One of the most notable of the June weddings was the marriage of William Wallace Banks and Miss Ethel Elliott Pike, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church. Both are well known young society people. Mr. Banks, who was recently elected to the Oregon Legislature, is a prominent young lawyer of this city, and a popular member of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club. His bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pike, is a prominent member of the Eta Chapter, Delta Iota Chi Sorority.

The church, which was beautifully decorated, was crowded with guests long before the hour appointed for the ceremony. As the organist, E. E. Courson, commenced the playing of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the groom, accompanied by his best man, Platt Randall, entered from the north chancel door, followed by the ushers, David Honeyman, Joseph Cahalan, Ben L. Norden and J. Alex DeFrance, all members of the Multnomah Club. The bridesmaids, Miss Harriette Wood, Miss Semele Groat, Miss Ethel Allen, Miss Lola Bradford, and the maid of honor, Miss Edna Pike, each one of whom is a member of the "Dix" Sorority, preceded the bride down the main aisle. The bride, looking very lovely, wore a gown of white silk organdie, over white tulle. Her veil was held in place by the bridegroom's gift, a crescent of pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Edna Pike, a sister of the bride, wore a very pretty costume of pink silk organdie, with a white picture hat, trimmed with pink roses, and carried a bouquet of bridesmaid roses. The bridesmaids wore white organdie, and carried bouquets of pink La France roses.

As Dr. E. P. Hill, in an impressive manner, pronounced the service, the beauty of the scene was enhanced by the soft, low notes of the organ, which swelled into joyous strains as the ceremony was concluded.

A dainty luncheon was served to the members of the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents. A reception was held from 7 to 8. The house decorations, which were very artistically arranged, were of roses and evergreens, the flanking room being all in pink. A large number of handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Banks departed for California on the 8:30 train. Before their return to Portland they will spend some time in San Francisco, and make a tour of Southern California.

Doctor and Mrs. E. R. Johnston tendered a reception to the class of 1902 of Portland Academy last Friday evening at their residence on Fourth street. This house was tastefully decorated with Oregon grape, marigolds and other flowers, together with school and class flags. About 70 guests were present, including the members of the graduating class, the instructors and the Girls' Glee Club. Refreshments were served in the dining-room. Miss Quigg and Miss Jewett being in charge of the tables. The Glee Club furnished several selections, and Miss Virginia Lee sang a solo, which was greatly appreciated by the auditors. The entertainment broke up late in the evening, and the guests departed with happy memories of the school year soon to close.

higher education in itself may affect citizenship, the two factors in which were civilization and character, advocating more attention in our secondary schools to the studies pertaining directly to man and his relations, psychology, sociology and economics. R. W. Montague presented with pleasing humor the duties of a citizen, and the necessity of the value and necessity of right living as an indispensable element in the development of a sound body politic. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A charming lawn party was given last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Warren, in celebration of the enrollment of 50 young ladies in Mrs. Warren's Bible class. The guests of honor were Mrs. Estrell, of Harahan, Wis.; Miss Beatrice Hill, of Stanford University, and Miss Eva Balla, who leaves next month for Peru. The grounds were lighted with myriads of Chinese lanterns, and the spacious and beautiful lawn, with its fine old elms, made a lovely picture. During the evening the guests were entertained by a delightful musical program, which was opened by the Warren Mandolin Club and the Junior Mandolin Club, under leadership of Senor Palacios. They played seated under a wide-spreading Japanese umbrella, from which were suspended a number of the gay Chinese lanterns, and the club of pretty girls in dainty, many-tinted gowns, made a most bewitching orchestra. The first number was "Esperanza Mazurka" (Palacios), and to a vigorous encore the club responded with "Ma Tixer Lily." The Junior Mandolin Club has the following membership: Miss Cecelia Ladd, Miss Mabel Quackenbush, Miss Eva Sprague, Mrs. Emily Buford, Miss Emma Horn, Miss Ethel Vantrass, Miss Ethel Burlingame, Miss Leila Marshall, Miss Alice Sprague, Miss Minnie Sperling, Mrs. Lillian Wing. Two beautiful numbers from Mendelssohn, "On Music's Wings" and "The Maybell and Mayflowers," were sung by the class double quartet, Miss Maude Smith, Miss Virginia Lee, Miss Marguerite Holman, Miss Helen Bennett, Miss Eva Taylor, Mrs. R. W. Bartlett, Mrs. M. D. Payne, Miss Nettie Grimes, Miss Luella Knapp. Miss Bella Robertson gave a violin solo, "Cavatina," with much grace and expression. As an encore she played the popular Mexican dance, "El Bolero." Miss Lee was followed by the class chorus in a "Spring Song." (Webb), in which their voices blended beautifully. Miss Virginia Lee sang, very sweetly, "To Welcome You," by George Thomas, and the program was closed by the Mandolin Club in "Dreams," composed by Senor Palacios. Delicious refreshments were served on the lawn at the close of the program.

