IDE LOSES THE FIGHT
Nomination for Collector Will Be Recalled.

FOSTER IS TO HAVE HIS WAY

WASHINGTON, April 8.—There are two books that are to be read extensively by the legislators and United States Congressmen. One is "Kiss of the Leaf" by Willa Cather, and the other is "Carmack Carriage," by Elmer Clancy. Both are history books, and the United States Congressmen will find them both interesting and informative.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Senate has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new courthouse in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Senator John Smith, and it was passed by a vote of 30 to 20.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The House has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new high school in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Representative John Doe, and it was passed by a vote of 60 to 30.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Senate has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new hospital in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Senator Jane Smith, and it was passed by a vote of 30 to 20.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The House has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new library in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Representative Jane Doe, and it was passed by a vote of 60 to 30.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Senate has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new park in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Senator John Smith, and it was passed by a vote of 30 to 20.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The House has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new theater in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Representative Jane Doe, and it was passed by a vote of 60 to 30.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The Senate has passed a bill to authorize the construction of a new stadium in Seattle. The bill was introduced by Senator Jane Smith, and it was passed by a vote of 30 to 20.