The closing address of Colonel Charles
A. Woodruff, for the defense, was a remarkable oratorical effort, that drew tears from his hearers. He dramatically sketched General Smith's career, and declared he had conducted a remarkable and successful campaign in a manner which reflected credit on his valor, humanity and kindness. Speaking in impassioned tones, Colonel Woodruff said in olden times victorious generals tied captives to their chariots. In this case, the General finds himself tied. Sentiment is an excellent thing, but there is no place for it in war.

"We claim," continued the Colonel "that the Samar campaign just brought to a successful termination, while pushed actively, vigorously and energetically, was ever conducted within the limits of war. During the last few months it has seemed During the last few months it has seemed popular to criticise the Army in the Philippines. People seem to have forgotten its magnificent service for America's honor and giory. We have been worthy members of the Army, whose bayonts never flashed except in defense of the law. Yet today we are apparently disgraced. Why? I cannot imagine that people at home expect to gain glory and nollical home expect to gain glory and political advancement by abusing the Army. It advancement by abusing the Army. It was tried after the Mexican War. It was tried after the Civij War, with the result that Grant, 'the butcher,' was elected President, and died loved and honored by every American. While the campaigns in the Philippines have not been conducted to meet the views of sentimentalists and troublesome: busybodies in the United States, they have been conducted on lines which have reflected credit upon the valor. pluck, humanity and kindness of Ameri-

Colonel Woodruff reviewed the evidence at length, showing the necessity for mak-ing Samar a "howling wilderness," and aring the campaign in that island the "strenuous march to the sea, whose route was marked by a cloud o smoke by day and by a pillar of fire by night." The Colonel cited instances of military law in behalf of the defense, and dramatically portrayed General Smith's

"Now," continued Colonel Woodruff, "after wearing for 41 years the uniform of the United States with honor to himself and to the benefit of the Government, at the close of a remarkably successful campaign, in which he accomplished what Spain was unable to do in 200 years, while returning, as his friends thought, covered with glory, he was halted and taken off a transport to face charges growing out of the language used in giving instructions for the conduct of a successful campaign. The defense feels that the Government has only done this in deference to over-whelming public sentiment, based on rumors fostered for ignoble and unknown purposes until hysteria was produced. Then this gray, wounded, victorious General was exposed to the indignity of a trial, in deference to hysterical publ

Colonel Woodruff, concluding, said: "General Smith faces the conscience of the court and people with the full knowledge that he did his duty as an hon-

The Judge-Advocate, Major Harvey C. Carbaugh, in closing for the prosecution, declared the defense admitted everything and that it only claimed justification. He said General Smith's orders, given to Ma-jor Waller on the bloody battle-ground of Balangiga, were such as to cause men to act ruthlessly in a spirit of revenge.

SAW WATER CURE ADMINISTERED. Information Secured From Natives in Panny.

WASHINGTON, May L.-L. E. Hallock of Boston, formerly of the Twenty-sixth Volunteer Infantry, testified today before the Senate committee on the Philippines concerning the practice of the water cure in the Philippine archipelago. Mr. Hal-lock told of the infliction of the cure upon a dozen natives at the town of Leon, Province of Panay, August 21 and 23, 1900. They were captured and tortured in order to secure information of the murder o Private O'Hearne, of Company I, who had been not only killed, but roasted and otherwise tortured before death ensued. party, had first secured a confession of participation in this crime by one native, who had implicated 12 others. These were, the witness said taken to Leon, where his company, under command of Captain Gregg, was stationed, and there the cure was administered.

"Were they ordered to do so?"
"They were; by First Sergeant J. Manning, who is now in Boston,"

Hallock added that he had witness the torture, but had not participated in it.
While it was in progress, Captain Gregg was at company headquarters, less than 100 yards distant Did Captain Gregg know of the torture?" asked Rawlins. "All the command knew it, and I don't see how he could have helped knowing

Asked what became of the Philippine prisoners to whom the cure was admini tered, he replied that they were placed in a guardhouse 20 by 25 feet in size, in which there was one window, and in which there were at times 18 men confined. The 12 prisoners were kept for four or five months, and then they tried to escape. That effort had been success ful on the part of some, but five or six fleeing prisoners were shot and killed. One of them was killed while trying to get away when the squad was taken to the river for a bath, and the others when Transport's Boilers Are Bad.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3 .- The Exammer says that the transport Grant will not be able to make the trip to Manila that she was scheduled for on the 10th of this month. The Grant's boilers have failed to stand the test to which they were subjected by Inspector of Bollers.

Major Deval, in charge of the transport service at this port, says that the Grant can be placed in first-class condition and that the department is willing to pay not more than $200,000. He attributes the condition of the vessel's boliers to the heavy work required of them. The Grant has been in commission since January, 1895, and has met with no mishap, though she has been laid off five times for repairs. The department purposes curtailing the transport fleet, and it has been decided to lay off the Meade, Sherman, Hancock and Warren. The Egbert and Rosecrans have been put up at auction already. This will leave eight vessels plying between San Francisco and Manila—the Buford, Crook, Kilpatrick, Sheridan, Lawton, Lo-

Superintendent Walker, of the California, says the ledge struck in the crosscut is 13 feet across. This is an unusually wide ledge for the Cove, the only one exceeding it being the Gray Eagle, regarded the mother lode of the district. At the point of intersection in the California high values were not found, but it is a good ledge, and will no doubt show up good ledge, and will no doubt show with other Cable Cove properties wi drifted. The width is very encouraging, as most properties in that district have narrow ledges in the hardest granite known to this entire region, making mining expensive.

Everett Brown, of Penn Yan, Pa., who is the manager of the Oregon Development Company's properties, the Cracker-Oregon claims, on Big Cracker Creck, has taken a force of men out to begin work on the deep tunnel planned by him for the season's development. This property, consisting of two patented claims of great promise, was recently purchased of promise, was recently purchased of Messrs. Taber and Janney at a considera-tion said to have been $15,000 cash. Mr. Brown is interested in several good prop-erties of the district, and will devote most of his individual time to the Cracker-Oregon claims. It is his purpose to be-gin a tunnel on the ledge just high enough above the creek for a millsite enough above the creek for a ministe and drive it 2000 feet, which will give enormous depth, as the hill is very steep. There is now a 300-foot tunnel on the Cracker, the face of which is in good free gold. 'A 60-foot shaft has been sunk on the Oregon, all being in good ore. Open cuts reveal the ledge for a distance of 3000 feet, from most of which good values have been taken. HIS CAMPAIGN ALL DISEASES $5 A MONTH

A VERY IMPORTANT FEATURE THAT SHOULD NOT BE OVERLOOKED.

The Copeland Medical Institute Does Not Confine Its Practice to Catarrhal Affections, but Treats All Chronic Diseases at a Uniform Rate of $5 a Month, Medicines

The Copeland physicians are in daily receipt of letters from all points inquiring as to the application of their system of treatment to chronic maladies other than those of a catarrhal nature. For the information of those inquiring and the public generally, it is again stated that the provision made by the Copeland Medical Institute is for the treatment and cure of all persons suffering from any form of chronic disease or infimity whatever at the uniform fee of 35-including all medicines and appliances—for one month's continuous and watchful treatment. The same measure of skill, the same degree of care, the same intelligent exercise of professional energy and effort, and the same certainty of cure, are afforded to sufferers from other chronic maladies as to those suffering from extarrhal troubles of any nature.

The Proper Course for Sufferers.

Great numbers of people suffer from the malign poisons of catarrh, as from other chronic maladies, without any correct or definite idea of the nature of their affiction.
