other big cash prizes without labor or expense. Who knows but what the three words this rebus spells is mentioned in this advertisement? Therefore read it through very carefully, During the past two years, it will be remembered, we advered what were considered she biggest contests ever published The cash prizes amounted to over $75,000, and the names of the fizewinners will be sent upon request. Just stop and think for or one moment what grand cash prizes these were—three people were made happy and independent for life by having an annuity awarded to them.

Now, if you were so foolish as to ignore all of our previous advertisements, we certainly would advise you not to overlook this one, for without a doubt it is the opportunity of your life, as YOU HAVE A GOOD CHANCE TO WIN 2000 IN CASE. We want you to read this over very carefully, FOR IT DOES NOT COST YOU ONE CENT. One of these contests is, we believe, a very hard one—in fact, so hard that it cannot be solved in a minute or an hour, but is going to tax your brain and take considerable of your time. However, don't give it up; it can be solved, and just think of the reward.

WE WILL GIVE $2000 IN CASH FOR THE CORREST ANSWER TO THE REBUS WHICH WE DIDITISH IN THIS AD.

SWER TO THE REBUS WHICH WE PUBLISH IN THIS AD. VERTISEMENT, and which represents a well-known saying. We want to distinctly impress upon your mind that there is no trick or catch about this rebus, for it is a well-known quotation from Shakespeare, and one that we hear repeated a great many times. If you cannot find the three correct words this rebus spells, but find only one, you will receive a special prize worth $2. If you will send in your answer at once you will not be disappointed. Some one is going to win the money, and it may be you. ANYWAY, IT DOES NOT COST YOU ANY MONEY TO your answer is received.

We can truthfully say that this is the most difficult rebus that has ever appeared in print. The envelope containing the correct answer has been sealed and deposited with a leading safe-deposit Company in Boston, and will not be opened until after the close of the contest. This, we believe, is the only honest way of conducting a contest, as every one will have an equal chance. In the event of more than one correct answer being received, we will request five parties who have answered this advertisement to act as a committee to award the cash pro rata. They will be notified to will request five parties who have answered this advertisement to act as a committee to award the cash pro rata. They will be notified to come to Boston at our expense and be our guests while in this city. We take this original method of ours of selecting a committee to show our good faith, and as we want to treat all in the fairest manner possible. The committee will be selected solely upon their merits from among the contestants, and in addition to their expenses being paid we will allow each one $5.00 a day for their time. You may be asked, but not compelled to act as one of the committee.

The committee who decided our last contests were: Mrs. Anna C. Boyd, Seattle, Wash.; Miss Leila E. Cuthbert, Toronto, Can.; Mr. J. M. Conolly, Punto Gorda, Fia., and Mr. C. L. Baker, Bristol, R. L.; Edwin J. Seward, Worcester, Mass.; Edward C. Griscom, Birmingham, Ala; Samuel W. Davis, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. James W. Ryder, Chicago, Ill.; Miss L. Sterns, Dartmouth, N. S. In addition to the $2000 cash we will slice your an opertunity to win.

ARE OREGONIANS SMARTER THAN NEW YORKERS? This advertisement appeared in a leading New York Sunday paper on March 5, and was a fallure. Of course, we have no business to make comparisons, for at times they are odious. But we do, however, realize the fact that it is the most difficult three-word rebus ever published, and any one who is at all amart can solve it in two hours. If you are too old, your sons or daughters can solve it for you. Anyway, the prize is worth trying for. Then why not try? It costs you no money, and even if you do not succeed in getting the correct rebus answer, you may win one of the

FIRST PRIZE, $2000 IN CASH

Second Prize, $1000 in Cash; Third Prize, $750 in Cash; Fourth Prize, $500 in Cash Fifthprize $350; sixth prize $200; seventh prize $100; twenty prizes $50 each; twenty prizes WITHOUT LABOR of $25 each; twenty prizes of $15 each; twenty prizes of $10 each; fifty prizes of $5 each; two hundred prizes of $3 each; two hundred prizes of $2 each; five hundred prizes of $1 each OR EXPENSE

