EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
The delegates to the meeting of the Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs, which met in this city during the week, were given a reception on Thursday evening at Parsons Hall by the Portland City Federation, which consists of the Women's Club, the Council of Jewish Women, the Teachers' Club, the Kindergarten Association, and the Tuesday Afternoon Club. About 600 people attended the reception, which was a very pleasant social event. Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell was the chairman of the committee of arrangements, and the other ladies who received were: Mrs. T. T. Geer, Mrs. E. J. Dockery, of Boise; Mrs. C. B. Wade, president of the State Federation; Mrs. Childs, of Roseburg, who is vice-president; Mrs. Dunaway, Mrs. Davis, of Union; Mrs. Julia Marquam, president of the Portland Club; Dr. Mae Cardwell, Mrs. Plowman, Miss Rouns, Mrs. Newman and Miss Lutte Calkins. Ice and confections were served at tables decorated in red, white and blue, the Federation colors. Under the direction of Mrs. W. Wynn Johnson, Mrs. Werlein, Mrs. Wager, Mrs. Germann, Mrs. Oppenheimer and Miss Abbot, who were assisted by a bevy of pretty girls in dainty evening gowns.

Mrs. Rockwell wore a strikingly handsome costume of cream grenadine over tulle with applique of cream lace and black chantilly; Mrs. Geer was regally handsome in a black and white; Mrs. Dockery was gowned in pearl gray silk trimmed with silver passementerie; Mrs. Dunaway wore a handsome black silk gown with duchesse lace; Mrs. Marquam wore a very pretty gown of black and white silk, and Mrs. Childs was very beautiful in a gown of soft white wool. Besides the numerous handsome reception toilettes some exceptionally pretty tailor gowns, worn with picture hats, were seen.

Camp Harrington, No. 20, Spanish-American Legion, gave a smoker to help the initiation of General O. Summers, Captain Sanford Whiting, and a number of men from the various regiments which served in the Spanish-American War, also three men from the battle-ship Oregon. The camp is doing some very good work taking care of the sick, and also those out of employment, having a relief committee composed of T. J. Dunbar, W. Wilson, E. Jaques and J. J. Kennedy, also an employment committee composed of General O. Summers, E. W. Moore and O. H. Wells. General Summers, in the course of his remarks, said that it was very gratifying to see the way the O. R. & N. Co., the Northern Pacific Railway, Southern Pacific Company and City & Suburban Railway and several of the mercantile houses have responded when called upon to give work to the veterans of the Spanish-American War. At the present time the camp has succeeded in placing at least 20 men from the Eastern regiments, also from the Navy, all of whom speak in the highest terms of the hospitality of the people of Oregon, and the climate, and will no doubt be the means of bringing a great many more. Mr. Dooley, of the 20th Kansas Regiment, said that he had seen by the evening papers that his old Colonel, General Funston, had been ordered to say nothing and to keep his mouth shut, so he thought he would do the same.

On last Tuesday evening the Fidelity Minstrel Troupe tendered a surprise to their musician, Miss Lillian Walter, at her home 23 Lexington street. Vocal and instrumental music was the entertainment of the evening, after which the merry troupe were served with a sumptuous repast. Mr. Carroll Johnson, in a brief toast and in behalf of the troupe presented Miss Walter with a beautifully engraved silver fern dish. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Howe, Miss Walter, Miss M. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. George Vedder, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. May Hazel Vedder, Mr. C. Steadman, Mr. Theodore Essar.

The members of the Eta Chapter, Delta Iota Chi, were delightfully entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Semele Groat, at 717 East Burnside street. The principal part of the evening was merily occupied with charades and music, after which a dainty and delicious supper was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Edinah Pike, Lila Bachelor, Ethel Pike, Bess De Bevoise, Marian Chase, Ethel Shea, May Bachelor, Edna De Bevoise, Ethel Allen, Hattie Ward, Semele Groat, Jane Owen; Messrs. Harry Nicholas, Sam Holbrook, Robert Scott, William Dams, Robert W. Hutchins, Aleck De France, Ed Jorgensen, Bert Staver, Timothy Wood, Jay Upton, George Eastman, Guy Thatcher.

The Holiday Whist Club was pleasantly entertained on last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hitchcock, at their home, 37 East Eleventh street North, it being the last meeting of this season. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haller, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Milo Kirkpatrick, Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jager, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hyland, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Greene, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Miss A. M. Knapp, Miss Arnold, Miss Zoila Hitchcock, Mr. Robert Kennedy, Mr. Ray Nicolai, Mr. Smith, Mr. E. E. Farrington. The prizes were won by Mrs. L. A. Brown and Mr. E. J. Jager.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Camp Hampton Spanish War Veterans, met at the residence of Mrs. C. Gutzmacher, Friday, April 25, and were invited into the National organization, being the first auxiliary on the Pacific coast. Following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. T. Bodley; senior vice-president, Mrs. Miles Bell; junior vice-president, Mrs. William Harder; secretary, Mrs. Albert J. Paul; treasurer, Mrs. L. W. Pratt; chaplain, Mrs. D. McDonnell; conductor, Miss Etta Fletcher; guard, Miss Daisy Freeman; sentinel, Miss Jennie Hampton.

