

Among the fashionable events of the past week was the officers' hop at the Hill Military Academy, on Tuesday evening. The hop was given in the big armory, and was attended by the cadet corps, the faculty and numerous friends. The hall was beautifully decorated, and Parsons' Orchestra furnished excellent music. At 12 o'clock the cadet battalion assembled in the middle of the armory, and Commandant C. G. Von Eglonstein, on behalf of the cadets, presented Dr. J. W. Hill with a handsome bamboo riding crop, silver-mounted. The occasion for the presentation was Dr. Hill's 6th birthday. More than 100 couples participated in the grand march, which was led by the Commandant and Miss Bettison. At midnight delicious refreshments were served, after which dancing was continued. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Whitehouse, Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Root, Mrs. McKwan, Mr. and Mrs. Moody, Mrs. von Bolton, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Doble, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Fink, Mrs. Edwards, Miss Cochran, Miss Whitehouse, Miss Layton, Miss Bettison, Miss Bryan, Miss Webb, Miss Hurlbut, Miss Goss, Miss Brecht, Miss Goss, Miss Shea, Miss Zimmerman, Miss Palmer, Lucile Palmer, Miss Wall, Rose Wall, Miss May Koshland, Miss Batchelor, Miss May Batchelor, Miss O'Connor, Mayme O'Connor, May Blake, Mrs. Ross Lewis, Sarah Wilkins, Rena Kuhn, Rita Sinclair, Jessie Hartman, Ray, Maria Nichols, Wanda Morris, Beasts Stuntz, Miss De Bevoise, Edna De Bevoise, Martha De Bevoise, Miss McDwan, Clara McDwan, Isabel Wyman, Clara Doty, Eliza Parker, Helen Brigham, Ruby Creighton, Celesta Moore, Hazel Bean, Mignonne Edwards, Corinne Riley, Ethelwyn Harris, Corinne Sheldon, Jennie Winsor Baird, May Hofner, Hazel Williams, Ruth Gray, Marion Gray, Helen Doble, Katharine Harbaugh, Caroline Benson, Vivian Baughn, Rena Fremont, May Cogswell, Stella Heers, Lillian Metcalf, Miss Gossard, Laura Fields, Marlon Brodie, Irene Timma, Mabel Hammond, Winnie Wise, Leah Struble, Sadie Sutherland, Lucile Allen, Joy Allen, Miss Jones, Beasts Jones, Lily Banfield, Muriel Westerdor, Miss Hahn, Miss Barnes, Lucy Barnes, Miss McGowan, June Stirling, Fanny Switzer, Irene Higgins, Ella Doble, Charles Nicholson, Maida Hart, Mabel Winters, Hazel Bean, Mary McArthur, Marie Smith, Willette Leecher, Ruth Arnold, Eva Stafford, Miss Buckenmyer, Ruth Hatton, Jeannette Noble, Marg Schwab, Louise Cary, Messrs. EVENTS OF WEEK.
A large number of the friends of St. Ann's Charitable Society gathered at the Foresters Hall last Monday evening to assist the members of this society in celebrating their 25th anniversary. An excellent musical programme preceded the reading of the annual report by Rev. Father Cassey. From this report it was seen that the society is one of the oldest Catholic societies in the city; that it has expended a considerable amount in relief work during the past year; that it has ample funds on hand to carry it over the summer months; that it is practically self-sustaining on its large membership and that its membership is steadily increasing. The musical programme was an artistic treat, from the brilliant overture by Everest's Orchestra—the opening number—to the closing number by Miss Lawler, "The Bells of St. Mary's," her beautiful solo by Don Zan, who is always a favorite with Portland audiences, was enthusiastically received and encored. Mr. Zan responded to an encore by singing "Violeta." Two vocal selections by Miss Ethel Shea were charming, and well rendered. The first, "A Song of a Heart," by Tennyson, being well suited to Miss Shea's voice, which is sweet and sympathetic. This number was enthusiastically received. Miss Shea gave a violin solo, "Fantasia on Themes," from Faust, which called forth a storm of applause and an encore, for which Mrs. Austin gave the popular "Imogene," from "Cavalleria Rusticana." This was followed by two soprano solos by Miss Katharine Lawler, rendered in her usual artistic manner, the first a "Serenade" by Gounod, the second an Irish lullaby by Ambrose—"The Shoony Shoo." Both numbers displayed remarkable control over the voice, and great carrying quality, especially in the light, soft work. For an encore Miss Lawler gave Nevin's "Mighty Lak a Rose." Special interest, however, was centered in the appearance of Miss Edith McGinn as a piano soloist. Miss McGinn is a recent graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, and has scarcely been heard in concert work since her return. The difficult "Polonaise," Op. 5, by Chopin, was the selection given by Miss McGinn. Her excellent interpretation of this number brought her a storm of applause, or a perfect ovation, and an encore, which she played in the same finished manner. Miss McGinn was also the able accompanist of the evening. A general reception and dance followed the reading of the ladies' report. Dan Conant and Walter Guild rendered valuable assistance to the ladies in making this entertainment a success.