We are going to give to some one who has entered this contest and who complies with our easy conditions an opportunity to win and secure from us, without any labor or expense on their part, Two Thousand Dollars in cash. We mean just what we say. If you are the lucky one—and we hope you are, for some one will get it—we will send the winner Two Thousand Dollars in cash. Now, in addition to the cash prizes already mentioned, we are going to give away a second prize of $1000, a third prize of $1500, a forth prize of $500, a sixth prize of $200, a seventh prize of $100, 30 prizes of $300 each, 300 prizes of $150 each, ject. Every one entering this contest will receive honest treatment, and you will have the same chance whether you live in California, Canada or Massachusetts. Distance positively makes no difference. NO ONE CONNECTED, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, WITH THIS COMPANY WILL BE PERMITTED TO COMPETE FOR THESE PRIZES. Send your answer to us at once, Do not delay, as this advertisement will not appear in this publication again. Address us this way:

We will give $10,000 in cash to anyone, if they can prove that we have not paid the cash prizes to the parties whose names we advertise, or if they can prove that we ever knew or heard of these parties before they answered our advertisement. We offer this large cash reward in order to convince the public that they will always receive honest treatment from us.

I., and the Foreign Board of New York to b pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Manila among the Americans now in that city. There are now over 8000 Americans there, besides the Army. The Presbyterians have a large mission in Manila among the natives, started in '99. Upon being seen, Mr. Gilbert said that under existing circumstances he would not be are welcome. able to accept this call,

Dr. George C. Cressey, D. D., was formally installed Thursday night as pastor of the First Unitarian Church. This was the first installation service in the Unitarian Church since 1868, when Dr. T. I. Eliot began his ministry. Among prominent men present of other denominations were Rev. J. R. Wilson and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise. The greeting of the parishioners was given by W. P. Olds and G. G. Gammans. The charge to paster and people was delivered by Dr. T. L. Eliot, D. D., pastor emeritus. Rev. William R. Lord, a former minister, preached an eloquest sermon on "Citizenship in the World and the Universe." Dr. Wise spoke "A Word of Common Fellowship." Rev. Will-iam G. Eliot, Jr., of Salem, offered

The Unitarian Society in this city established in 1866. Dr. Ellot was the first pastor, and continued in active service for 25 years. He was followed by Rev. Earl M. Wilbur and Rev. William R. Lord. Dr. Cressey, who arrived in Portland November 1, 1901, was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1876, and studied one year in the graduate department of Yale University and a year at Leipsic. He was professor of modern languages at Wash burn College, Topeka, Kan., for two years after which he entered the Andover The-ological Seminary, from which institution he was graduated in 1884 with high hon-ors. From 1884 to 1896 he was pestor of the Unitarian Church at Bangor, Me., and from 1896 to 1896 occupied a like position at Salem, Mass. In 1894, Dr. Cressey re-ceived the degree of doctor of philosophy from Wooster University, Ohio, and five years later Bowdoin College honored him with the degree of doctor of divinity. He is regarded as one of the most scholarly men in the Unitarian Church.

Bishop B. Wister Morris has issued a letter addressed to the clergy and congregations of the Diocese of Gregon, calling attention to the general provision for a collection in all of the congregations, Whitsunday, for diocesan missions. In closing the blehop says:

"This is a work that is growing in its demands upon us in many parts of the diocese, whose inviting fields await our occurancy or where missions already existing pancy, or where missions already existing equire additional laborers and additional help in their support.

"There are at this time I2 missionaries receiving support in their work from out-side sources, from the general board or through funds raised by the Sishop in the East, without which it would be impossi-ble for them to continue their present work. All that the diocese has contributed this convention year to this depart-ment is the very moderate sum of 2257. The bishop begs the clergy to present this matter to their congregations by repeated instruction and exhortations until the time that this offering comes about—Whitsun-day, May 15—that they may be ready and glad to give generously and largely to this important work, according to the ability that God has given them, remembering those oft-repeated but oft-forgotten words, teenth and Quimby streets, the Rev. ### RECTOR OF CHURCH OF GOOD SHEPHERD

REV. HENRY D. CHAMBERS, WHO WAS INSTITUTED SUNDAY.

The Rev. Henry D. Chambers, who was instituted rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, of Albina, Sunday afternoon, entered on his work the 1st of March. He was called from a parish at Albert Lea, Minn., to the Portland church, and since his arrival much progress has been made in the affairs of the Good Shepherd. All departments of church work have been revived and stimulated into activity. There is also talk of the erection of a rectory in a short time near the church. Mr. Chambers has already taken high rank among Portland Episcopal clergymen, and he enjoys the distinction of having been instituted in the rectorable according to the full forms of the Episcopal Church. Mr. Chambers and family occupy a dwelling on Gantenbein avenue and Page street.
