

VOLCANOES OF HAWAII

TWO OF THEM SHOW INCREASED ACTIVITY.

Professor Hill Says Fort de France Is More in Danger From Tidal Wave Than From Eruption.

HONOLULU, May 8, via San Francisco, June 7.—Reports have been received from the Island of Hawaii indicating that the volcano is showing more than usual activity.

The Kaula, which left Hawaii two days ago, reports a large column of smoke above the crater of Kilauea.

PELEE WILL DIE OUT. Professor Hill Thinks the Greatest Danger is From Tidal Waves.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Captain Barry, of the cruiser Albatross, returned from bearing supplies to the volcanic victims in the West Indies, said regarding conditions in the islands:

"Conditions are not as bad on Martinique as on St. Vincent, because on Martinique the people are fairly well supplied with everything and there is no danger in future eruptions.

"The overheated rock, bursting against the water near the base of the mountain, caused superheated steam and burst the mountain open."

Professor Hill, who investigated the outbreak for the Government, said: "Months will be required for the final scientific decision."

"I think Pelee will smoke and remain active for months," said Professor Russell. "It probably will be a case of Vesuvius again. I hardly think Pelee will smolder and blow up in one gigantic explosion."

Professor Hill advocates the establishment of scientific observatories in the Caribbean district for the detection of the imminence of volcanic eruptions, so that human life may be saved—a scientific institution easily and economically founded and maintained.

"The instrument would give the populace ample warning. The seismograph at Vesuvius for 35 years has done satisfactory and valuable work. There is absolutely no occasion for such tremendous loss of life."

"I do not think Fort de France is in much danger from the volcano, but I do think she is in danger from a tidal wave. In volcanic districts these tidal waves are frequent occurrences. They are caused by a sudden upheaval of the sea bottom. In case of such an upheaval Fort de France would surely be wiped out."

"As a safety position, the volcanic waves, Morse Rouge finely situated, as it is built on a high ridge. It is about the only town in the volcanic district so situated."

Francis Washes Ashore at Galveston. GALVESTON, Tex., June 7.—Mount Pelee, on the island of Martinique, has sent evidence of its power to Galveston.

Contagious Blood Poison DOES POTASH AND MERCURY CURE IT?

Experience says not, and thousands whose health has been ruined by the use of these poisonous minerals, stand ready to testify that, while Mercury and Potash may mask the disease—drive it from the outside for a time, it comes back with renewed virulence as soon as these drugs are left off, and thus the fight between Contagious Blood Poison and Mercury and Potash is protracted for months and even years, resulting in a broken down constitution, spongy and tender gums, excessive salivation, decayed teeth, pains in the stomach, nausea, ruined digestion, nervous dyspepsia, dizziness, and other distressing symptoms which always follow the use of these poisons.

They mask the hideous form of this serpent-like disease, but the deadly virus still hides in the system. There is an antidote for this awful poison; a reliable, certain and permanent cure for Contagious Blood Poison—and that remedy is S. S. S.—the greatest of all blood purifiers, and an experience of fifty years has proven it to be a true specific for this vilest of all human diseases, which not only threatens the life of the one contracting it, but is transmitted to posterity with more certainty than Cancer or Consumption.

Why continue the Mercury and Potash treatment, when by so doing you only complicate the disease, burden the blood with another poison, in time producing Mercurial Rheumatism, Sores, and a long train of evil consequences.

S. S. S. being purely vegetable, leaves no bad after-effects, but invigorates the whole system while cleansing the blood of the virus. S. S. S. is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the only medicine that is able to unmask this venomous reptile and drive it out of the blood. It has rescued thousands from the clutches of this horrible malady, after Mercury, Potash, Hot Springs and everything else had failed to cure, and it will do as much for you. The idea that Contagious Blood Poison is incurable, or must run its course in spite of all human efforts to stop it, is the veriest nonsense. S. S. S. does cure it radically and permanently, removing all traces of the original disease from the blood and system, as well as the evil effects of the Mercury and Potash.

