

TYPES OF ARISTOCRATIC DOGS

WHICH WILL BE SEEN AT THE BENCH SHOW.

Umatilla Queen

Oregon's Jessie II

Fax Jingo

Laddie W

BUMMER

Champ Aiden Artist

COLONEL

TONY H

Champ Count Mack

TONY'S HOP

KALO

At the Portland Bench Show, April 16-19, will be seen over 400 of the finest dogs on the Pacific Coast. On this page are shown types of the dogs that will be on exhibit, as follows:

Whitestone, pointer, owned by A. B. Jackson, of Spokane.

Umatilla Queen, pointer bitch, owned by F. P. Wamsley, of Pendleton.

Oregon's Jessie II, pointer bitch, owned by F. P. Wamsley, of Pendleton.

Fax Jingo, pointer, owned by F. J. Moore, of Salem.

Laddie W., pointer, owned by Charles H. Carter, of Pendleton.

Sani, Japanese spaniel bitch, owned by U. G. Scott, of Portland.

Bummer, mastiff, mascot of Company D, Second Oregon, owned by T. T. Nelson, of Pendleton.

Kalo, black cocker spaniel, owned by Nelson A. Loucks, of Portland.

Black Victor, cocker spaniel, owned by Portland Cocker Kennels.

Champion Aiden Artist, fox terrier, owned by Rev. J. W. Filston, of Victoria, B. C.

Tony's, Yorkshire terrier, owned by O. G. Scott, of Portland.

Colonel, St. Bernard, owned by C. W. Fulton, of Astoria.

Tony H., English setter, owned by Wm. O'Malley.

Champion Count Mack, Irish setter, owned by T. J. A. Tiedemann, of Portland.

Tony's Hop, English setter, owned by E. B. Davis, of Portland.

Donald, Scotch collie, owned by Henry W. Metzger, of Portland.