ARE OREGONIANS SMARTER THAN NEW YORKERS?

This advertisement appeared in a leading New York Sunday paper on March 3, and was a failure. Of course, we have no business to make comparisons, for at times they are odious. But we do, however, realize the fact that it is the most difficult three-word rebus ever published, and any one who is at all smart can solve it in two hours. If you are too old, your sons or daughters can solve it for you. Anyway, the prize is worth trying for. Then why not try? It costs you no money, and even if you do not succeed in getting the correct rebus answer, you may win one of the other big cash prizes without labor or expense. Who knows but what the three words this rebus spells is mentioned in this advertisement? Therefore read it through very carefully.

During the past two years, it will be remembered, we advertised what were considered the biggest contests ever published. The cash prizes amounted to over $75,000, and the names of the prize-winners will be sent upon request. Just stop and think for one moment what grand cash prizes these were—three people were made happy and independent for life by having an annuity awarded to them.

Now, if you were so foolish as to ignore all of our previous advertisements, we certainly would advise you not to ignore this one, for without a doubt it is the opportunity of your life, as YOU HAVE A GOOD CHANCE TO WIN $2000 IN CASH. We want you to read this over very carefully, FOR IT DOES NOT COST YOU ONE CENT. One of these contests is, we believe, a very hard one—in fact, so hard that it cannot be solved in a minute or an hour, but is going to tax your brain and take considerable of your time. However, don't give it up; it can be solved, and just think of the reward.

WE WILL GIVE $2000 IN CASH FOR THE CORRECT ANSWER TO THE REBUS WHICH WE PUBLISH IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT, and which represents a well-known saying. We want to distinctly impress upon your mind that there is no trick or catch about this rebus, for it is a well-known quotation from Shakespeare, and one that we have repeated a great many times. If you cannot find the three correct words this rebus spells, but find only one, you will receive a special prize worth $25. If you will send in your answer at once you will not be disappointed. Some one is going to win the money, and it may be you. ANYWAY, IT DOES NOT COST YOU ANY MONEY TO TRY. There is only one easy condition, which will take about one hour of your time, and which we will write you as soon as you answer is received.

We can truthfully say that this is the most difficult rebus that has ever appeared in print. The envelope containing the correct answer has been sealed and deposited with a leading safe-deposit company in Boston. This, we believe, is the only honest method in the event of more than one correct answer being received. We will request five parties who have answered this advertisement to act as a committee to award the cash prize. They will be notified to come to Boston at our expense and be our guests while in this city. We take this original method of ours of selecting a committee to show our good faith, and as we want to treat all in the fairest manner possible. The committee will be selected solely upon their merits from among the contestants, and in addition to their expenses being paid, we will allow each one $100 a day for their time. You may be asked, but not compelled to act as one of the committee.

The committee who decided our last contests were: Mrs. Anna C. Boyd, Seattle, Wash.; Miss Lella E. Cuthbert, Toronto, Can.; Mr. M. Conolly, Panto Gorda, Fla.; and Mr. C. L. Baker, Bristol, R. I.; Edwin J. Seward, Worcester, Mass.; Edward C. Grieson, Birmingham, Ala.; Samuel W. Davis, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. James W. Hyder, Chicago, Ill.; Miss L. Sterns, Dartmouth, N. S. In addition to the $2000 cash we will give you an opportunity to win

Company in Boston, and will not be opened until after the close of the contest, and every one will have an equal chance.