The ladies of the Cathedral Aid Society gave a most delightful dancing and whist party at Parsons Hall on Wednesday evening. Roses and palms, arranged gracefully in front of the orchestra, gave a charming summery effect, which was enhanced by the various pretty colors of the gowns worn on the occasion. The programmes were very pretty, being printed in blue and white, the colors of the society. "Polonaise," Op. 5, by Chopin, was served at the pleasure of the dancers, and in the dining-room ice cream was served by Mrs. J. P. Cronin, Mrs. Metz, Mrs. McCabe, and Mrs. Wolfe. The programmes were: Mrs. H. H. Hillman, Mrs. G. J. R. Riley, Mrs. J. N. Sutton. Mrs. Hillman wore a very handsome gown of black velvet, with trimming of white satin; Mrs. Sutton, a lovely gown of black organdy, decorated with Jacquemont roses, and Mrs. Geatin and Mrs. Riley also wore attractive gowns of black. Mrs. J. P. Jennings wore a beautiful gown of white silk, edged with black velvet, and with diamond ornaments; Mrs. Gerlinger Dalton was becomingly gowned in white silk; Mrs. Gessinger's gown was of black net over black satin, with pearl ornaments; Mrs. Tom Edwards wore a charming costume of white silk linen, over green silk, with trimmings of gold passementerie; Mrs. J. P. O'Brien wore a very pretty gown of black lace with red roses; Mrs. C. L. Hunt, of Vancouver, wore a beautiful dress of red organdy over red silk, with red roses; Mrs. D. W. Burke wore an attractive gown of black lace over black taffeta. Among the young girls some very pretty party gowns were worn, a large number of them being of delicate pink. Miss Estelle wore a pretty costume of pale blue; Miss Katherine Cronin's gown was a dainty one of gray and white chiffon over silk; Miss Lorenz Frudenberg wore pale blue silk organdy; Miss Daisy Sutton looked very pretty in lavender organdy, with La France roses; Miss Emma Gill and Miss Nordet each wore black lace, and Miss Geatin, Miss Dalton and Miss Geatin each wore dainty gowns of pink organdy.

The Jolly Twenty Whist Club gave Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hill a surprise last Tuesday evening at their beautiful new home, corner Sixteenth and East Couch streets. The occasion was Mr. Hill's birthday. Progressive whist was played until 10 o'clock, after which an elaborate lunch was served. First prizes were won by Mrs. W. L. Dinamoar and Mr. W. N. Jones, Mrs. N. P. Foulks and Mr. C. W. Evans receiving the consolations. Those present were: Mayor and Mrs. Pagett, of Cosmopolis, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Evans, of Oregon City; Mayor and Mrs. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Foulks, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dinamoar, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Groat, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. R. Schmeer.

A delightful afternoon was spent Thursday, at the residence of the Misses McGowan, Montavilla, the occasion being the disbanding of the Monday Musical Ladies' Chorus. Thirty of the members were present, and a good time was enjoyed by all. The Monday Musical, under the leadership of Mrs. E. S. Miller, has labored hard during the winter, and have gained an enviable reputation for their excellent work.

They have appeared in concert on several occasions and have delighted their audiences with choice selections and the able manner in which they were rendered. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Miller for the efficient manner in which she has directed the club, also to Mrs. Thoburn, the accompanist, for her painstaking work. Refreshments were then served, after which Mrs. Miller favored the company with a solo. The club, after singing a parting song, dispersed, promising to reorganize in the fall with renewed energy to carry on the work for another year.

