MORE MINERS WENT OUT THAN WAS ANTICIPATED.

J. P. Morgan Hanged in Effigy at Wilkesbarre—Situation in the Pennsylvania Fields.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 7.—The strike ordered by the United Mineworkers of America, to take effect in West Virginia today, was much more complete in some districts than expected and less effective in others.

As a rule the miners quit work without much demonstration, but in some places they were marching with bands. It was ascertained that the operators in some places had secured many armed guards in anticipation of a protracted struggle.

While the strike in this state is generally regarded as sympathetic with that of Pennsylvania, there is a general impression that the bituminous coal interests of other states have been alerted in bringing on a crisis in West Virginia.

It is currently reported throughout West Virginia that the bituminous operators of other states refused to pay the National scale unless the United Mineworkers control the strike in West Virginia, and many believe the present struggle is for the maintenance of authority of the United Mineworkers in states other than West Virginia.

Strikers Ordered to Vacate. ELKHORN, W. Va., June 7.—The general strike order has been universally obeyed in every field along the Norfolk & Western road, but few colliers attended to operate today, and those that did had not an eighth of the usual force at work.

Bank Boss Killed. KEYSTONE, W. Va., June 7.—Thousands of striking miners are in Keystone tonight and there is much revelry. At the Crane Creek mines today James A. Dwyer, a bank boss, was shot and killed while walking up a mountain. More trouble is expected.

Strikers Start West. COOPER'S, W. Va., June 7.—About 60 per cent of the miners in the Flat Top fields went out today. The strike will spread to the westward.
