

Society.

Ambrose, Rutley, McKenzie, Stone, Whelan, Kuner, Bradley, Fred Durbin, Charles Creighton, Jack Allen, Russell Smith, Jeffrey, Wayne Stuart, Gordon Craig, Ralph Hahn, Edwards, Wilt Gadeby, Moore, Robert Davis, Ray Frase, Crosby, Fred Rickett, Robert Bell, Cadet Lieutenant Phil Carroll and Cadet Sergeant Pink of the B. S. A., and the cadet officers and cadets of the H. M. A. There were all told 481 people, by actual count, during the evening.

Miss Eleanor Tibbets and the faculty of St. Helen's Hall tendered a reception to the graduating class and the friends of the students at the hall last Thursday evening. The large recitation and recreation rooms were arranged for dancing, which occupied most of the programme for the evening. The chandeliers were festooned with ivy branches, while the walls were hung with baskets of ferns and other greens from the woods, which, combined with a few roses artistically intermingled, made a most pleasing decoration. Many of the older friends of the institution were present, who enjoyed watching the young people gliding to and fro across the smooth floors or chatted with the instructors and other friends who might be present. Those who did not care to dance strolled up and down the balconies in the moonlight, securing full benefit from the warm summer air, which has been so long in coming, or sat in the music rooms, where a dainty supper was served under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Morrison and Mrs. F. A. Knapp. Lemonade was served during the dancing at a booth arranged in one of the parlors, and as the evening was warm was freely partaken of by both young and old alike. As this was to be the last affair of the season at the hall, the dancing was continued until a late hour, when the assemblage broke up and the guests departed for their respective homes with pleasant recollections of one of the most successful entertainments of the school year.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Dr. Miser and his sisters. At the breakfast, which was served by the bride's mother, the bride's relatives were present. The decorations were pink peonies, pink and white carnations, and syringas. After the breakfast the wedding party, consisting of the Colonial Hotel, where the bride received a verbal message from her mother in Portland, who was unable to be present at the wedding. The message was sent in the form of a letter to the bride. Miss Miser received her mother's blessing by means of the phonograph. Dr. and Mrs. Miser left the day of the wedding for a coastal trip and will be at home after July 1, at 22 Bridge street, Cleveland.

Thompson-Illidge.
A very pretty home wedding took place on Monday, June 10, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Illidge, on King street, when her daughter, Miss Leah B. Illidge, was married to James Thompson. The floral decorations of the home were beautiful and very beautiful. In the reception room and parlor there was a profusion of La France roses and smilax, the cool green walls and furnishings being in delightful contrast. The dining-room decorations consisted of Jacqueminot roses, beautifully arranged, while upstairs La France roses were everywhere, except in the blue room, where the presents were displayed, and here the flowers were white. The marriage ceremony, the beautiful ring service of the Episcopal Church, was performed by Rev. George B. Van Waters, of St. Mary's Church, under a large five-pointed star of electric lights and La France roses. At 6 o'clock Mr. Yoder began to play Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the groom entered, accompanied by the best man, Charles Edward Bieker, who waited under the star of roses for the bride. Following the bridesmaids, Miss Leah Nelson and Miss Elva Friendly, the bride came down stairs, and as she reached her place the tiny lights in the rose star were turned on, giving a most lovely effect. During the ceremony Mr. Yoder played softly, "O Promise Me." The bride wore an exquisite gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with embroidered applique. Her veil was held by a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the bride's mother. The groom wore a suit of black and white, and they each carried La France roses. Mrs. Thompson, mother of the groom, wore a handsome gown of black silk, and Mrs. Illidge wore a very pretty dress of black and white. The bridesmaids were very beautifully gowned in white duchesse satin. A large number of guests were present, among them being Mrs. Robert Miller, of Spokane, and Miss Helen Brown, of Portland. The ceremony was a number of congratulatory telegrams were read. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have gone to Salt Lake City, and on their return will make their home at 71 Hoyt street.

The commencement hop given at the Hill Military Academy on Tuesday evening was a very largely-attended and brilliant affair. Blue and white, the academy colors, were festooned everywhere about the building, giving a very pretty and gay effect. In the armory, where the dance was given, the decorations were especially pretty. Conspicuous in the decorations were the letters "H. M. C." in blue and white, and the figures, "1902" while La France roses, in June profusion, also entered into the scheme of decoration. Parsons orchestra played for the dancing, which was enjoyed to the utmost by the cadets and their friends. The grand march, at 9 o'clock, was led by Major Von Egloffstein and Miss Bettison, and was very beautiful. The gowns worn were extremely pretty, everybody was in the gayest of spirits and the party was pronounced one of the most successful of the season now closing.

