjustable go-carts; the eastest unning; the strongest eart made; 50 tyles, from $7.50 to $30.00. Curt like ut, neat body, rubber tires, best steel

$7.50 Write for catalogue

I. Gevurtz & Sons THE HOMEFURNISHERS 173-175 First St., N.W. Cor. Yamhill

ers of the local order of Artisans. The and listening to a brief programme of literary and musical numbers. Light re-freshments were served.

A message received in this city Thursday announces the engagement of Mr. Sol Tichner, junior member of the dry goods firm of Bamberger & Tichner, of this city, to Miss Nettle Held, a prominent young society lady of San Fran-vading party, and a most enjoyable evening was passed with music and cards, closing with an elegant luncheon. Marion A. Butler, on behalf of the gentlemen present, made the presentation of a beautiful sofa pillow in burnt leather. Will-iam A. Weatherby was voted toastmaster, and a response was given by C. W.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Burke entertained a few friends at the Poplars in honor of St. Patrick, Monday evening.

of their wedding. The reins of the house- entrance to the drawing-room and under evening was spent in social conversation, hold were willingly resigned to the in- this harp Judge and Mrs. Burke greeted their guests as they entered. In advance of the regular programme of exercises, Judge Burke gave a brief but interesting account of his travels in the Emerald Isle some years ago. Dainty refreshments were served. The sandwiches were tied with green ribbon, and the fruit salad was mingled with green.

At 6 o'clock Tuesdar, Mr. and Mrs. William Weatherby entertained at an informal dinner a few lady and gentlemen friends. The dining-room was nicely decant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Lack were surLast Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. prised by a number of their friends last rations were all in green. A beautiful the guests were: Mrs. M. E. Andrews, smilax harp was suspended above the Miss Lois Stewart, Messrs, A. M. Kelty,

The W. B. is built just as you are built. The lines of your figure Erect Form blend with the lines of the corset—that means absolute fit unbelievable comfort-and most-important of all, perfect health. The Erect Form does not strain the bust or abdomen. The pressure of lacing is put upon the strong back muscles, throwing the shoulders into a surpassingly graceful poise. There is a special Erect Form made just for you. Erect Form 962 for stout figures. Long

Erect Forms 973 and 701 for medium figures. Fairly low-busted-medium hip. Of sterling jean or black sateen. Trimmed with lace and baby ribbon. Sizes 18 to 30. Erect Form 974 is the same as above, but is made of fine quality coutil. Sizes 18

Erect Form 959 Improved, for average figures. Made of French coutil or black sateen; trimmed with lace and baby ribbon. Sizes 18 to 36. $2.00.

Leoct Form 966 for full developed fig-ures. Made of French coutil or black lasting cloth. Low bust and long hip. Sizes 18 to 36. $3.00.

over abdomen and hips; short from waistline up. Of French coutil or black serge, trimmed with lace and baby ribbon. $2.50. Erect Form 970 for medium figures.

Made like 973. Of light, durable batiste. In white only, trimmed with lace and ribbon. Sizes 18 to 30. $1.00.

Erect Form 972 in white batiste only. For medium developed figures. Has extreme low "V" bust. Long over hips and abdomen. Trimmed with a wide band ribbon. Sizes 18 to 30. $1.50.

SPECIAL! The New Long Hip Erect Form. The corset is of good length, and extra pieces reach down and case in the hips, producing a sloping effect. Two models are now ready. They will fit the Erect Form 711 at $2.00 each # Erect Form 713 at $4.00 each

Your dealer will supply you. If he does not carry the model you desire, mention his name and forward the price direct to

Weingarten Bros., of Corsets in the World

377-379 Broadway, 'NEW YORK

No other Corset can take the place of the W. B. Erect Form. Accept no substitute.

She was at different times connected with Pacific College and McMinnville College, at the head of the musical interests in Monday morning in the arrival of her son, C. H. Freeman, from Manila, after an one of four years. Mrs. Nat G. Kaufman, of Juneau, Alasinterests in milling and mining properties in Seattle.

Booth-Booth.

Booth-Booth.

Booth-Booth.

Booth-Booth. business men of Grant's Pass, and Miss

Alice Booth, daughter of the late Rev.
Charks Booth, of the Episcopal Church, were married at Grant's Pass on Tuesday.

Manual Man March 11. Mr. Booth belongs to a pioneer | Southern Railroad. | family, and is a nephew of State Senator | Mrs. A. B. Miller has returned from Robert A. Booth, He received his education at the University of Oregon, and is now connected with the Sugar Pine Door & Lumber Company. The bride resided for and was buried in Mason City, the home of the parents. Mrs. Nina Larowe's dancing party, at her pretty hall last Friday night, was well Sigel-Trittack. attended, and there were some new danc-Last Sunday evening the marriage of crs present, who added interest to the Nathan Sigel and Miss Mary Trittick was solemnized at the G. A. R. Hall, Rev. Dr. N. Mosessohn officiating. After the cere-Miss E. R. Growell was a visitor at Miss M. J. Reld, of Denver, Colo., is Miss Ottilia Eklund, of Chinook, Wash., vas one of this week's transients. Miss Grace E. Lower, of Oregon City, Miss Adeline Ridders, of Albany, has taken up her residence at the Union this Miss Bertha Williams, teacher at the St. Johns School, was a guest of the Union over Tuesday night. Miss G. Eric left on Tuesday morning for San Francisco, in answer to a hasty Miss Margaret Tone, of Netarts, Or., a teacher in one of the East Side schools, is making her home at the Union. The Hammam Baths, 300 Oregonian building, have recently changed hands, The new management announces to the ladies of Portland that the parlors have just been entirely refitted and refurnished, and they are today the best appointed Turkish or Russian bathrooms on the In the future the Hammam Baths in the Oregonian building will be reserved A SPRING OPENING Fritz Abendroth, 311 Morrison Street, opp. Postoffice 207 First St., bet. Taylor & Salmon