DELAY ON CAPITOL

Work on Washington Building Shut D. wn.

CONTRACTOR GIVES THE ORDER

Reason Therefor Is Not Known-Now Certain Structure Will Not Be Completed When Next Legislature Meets.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 12.-Orders were received today by Superintendent Haise from the headquarters of the Goss Construction Company, at Tacoma, to suspend work entirely on the State Capitol It is understood the shut-down will continue at least 50 days. The exact cause of the order is not known, but it is understood to be due to failure to get satisfactory replies from the Iron manufacturers in Chicago. It is now apparent that the building cannot be completed by the time the next Legislature meete, and it will be fortunate if even the halls of the House and Senate are ready for

MAN TO GREET IMMIGRANTS. Albany Will Have a Representative

at Spokane. ALBANY, Or., April 12.—A large num-ber of new-comers have been in this city looking over the field for a new nome, and several well-to-do people have bought farms and settled here and are influencing others in this direction. Real estate trans-actions have been the liveliest here for 10 years. Realizing the importance of reaching the large number at their entrance into the Northwest, the city has sent a representative to Spokane to work with the many stopping there on their arrival.

New Indictment in Murder Case. ST. HELENS, Or., April 12-Today was the time set for August Schievie to plead to the charge of murder in connection with the death of Joseph Shulkowski. A motion to quash the information was filed by his attorney, on the grounds that the information did not state that the de-ceased was shot in any particular place, and because of the shooting the deceased did die. Before this motion was ruled on, the District Attorney moved to quash the information on the ground that the name of the deceased was misspelled. The motion was granted, and the District Attorney was allowed to file a new in-dictment. Monday, May 19, was set for the day of trial. August Schlevie, the defendant, is kept in Multhomah County Jail, Columbia County having no fit place for the safekeeping of criminals. The crime was committed December 26, on a lonely mountain road, seven miles west of

Work of Church Conference.

DALLAS, Or., April 12.-At the annual conference of the United Evangelical Lewisville was granted a license preach. The annual report of Presiding Elder C. C. Poling showed good progress in all departments. The year has also been a prosperous one for Dallas College. The conference is proving one of the most interesting ever held in the state.

For Supervisor of Reserve. NORTH YAKIMA, April 12.-Dr. W. H. Hare, of this city, has been notified by the delegation at Washington that he had been recommended for appointment as Supervisor of the Eastern Park of the Rainier Reserve, a position which will be worth about $2000 a year. The place was held iast year by R. K. Nichols, but it is understood that Mr. Nichols will be given another one as good. Dr. Hare was an applicant for the position of In-dian Agent at Fort Simco. It is understood that Senator Foster and Repre sentative Jones have come to an agree-ment to reappoint Mr. Lynch, the present Accidentally Shoots Himself. MARSHFIELD, Or., April 12.—J. W. Jumper accidentally shot himself at the Libby coal mines, about noon today. He called at the residence of Mr. Oldlands, and while there picked up a new hammerlest shotgun which was standing in the corner, to examine it. He was in the act of replacing the gun when he struck the floor with the butt end and it exploded. The charge of shot took effect in the side of his head and he died Mr. Jumper leaves quite a incumbent at the fort.

CONTRACTS BERRY CROP

SALEM FRUITGROWERS' UNION SELLS 1902 PRODUCT.

Man Getting It Will Have to Build a Cannery-Union Will Employ a Manager.

SALEM, April 12.—At a meeting this afternoon in this city, the Salem Fruit-growers' Union voted to contract its 1902 crop of strawberries to O. V. Allen, a local canneryman, for 3% cents per pound for the best canning berries, such as Wilson, Ideal, Ruby and Clark's Seed-lings, and 2½ to 3 cents per pound for other varieties. Mr. Allen will enter into a contract with members of the union to take their entire product at those rates. The strawberry acreage represent-ed in the membership of the union is over 100 acres, and all conditions are favorable for a record-breaking crop. Mr. Allen, who will contract for the crop, exmen from some strawberry center to in-struct glowers in the details of putting up the pack in first-class shape. E. Hofer, a member of the board of directors, read a statement of the devel-opment of the strawberry industry at Fiorin, Sacramento County, California, where there are this year 490 acres under sultivation, and from which 180,000 crates will be shipped. As many more acres are put out and will come into bearing next year. By the use of fertilizers, as high as 1320 crates had been taken from an acre. Land that formerly paid the owner $1 an acre rent for hay or grain crops now paid $5 an acre rent for strawberries.

Mr. Hofer made a plea that growers this year make sacrifices in order to put up a gilt-edge pack, and thus in a single season establish the reputation of Salem as a berry-shipping center, and in a few years there would be 3000 persons employed here in the picking season, as

An Oregon Pioneer of 1853. John Luper, who died at his home near Tangent, Or., March 29, was an Oregon ploneer of 1853. He was born November 10, 1824, near Pittsburg, Pa. Belinquent Tax Sale.

ASTORIA, April 12.—The sale of all the property on the old delinquent tax list was completed today by the Sheriff, but how much will be realized by the sale will not be known for several days, as it will require some time to balance the books. In many instances the property sold for more than the original tax and costs, but much of it went for less, Much of the property was purchased by speculators, who evidently expect the original owners to redeem the property and pay a liberal interest on the purchase price.