If you are a victim of Contagious Blood Poison, no matter what may be your present condition, whether the disease has just started or has reached a more dangerous stage, begin S. S. S. and a thorough and lasting cure is an absolute certainty. To every one desiring to know more of this king of blood diseases, we will mail free a copy of our book, which explains in simple language the different forms, stages and symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison. You can consult our Physicians at any time and as often as you please about your condition, without charge. Write them a history of your case and receive helpful advice that will enable you to treat yourself at home. All correspondence is conducted in the strictest confidence.

Mr. Mendenhall said the petition made no charges that any of the steam or electric railroad companies had influenced the Council, but the members of the committee would introduce the franchise matter was finally settled by Mr. Merrill, who said that he wanted to see all the railroads possible come into Portland, and that he should introduce the franchise ordinance at the adjourned meeting of the Council next Wednesday.

To Extend a Track. The application of the Portland Railway Company to extend its track to its new car barns on Cedar Hill was taken up by the Council. The street was taken up on Cedar Hill and desired to extend its track 100 feet to the barns which it intends to erect. President Paxton and Superintendent Purdie spoke for the company, and Dr. Emmet Drake against it. The objection of Dr. Drake was that the street would be cut up by the track. The committee took the matter under advisement and on Monday the members will inspect the street.

From One of Geer's Admirers. SALEM, June 6.—(To the Editor.)—The eyes of the Nation may have been on Oregon during the recent campaign, but from now until next January the eyes of the people of Oregon will be on the members of the Legislature as to how far they give heed to the popular vote on United States Senators. The fact is now being made in some quarters to ignore the views given Governor Geer will meet with no popular response, for it was equivalent to an election by the people, unless, indeed, members of the Legislature consider their own judgment superior to that of the people.

You will pardon me for saying that your reasons for ignoring the popular vote are not "well taken" from any point of view. Although you said just before the election that his vote would be small, you now account for it being "quite large" by saying that it is so because of the "spoiled ticket" and bore the designation of "Republican," which it had no right to bear, "because he was nominated by no Republican convention."

The facts are his name was at the foot of the state ticket in nearly every county in the state, Multnomah being probably the only exception, and he was on the ticket as a Republican because every petition circulated in the state requested the Governor's name to go on the ticket as "our choice for Republican candidate for United States Senator."

You refer to a "deal to elect Mr. Chamberlain" through which many Democrats voted for Geer, but since Mr. Wood's vote generally runs alongside some of the other Democratic state candidates, where could the Governor have secured any Democratic votes of consequence from? For instance, in Morrow County, practically all the Democrats voted for Geer. In Clatsop County, Wood got 47 and Bonham 40. The Democratic candidate for Secretary of State received only 20 votes.

Clatsop County gave Geer 123 majority over Wood, but the latter received only 20 votes less than the average of his colleagues, and this condition prevails all over the state. Of course, no map voted for Mr. Geer but favored some other man for United States Senator, and the difference between his vote and that received by the other Republican candidates represents the popular strength of those who may be opposed to his election.

You pronounce Geer's vote a "practical fraud," and declare that many voted for him "as a sort of joke or farce for annoyance of Republicans," but why should Republicans vote for him in order to annoy themselves? While saying that his very large popular vote "is of little significance," you are sure that if his vote had been very small that you would not have said it signified a great deal, and

The officers recommended by the nominating committee were elected, and Boston was selected as the next place of meeting.

Cause of "Spotted Fever." MISSOULA, Mont., June 7.—Dr. William N. Chowning, of the University of Minnesota, summoned by the State Board of Health to investigate the strange malady of the Butte Root Valley called "spotted fever," gave the opinion that the fatal disease is caused by the bite of a tick peculiar to that district. This disease has baffled the physicians and about 15 persons have died of the affliction this Spring.

Animal Trainers Injured. CLEVELAND, June 7.—Three animal trainers attached to a show had a thrilling experience here today when they lay on their backs, and as a result one man, the lion tamer, Joseph McPhee, is fatally injured.