A large reception was given on Wednesday evening, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Allen and Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Soper. Dr. and Mrs. Hill have just returned from a delightful trip East, and the members of the congregation were united in the cordiality of their welcome home. The parlors of the church were exquisitely decorated with La France roses, the corner where the refreshments were served being especially pretty. This part of the room was screened by a fish net, in which were gracefully arranged roses and sprays of ferns. In the center of the table was a basket of La France roses, and the table was lighted by pink candles in silver candlesticks. Ice cream was served by Mrs. S. R. Johnson, Mrs. Swinton, Mrs. Kisterman and Mrs. Butterfield, whose assistants were Miss Wright, Miss Bennett, Miss Kisterman, Mrs. Frank VanDuren, Miss Edith Davis, Mrs. Warner and Miss Spaulding. Several musical selections were given by the Warren Mandolin Club, and Miss Belle Robertson gave a violin solo, which the grace of her bowing and the delicacy of expression were greatly admired. Mrs. Fletcher Linn sang in her usual charming manner, "Durst Ye Apple Buds" (Stephen Emery), and as an encore, "A Japanese Love Song."

A charming "china shower" party was given Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Grace Himes by the Misses Clara and Jessie Brown, at the residence of Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr., 435 Fifth street. The parlors, beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and Oregon grape, made a pretty background for the young ladies in their light Summer gowns. Various games were played, and Miss Townsend and Miss LeBarre recited poems appropriate for the occasion, after which snapshots were taken and refreshments served. Each guest had brought a dainty gift of china, with which Miss Himes was genuinely surprised. Those guests were: The Misses Mattie Cleland, Gertrude Pratt, Mary Colwell, Vesta Townsend, Winnie Chance, Ruby Kellogg, Olga Luke, Vesta Broughton, Katherine LeBarre, Ada Dornbeck, Lora McCoy, Maud McMiller, Miss Buchanan, of Oregon City.

On Monday afternoon, June 8, Mrs. W. G. Martin gave a merry and informal whist party at her home in Sunnyside, in honor of Mrs. Bingley. Fifteen hands of whist were played, Mrs. Ida M. Scott having the highest score, and Mrs. Howard the lowest. A half hour was devoted to naming the portraits of well-known men. Mrs. H. L. Chapman naming the greatest number correctly. At 5 o'clock, delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. N. L. Bingley, Mrs. G. A. Beavie, Mrs. W. Braden, Mrs. H. L. Chandler, Mrs. N. L. Curry, Mrs. G. W. Dickson, Mrs. K. Everett, Mrs. E. J. Hadley, Mrs. H. M. Haller, Mrs. M. J. Higley, Mrs. M. M. Howe, Mrs. L. C. Henry, Mrs. E. L. Long, Mrs. E. Kleist, Mrs. W. G. Kerns, Mrs. R. Scott, Mrs. L. M. Scott and Miss Braden.

A social and entertainment was given last night in the Grand-Avenue United Presbyterian Church. Several months ago Dr. Gibson invited the wives of the city to attend services on Sunday morning in his church. He preached the sermon, and Mrs. Gibson, who is proficient in the music language, interpreted the sermon, as they occupied the pastor's study, out of sight. A large number of Portland wives became interested, and attended these services especially for their benefit. Last evening their entertainment and social was conducted in their own way. They enjoyed themselves highly. Refreshments were served in the music language. Dr. and Mrs. Gibson have taken great interest in their silent congregation, and their efforts are appreciated.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. A. Gissel, in honor of their ninth wedding anniversary, at their home, in South Mount Tabor, on Tuesday evening, June 10. The evening was spent in outdoor games and whist, and 19 o'clock. While a dainty lunch was being served music was rendered. The winners of the first prizes at whist were Mr. Foster and Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Sanders and Miss Labbe won the consolation prize. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Holmes Sanders, White, Foster, Anderson, Cullip, Bunker, Humphrey, Miss Martha Glowe, Miss Julia Labbe, Miss Dora West, Miss Ethel Shaver, Mr. Carl Swanson, August Swanson, J. W. Shaver, James Shaver.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Foulke entertained the members of the July Twenty Whist Club, at their new home, 351 Rose street, Tuesday evening. The rooms had been elaborately decorated for the occasion with a profusion of roses and carnations, gracefully arranged in vases. Whist was played in the early part of the evening. The first prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rowe. The consolation fell to the lot of Mrs. E. J. Hall and W. L. Dinamore. Delicious refreshments were then served, after which music and dancing were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis Mead gave a very enjoyable party Thursday evening, June 12, at their residence, 125 Fourteenth street. The occasion was the first anniversary of their marriage. About 40 invited guests were present. The house decorations were pink and white. La France roses being used in great profusion, combined with festoons of pink and white cotton. The early part of the evening's entertainment was the game "Musical Romance." A dainty supper was served at 11 o'clock, after which dancing was enjoyed.

A very pleasant surprise party was given on the East Side last week in honor of Miss Rose Brocken's 15th and Miss Statie Silver's 15th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in games, and at 11 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served, after which the merry young people departed.

A large reception was given on Wednesday evening, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Allen and Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Soper. Dr. and Mrs. Hill have just returned from a delightful trip East, and the members of the congregation were united in the cordiality of their welcome home.