The open meeting of the Forestry Association at the home of the president, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, at 355 Haslam street on last Monday, was very well attended, and the afternoon was spent in a very pleasant way in the study of Oregon native trees. Mr. M. W. Gorman talked on this subject in a most entertaining style, illustrating his address with specimens of the different varieties of the cone-bearing trees for which Oregon is famous. Miss Edna Protzman was present, and sang very charmingly, "Good Night, Sweet Dreams," by Bishop, and as an encore sang "Forgotten," by Cowles. Colonel Hawkins and Mr. Gorman, each of whom has made a study of the Oregon forest trees, have promised to be present at the next meeting of the Forestry Association, and as this meeting is to be held in Macleay Park, the members are looking forward with much interest to this opportunity to study the trees from life. The officers of the association are as follows: Mrs. Breyman, president; Mrs. Henry E. Hepper, vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Fritchard, secretary.

Mrs. T. H. Edwards gave a charming shower party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Seventh street, in honor of Miss Mabel Strowbridge, who was married last evening to Mr. Harry M. Calkins. Each guest brought a dainty gift for the fiancée, who has been very popular among a large circle of friends. Those present were: Miss Mabel Strowbridge, Miss Lutte Calkins, Mrs. A. MacCorquodale, Mrs. W. M. Calkins, Miss Katherine Cronin, Miss Leo Kisterman, Mrs. Meek, Mrs. Charles Packard, Miss Gibbs, Mrs. B. E. Wright, Mrs. Richard Martin, Miss Florence Brownell, Mrs. E. J. Jaeger and Mrs. T. H. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Root entertained the Merry Burnside's Whist Club in a charming manner on Thursday evening, April 17, at their home, 63 East Ankeny street. The house had been decorated for the occasion with masses of evergreen, and wild current, artistically arranged in Indian baskets. In the dining-room, where refreshments were served, the decorations consisted of a very pretty arrangement of wild flowers. The first prizes were won by Mrs. C. V. Cooper and Mr. J. D. Leonard.

On May 9, a play, "P's and Q's, or How a Little Faith Changed Many Faults," written by one of their number, will be presented by the students of St. Helen's Hall. The play has four acts, is laid about the middle of the 17th century and has for its main interest the persecution of the Quakers by the Puritans. The circumstances of the situation is relieved by the advent of a party of gay Virginians from the South. The costumes are faithful to the tradition of the times. Doors open at 8 P. M.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the party which the King's Daughters, of Trinity Church, are arranging to give at Parsons Hall on Wednesday evening, April 27. Refreshments and dancing, which is to be a feature of the Guy Talmage, of Portland, was married to Miss Pauline Shelley, of Hood River, the Rev. Troy Shelley, father of the bride, performing the ceremony. The church was a bower of evergreen and wild flowers and presented a charming appearance. The organist played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, preceded by the little flower girl, Miss Nellie Shelley. The bride looked exceedingly pretty in a white gown with veil held in place with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of the same fragrant blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Marguerite Shelley, wore a charmingly girlish costume of white, with blue ribbons. The groom was attended by Percy Shelley, brother of the bride. A wedding reception was held during the afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, and after receiving the congratulations of their friends, the young couple left for the Dalles and Portland, accompanied by a party of intimate friends. They received a large number of handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Talmage will be at home after May 15, at 671 East Main street, Portland.

Garland-Terry.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Beakey, when Miss Caille E. Terry, sister of Mrs. Beakey, was married to Robert D. Garland, of St. Paul, Minn. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives and friends. The Rev. William Gilbert, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church, officiated. The parlors were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns, Oregon grape and flowers. At the sound of the Wedding March, played by Miss Ella E. Jones, the bridal party entered and took their place under a canopy of flowers. Rev. E. Dennett acted as bridesmaid, and H. W. Vicks as best man. The bride was dressed in pearl gray crepe de chine, and carried a handsome bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was attired in cream-colored tulle, and carried a similar bouquet. After congratulations, refreshments

PROMINENT SOCIETY COUPLE WEDS

MR. AND MRS. H. M. CALKINS.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at half past 6 o'clock on Saturday evening, April 23, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Justus M. Strowbridge, 737 Seventh street, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mabel Strowbridge, to Harry M. Calkins. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of the First Presbyterian Church, and was witnessed only by relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride was very daintily gowned in white tulle, with bodice decoration of pale blue and the serpentine skirt elaborately tucked. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and wore in her hair a bunch of orange blossoms, which had been sent from Arizona. The house decorations were very beautiful. In the parlor the flowers used were white lilies and clematis, combined with ferns. The decorations in the hall consisted of a very artistic arrangement of Scotch broom in Indian baskets, while the stairway was banked with masses of Oregon grape. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the dining-room, where the decorations were also very pretty, a great many pink and white carnations being used on the table, while against the walls were arranged sprays of pink wild current. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins departed on the evening train for San Francisco, and after a visit of about a month in California and Honolulu, they will be at home at the Hotel Fortland.
