entire evening, other amusements will be provided. In the shape of the popular game of ping-pong. Parsons orchestra will supply music for the affair, and ice cream and lemonade will be served by a number of charming and popular young ladies.

On Saturday afternoon, April 19, Mrs. Edward Kiehl gave a very pleasant whist party, at her home on Hawthorne avenue. Sixteen hands of whist were played, the first prize being won by Mrs. W. G. Kerns and the booty by Mrs. W. M. Patterson. A half-hour was spent in an interesting literary guessing contest. "Noted Men." The first prize for a complete set of answers was awarded to Mrs. N. L. Hingley and the booty to Mrs. W. Braden, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Heller entertained the Union Club, and the husbands of the members, on Wednesday evening, at their home on Mason street. The house was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, tulips and hyacinths. Mr. Heller entertained the company with selections on the phonograph, while they played high five. Mrs. W. J. Fullam and Mr. Henry Billings, of Chicago, were the first prizes; Mrs. Heller and Mr. F. C. Peterson the consolation prizes.

The band of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, gave a military hop at the Armory on Wednesday evening. The hall was very elaborately decorated with evergreens and potted palms, besides a large number of American flags. Even the orchestra played delightfully throughout the evening, and dancing was continued until after midnight. The committee of arrangement was as follows: J. H. Everett, J. M. Coomer, F. A. Brickell, William McGinnis, and E. L. Irvine.

Mrs. R. P. Graham entertained the Irvington High Five Club last Tuesday afternoon, at her home on East Twelfth street. The apartments were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and flowers. After an enjoyable game of high five, dainty refreshments were served. The first prize was won by Mrs. George Bell; the second prize was awarded to Mrs. George Green, and the guests' prize was carried away by Mrs. De La Hunt.

Otto Kleemann and wife celebrated their silver wedding at their home on East Fourteenth and Belmont streets, Saturday evening. There were about 30 of the intimate friends to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Kleemann on the happy event. The evening was pleasantly spent. Many handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Kleemann are old residents of the East Side, and they have many friends all over the city.

Miss Anna Wilson was unexpectedly surprised Saturday evening, April 19, at her home, 12 Twelfth street, by a jovial party of friends. Dancing to sweet strains of music, the singing of a few favorite songs, followed by delightful refreshments constituted the pleasing programme during the evening. The various compartments were tastefully and dexterously decorated.

One of the daintiest, most enjoyable parties of the waning season was that given by the Bohemians, Friday night, at Parson's Hall. About 30 couples attended, and the unadorned floor made dancing a pleasure. Eighteen dances were on the card, composed exclusively of waltzes and two-steps. The patronesses were: Mrs. S. B. Forbes and Mrs. A. B. Crossman.

East Side people are a good deal interested in the amusing "Old Maids' Convention," to be given Tuesday night at Mission Presbyterian Church. Those who are to take part are: Misses Ivy Scott, Esther Neal, Stella Coddington, Agnes Kelly, Mary Kelle, Maldon Kelly, Nellie Hawkins, Amanda Kessling, Gusta Backe, Lizzie Morrow, Emma Howatson, Etta Morrow, Carrie Johnston, and Lulu Peterson. Ralph Kelly and Harold Shaver are also to appear. The one scene will be the antique sitting-room in the house of "Jerusha Matilda Spriggins."

The employees of the Phoenix Iron Works tendered Mr. Martin Touhey, the retiring foreman, a pleasant surprise last Wednesday evening, at his home. The machinists presented Mr. Touhey with a set of squares, as a token of their esteem. Some of the features of the evening were: The presentation speech by Mr. John Austin; a Russian ballad, sung by Mr. Victor Neland; and the toast, by Mr. Martin Gearheart. Light refreshments were served, and an enjoyable musicale made a pleasant evening for all who attended.

A most delightful surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. John W. McGregor, at their residence, 227 Larrabee street, last Friday evening, the eighth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was spent in playing cards and listening to music, after which a sumptuous repast was served.

Mrs. H. T. Page, who will soon move to her new home at Riverdale, was given a most pleasant surprise at her residence, 215 McMillan street, last Monday afternoon, by the ladies of the Sans Souci Whist Club, of which she is a member.

A farewell luncheon was served Monday at Mrs. W. Walker's, 426 East Twelfth street, in honor of Mrs. J. C. Cromie, who is soon to depart for Winnipeg, her present home. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Among the pleasant social events of the coming week will be a stag social and smoker given by Company G, Third Infantry, at their quarters in the Armory, on Saturday evening.