Leonide Fleury, Laura Fields, Mabel Devers, Thora Poulson, Rose Walls, Agnes Walls, Lillian Metchan, Godard, Mabel Waters, Minnie Wise, Mignon Edwards, Alice Benson, Blagen, Florence Blagen, Louise Carey, Genevieve Mays, Ella Seaf, Lauer, Henrietta Lauer, Walrath, Mildred Walrath, Pearl Bunker, Cooper, Sadie Sutherland, Corinne Sheldon, Barnes, Joy Barnes, Gladys Barnes, Munroe, Ethelroy Harris, Helen Doble, Noble, Janet Noble, Allen, Josephine Allen, Ruth Gray, Marion Gray, Ruth Bunker, Cooper, Hazel Brown, Margaret Drake, Mary Schwab, Palmer, Lucile Palmer, Grace Nicholson, Ella Doble, Maud Hahn, Leah Stratton, Vivian Baughen, Myrtle Scharfer, McGoldrick, Mary Bost, Clara Bost, Marie Smith, Jenkins, Carter, Kinnear, Maud Guilbert, Pearl Webber, Louise Williams, Hazel Tichner, Hazel Bean, June Sterling, Panay Sweener, Mary McArthur, Bell, Bessie Coleman, Ruth Scott, Elsie Lyons, Messrs, Laidlaw, R. G. Durham, Guilbert Durham, Robertson, Newman, Kaddery, Timplin, C. E. McDonnell, Bernard Fletcher, H. Nicolai, A. J. MacDonnell, Guy Trichter, Guy Wyman, Ray O'Connor, Bert Dumber, Fred Zimmerman, Oliver Walker, Liston Smith, Bert Clayton, Chauncey Bishop, Phil Hart, Clarence Lind, H. A. Metzchan, H. von Borsiel, Jordan Sterling, Marian Kennedy, Fred Breyman, Herbert von Kittinger, Claude Jolly, Jay Upton, James

Mrs. L. W. Sitton gave a reception yesterday afternoon from 2 to 5 to the teachers of the Portland schools, and the graduating class of the High School. About 400 people were present during the afternoon. The house was shaded and cool, and fragrant with the scent of La France roses, and was a most pleasant place to stop and chat in the midst of the warm summer afternoon. Mrs. Sitton is one of the members of the School Board, and who is very widely known among the teachers, and is very popular. She was assisted in receiving yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. F. Riley and Miss Spalding. In the dining-room delicious punch was served by Miss Whitehouse, Miss Frank and Miss McBride, while Miss Helen Harmon, Miss Evelyn Rigler and Miss Helen Rigler waited upon the guests in a very charming manner.

WEDDINGS.
Miser-Veiguth.
Miss Marie Josephine-Veiguth, daughter of Mrs. Marie Veiguth, of this city, was married to Dr. Thomas H. Miser, of Cleveland, O., in St. Stephen's Church, Cleveland, on June 11. Miss Veiguth, who went East several years ago to study music, was one of the most beautiful and talented girls in Portland, and was very popular among a large circle of friends. During the time Miss Veiguth has been away she has been very successful in singing, having appeared in many concerts and in grand opera. Dr. Miser, the fortunate man her choice, is known as one of the most popular and successful young physicians in Cleveland.

The wedding was a very beautiful affair; the church was decorated with white peonies and palms, and about 2000 guests were present. Father John G. Miser, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Seehaler, Rev. Kemp and Father Betchlin. Dr. Armand Prudhomme was best man and Miss Elisabeth Miser, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. The ushers were Michael Kiener, Charles Warner and Bernard Marsusart.