Last Friday evening, at their residence, 181 East Thirty-first street, Sunnyside, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Pier entertained at a dinner given in honor of their son, Mr. Stanhope S. Pier. The dining-room was brilliantly lighted with candles and the tables beautifully decorated with many varieties of roses and other lawn flowers. The dinner was served in the cooler and was an elaborate menu. Mrs. Pier was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Vesteroy U. Pier, Jr., Mrs. Dr. Knapp and Mrs. John J. Staub. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Pier, Jr., Miss Josephine Hillard, Lulu Trueblood, Grace Kemp, Elizabeth Trueblood, Edna Haskell, Daley Trueblood, Fred Kemp, George Stahl, Stanhope Pier, Woods Howard Haskell, Raymond Staub, Charlie Sigmond, Howard Pier Staub and Rev. J. J. Staub.

A tallyho party of 20 young people of Portland on Decoration day rode out to Sandy Bridge, about 15 miles east of the city. The party, which was made up after 7 o'clock Friday morning, and arrived at the Sandy before noon. The day was an ideal one for outdoor recreation, the road was free from dust and the woods were fresh and inviting. The party was composed of the following: Mrs. J. C. Carrington, chaperon; the Misses Nina, Foye and Alice Killingsworth, Effie Sherwood, Estella Hazard, Edna Haight, Ada Soule, George Harrington, May Staples, Messrs. Roy Stowell, Will Bennett, Clinton Haight, Clinton Shorne, Claude Simpson, Dr. Homer Kenney, William Killingsworth, C. Parke Poston, J. C. Carrington, Mr. Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Schulerman gave a progressive whist party, Friday evening, May 22, in honor of Miss Mary Hayden and Miss Marie Convey, of San Francisco, who are guests at the Schulerman home, corner of Nineteenth and Gilman streets. About 25 invited guests were present, and the evening was passed in a very pleasant manner by all present. Card playing, games, music and dancing were the features of the entertainment. An elegant supper was served at 12 o'clock. In the progressive whist game Frank E. Ford won the first prize, a handsome silver watch. The second prize was a gold watch, and the consolation prize was captured by Miss Convey. The host and hostess were assisted by their two daughters, Misses Etta and Mamie.

The Twentieth Century Girls gave another of their pleasant parties on Thursday evening at Parsons Hall. Parsons' orchestra gave exceptionally good music for the programme of 13 dances, which were enjoyed to the utmost. Delicious lemonade punch was served. The party was largely attended, and a great many pretty new gowns were worn. The patronesses were: Mrs. R. P. Gilliland, Mrs. M. A. Thayer and Mrs. George Seed. Mrs. Thayer and Mrs. Gilliland wore handsome gowns of black and white, and Mrs. Seed wore a very becoming dress of pale blue.

The wives of members of railway postal clerks residing in Sunnyside and vicinity yesterday gave Mrs. Charles Whitney a birthday surprise, at her home, Thirty-sixth and East Taylor streets. A very pleasant party was given, and during the day a woman's auxiliary of the National Association of Railway Postal Clerks was organized, which it is hoped will be held by every postal clerk's wife in Portland. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Zehring, 1042 Belmont street, June 7.

One of the most delightful whist parties of the season was given last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eriman, corner of Seventh and Lincoln streets. The guests of whom it were present, sat down to the game of progressive whist at 8 o'clock and at 10:30 progressive whist at the successful competitors. Afterward a dainty supper was served, and dancing enjoyed until after midnight.

Mrs. Bernard O'Hara gave a very enjoyable party Saturday evening, May 22, at her home, 364 North Twenty-second street, in honor of her husband's birthday. The evening was spent in dancing and card playing until midnight, when a dainty repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Behrman's residence was the scene of a pleasant surprise party last Sunday evening. The occasion was the 13th anniversary of their marriage. The evening was delightfully spent in playing cards and dancing.

The old ladies of the Patton Home, as well as the management, are making great preparations for their annual tea and reception, to be held at the Home, 975 Michigan avenue, Thursday, June 3, from 2 to 5. All their friends and the public generally are most cordially invited.

A jolly tallyho party was given on Monday evening to the girls of the "Dix" society. The party, which was chartered by Mr. and Mrs. Allan M. Ellsworth, drove out to the Riverside Inn and returned, stopping at a charming spot beside the Willamette to eat a picnic luncheon. The pleasure of the evening was greatly accentuated by the delightful weather, and the high spirits of the merry-makers was manifested by a hilarious blowing of horns. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth, those who enjoyed the drive were: Misses Jane Owen, Hattie Word, Ethel Pike, Edna Pike, May Bachelor, Lila Bachelor, Edna De Bevoise, Beas De Bevoise, Lola Bradford, Ethel Allen, Marion Chase, Semmie Gray, Messrs. Ed Jorgensen, Timothy Wood, Alex. De France, William Banks, Jay Upton, Bert Strahl, Jim Dowling, Robert Holt, Harry Nichols, Jim McGowan, Bert Staver, George Eastman.

