AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

THE BAKER THEATRE (corner Third and Yamhill streets) opens at 8:20. Mr. Ralph Stuart and Company. Matinee at 2:15. "Monte Cristo." Evening at 8:20.

CORRY'S THEATRE—TWO LITTLE WAIFS.

BUILDING CONTRACTORS ARRESTED.—L. L. Carter and Frank Woodman, building contractors, were arrested yesterday by sidewalk inspector Lillis for neglecting to take out a permit from the office of the City Engineer's office. The deputies in the City Engineer's office have been greatly annoyed with contractors who would not take out permits until the deputy went after them. Some would not even do it until they received a notice from the City Attorney that proceedings would be brought against them. Deputies have kept the City Engineer's office waiting for contractors to take out permits, and City Engineer Chase, to put a stop to all this red tape, detailed Lillis to arrest all contractors who fail to get permits. No more notices will be sent out to contractors. Carter and Woodman were notified. Carter called at City Treasurer Werlein's office and paid the $1 fee, but failed to call at the Engineer's office for the permit, so the case against Carter will probably be dismissed. Their cases will come up before Municipal Judge Cameron Monday at 1:30.

FOR THE National meeting of Fraternal Order of Eagles at Minneapolis, June 3 to 8, the Northern Pacific will make a round trip rate of $2 from Portland to Minneapolis and return. Tickets will be placed on sale May 25 and 26, with going limit of 30 days and good for return within 90 days. Stop-overs will be allowed within limits. Tickets will be good to return via any of the direct routes. Round-trip tickets will also be sold on these dates to Chicago and return at rate of $7. Tickets will also be sold to Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City and other Missouri River points at the rate of $2 for the round trip. Two through trains daily from Portland direct to Minneapolis and St. Paul without change of cars. Try the "North Coast Limited," the only electric-lighted train operated in the West and the crack train of the Northwest.

DR. McELROY'S TRIP.—Dr. J. G. McElroy will leave tomorrow via the Northern Pacific on a long-deferred trip to Chicago and the Eastern states. It has been 25 years since the doctor left that city for the Pacific Coast. He went first to San Francisco, and then, after several years in the hospital service, in 1883 he came to Portland. He has been so diligent in the practice of his profession since that time that he has not had time to visit his old home, but now he has taken a real lay-off for the first time in a quarter of a century. It is likely that before the doctor returns he will make a short visit to Quebec, Canada, his birthplace. He has set no time for his return beyond a somewhat indefinite "several weeks hence."

DEATH OF MRS. OLIVER J. STENARUD.—The many friends of Mrs. J. Stenarud will deeply regret to learn of her death after a lingering illness of eight months. She died yesterday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Peterson, 21 Third street. She was held in high esteem and dearly loved by all who knew her for her sunny disposition and her many acts of kindness and charity. She leaves a husband, E. C. Stenarud, a good father and mother, a sister and one brother.

C. C. SMITH has an establishment well equipped to renovate leather beds and pillows. Has one of the best sanitary feather renovating machines on the Coast; also makes a specialty of repairing mattresses in all grades, from $9 and upward. Renovates old mattresses and does all kind of repair work in the upholstery line. All work guaranteed and prices reasonable. Shop, Tenth and Adams; telephone, Main 640.

"LAST YOU FORGET." We wish to call your attention to the fact that Mount Hood Division, Order of Railway Conductors, will run their 12th annual excursion to Salem on Sunday, June 8. Only seating capacity of coaches will be sold, but there will be no limit to the entertaining features offered. A good crowd always goes. A better crowd is expected, and the best time of all is anticipated.

UNIVERSAL Brotherhood Organization and Theological Society, non-political and non-sectarian, lodge No. 21, will hold its monthly public meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, 314 Washington street, corner Park, at 8 o'clock. Addresses on living questions, from a theological standpoint. Musical selections. All invited.

THE HON. E. B. ANDERSON, of Madison, Wis., ex-U. S. Minister to Denmark, will lecture in Norwegian at Arion Hall, Friday, the 18th, he will deliver his famous historical discourse in English on "America Not Discovered by Columbus."

TO THE SEASIDE FOR $1.—On Sunday, May 25, Portland Printing Pressmen's Union will run a railroad excursion to Seaside. A sufficient number of cars have been procured, so that all who attend will be provided with a seat. Tickets now on sale.

JAIL BIRD RECOGNIZED. Chris Harris, Who Passed Bad Check, Turns Out to Be Ex-Convict. Chris Harris, the innocent-looking individual who pleaded guilty to a charge of passing a bogus check on a First-street saloonkeeper, and was held in jail for the grand jury, was about to leave the City Jail for the County Jail yesterday, when he met Detective Joseph Day. The latter stared hard for a minute at the prisoner, and ultimately said: "Hello, Chris Cole, when did you get out of the Walla Walla Pen?" "Harris" was visibly embarrassed and after a little hesitation he admitted that Day's suspicions were correct. The police records show that Cole served two terms in the Oregon Penitentiary for larceny from a house, and one term in the Walla Walla Penitentiary for forgery. Day recognized the man from a photograph in the rogue's gallery. Cole is 46 years old, and by trade he is a waiter.

The Important Matter of Right Clothing FOR MEN

Nothing but absolutely pure wool fabrics in every piece of Men's and Boys' Clothing, whatever the price.

That fixed fact is only the foundation in the matter of right clothes. The matter of style and correctness is self evident on surface; but you need the assurance of the unseen workmanship that produces the shapeliness that lasts while the suit lasts.

But, after all, the best fabrics in the world, and the most thorough tailoring would be worthless to a particular man without style and correctness, newness and variety—and these things that appeal directly to the eye are also distinguished characteristics of Steinbach's clothing. AND PRICE? You pay as little as you would have to for uncertain goods.