Mrs. Alfred Tucker gave a charming card party in honor of Mrs. Ralph H. Lee, of San Francisco, on Wednesday morning, May 22, at her home, on Willamette Heights. The house decorations were of green and white, and were extremely pretty, clusters of white anemones being used in great profusion, combined with delicate maidenhair ferns. The earlier part of the afternoon's entertainment was the game of whist, at which the first prize was won by Mrs. Rummelin, and the consolation by Miss Grant. Delicious refreshments were served at small tables.

WEDDINGS.
Bryant-Upton.
The leading social event of the week at Walla Walla was the wedding on Monday evening of Miss Mabel Chapman, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. B. Upton, to Mr. Arthur H. Bryant, U. S. A. The residence of Mr. C. B. Upton was handsomely decorated for the occasion, the bride entering the east door of the church on the arm of Mr. N. W. Potwin, and following the ushers, Charles Bond and Roy Riltner, proceeded up the aisle to the chancel, where they were met by the groom, and the Episcopal marriage service was pronounced by the Rev. W. E. Potwin. As the party entered the wedding march, and as they marched down the aisle the strains from the Tannhauser march, was played. Mr. and Mrs. Cranston have gone on a wedding trip to the bride's old home in Connecticut.

Cranston-Todd.
On Wednesday afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, occurred the wedding of Miss Frances M. Todd and Charles M. Cranston. Promptly at 2:30 the bride entered the east door of the church on the arm of Mr. N. W. Potwin, and following the ushers, Charles Bond and Roy Riltner, proceeded up the aisle to the chancel, where they were met by the groom, and the Episcopal marriage service was pronounced by the Rev. W. E. Potwin. As the party entered the wedding march, and as they marched down the aisle the strains from the Tannhauser march, was played. Mr. and Mrs. Cranston have gone on a wedding trip to the bride's old home in Connecticut.

Holladay-Andrews.
The marriage of Elsiebeth M. Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Andrews, to Mr. Earl Holladay, was solemnized at Trinity Chapel, Portland, Wednesday evening, May 25. Rev. A. A. Morrison officiating. The ceremony was largely attended, and a great many pretty new gowns were worn. The bride wore a gown of black and white, and the groom wore a very becoming dress of pale blue.

Carstensen-Scott.
On Wednesday, May 25, at 5:30 P. M. Louis Carstensen and Mrs. Zenta Prideaux Scott were married in their own home by Rev. Alexander Blackburn. A large company was present, and a short wedding journey they will be at home at 28 Sheridan street.

COMING EVENTS.
The Ladies of the Maccabees, Portland Hive No. 7, will give a "Japanese Evening" entertainment at their hall, Alisky Building next Monday night. They will have music, games and refreshments. The proceeds are to be used for furnishing a room at one of the hospitals.

Mrs. M. T. Hidden, of Vancouver, will address the Central W. C. T. U. at the parlors of Taylor-Street M. E. Church on Wednesday, June 4, at 2:30 P. M. She will explain what the women's club is doing for women and children. All are invited.

MR. AND MRS. EDSON KIMSEY.
SALEM, May 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Edson Kimsey, of Macleay, who on Monday celebrated their golden wedding, are pioneers of the Willamette Valley. Mr. Kimsey came to Oregon from Missouri in 1850, and was followed by his wife, daughter of Major Walker, who also crossed the plains from Missouri in 1850. While Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey were born and raised within three miles of each other in Missouri, they did not cultivate an acquaintance until they had come to Oregon, when the friendly relations thus assumed terminated in their happy union on May 28, 1852. In the fall of that year they settled upon a homestead near Macleay, where they have since resided.

In the celebration of the anniversary of their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey were assisted by the members of Macleay Grange, of which the venerable couple are members, and also the members of Macleay Degree of Honor. A very pleasant day was the result, a sumptuous basket dinner at the noon hour contributing an important part of the day's festivities. The fruits of this union have been 19 children, only four of whom are living, and there were present at the anniversary, besides several grandchildren and many distant kinsmen.