The bride, who is a blonde of the purest type, wore a beautiful bridal gown of white crepe de chine and chiffon, over

Mitchell-Pfunder.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Lillian E. Mitchell, of New York, to Miss Lillian R. Pfunder, daughter of Louis G. Pfunder, Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison performing the ceremony. The house was very beautifully decorated with La France roses and marguerites, the marguerites being used in honor of Miss Ely's school in New York, of which the daisy is the emblem. The bride wore a beautiful gown of old point lace over crepe de chine, and they each carried La France roses. The ceremony was performed under a bower of evergreens and white roses. The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of pompadour embroidered chiffon, trimmed with pearls and diamonds. She wore a necklace of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. The maid of honor, Miss Mattilda Von Kessler, of Helena, Mont., wore a most becoming gown of embroidered mousseline de soie, and carried a princess bouquet of pink carnations. Joseph O'Neil, of New York, was best man. After the ceremony the guests retired to the dining-room, where a reception was served and a number of cablegrams and telegrams of congratulation were read. The dining-room decorations were of roses and carnations, very artistically arranged. After the reception the bride left, amid a shower of rose leaves and confetti, for an extended tour of the East, their final destination being New York, which is to be their future home. The groom is a member of the brokerage firm of Redick, Mitchell & Co., and is very well and creditably known for his business ability.

Collins-Fleming.
The marriage of James J. Collins and Marcilla A. Fleming was solemnized at St. Lawrence Church Wednesday evening, June 13. Rev. John C. Hughes officiating. Miss Mattie Kelley presided at the organ, and at the conclusion of the ceremony the bride released "O Promise Me" in a most pleasing manner. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdy, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss May Fleming was maid of honor, Miss Clara Fleming bridesmaid and Miss Cora Fleming ring-bearer. The best man was Bert J. Dorney, and James H. Mulvey, James Burke, Harry Meder-nache and Thomas Maloney were ushers. Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, after which a delicious supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Collins have gone to North Beach and other seaside resorts, where they expect to remain several weeks.

Young-Newton.
Willis V. Young and Miss Lela Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Newton, were married on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, corner of Eleventh and Gant streets. The house was very prettily decorated with roses, and the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. H. McGlade, took place under a canopy of roses and ivy. The bride looked exceedingly pretty in a gown of white batiste. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. A great many handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Young have gone on a short wedding trip, and after their return, about July 1, they will be at home at 509 East Harrison street.

Carter-Carter.
E. M. Meach and Maud B. Carter were the central figures in a quiet wedding at the home of the groom's parents, 128 Morris street, on Wednesday evening, June 13. The marriage took place in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. H. C. Allen was best man and Miss Georgia Gillespie was bridesmaid. Rev. Albyn Eason, of the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church, was the officiating minister. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom departed, amid a shower of rice and good wishes, for Moro, Or., where they are to make their future home.

Campbell-Turner.
Charles E. Campbell, of this city, and Miss Jennie A. Turner, of Milwaukie, Wis., were married last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Campbell, on East Sixth street. Rev. E. W. St. Pierre, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. After partaking of a sumptuous wedding supper the bride and groom went away on a short wedding tour, and on their return will make their home in this city.

Fleider-Shogren.
At the home of the bride's father, Henry Shogren, on Grant avenue, Thursday, June 13, Miss Daley E. Shogren and William F. Fleider were united in marriage in the presence of a large circle of relatives and a few intimate friends. Rev. William E. Campbell, of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiated. The house was decorated in a charming manner, and immediately after the ceremony, which was at noon, an elaborate wedding breakfast was served.

I. GEVURTZ & SONS

THE HOMEFURNISHERS 173-175 First St., N.W. Cor. Yamhill

Eclipse Steel Range
No. 8. High closet $27.50

Garden Hose
3-4 inch, warranted per foot 10c

Dusters
5c each
500 Feather Dusters, very soft feathers. 5c each

Gem Ice Cream Freezers
1-qt. $1.25
2-qt. $1.50
3-qt. $1.75
4-qt. $2.00

BARGAINS IN CARPETS

Nowhere can you find such a magnificent array of up-to-date patterns and colorings in all grades of carpets. When it comes to price, we positively can save you money. We sell carpets at a very small profit, in order to build up a large carpet trade. If you want to get the lowest prices on carpets, you will give us a call. Here are a few of our carpet prices:
Royal Velvet Carpet, suitable for parlor and sitting room, worth $1.25, 5c yard
Smith's Brussels, an excellent wearing Brussels, worth $1.00, 5c yard
Higgins' best Brussels, swell patterns, worth $1.10, 5c yard
Axminster, best grade, beautiful patterns, worth $1.15, 5c yard
2 Wool Ingrain, worth $1.00, 5c yard
All-Wool Ingrain, extra heavy, worth $1.00, 5c yard

DANN ADJUSTABLE GO-CARTS

Back and front separately adjustable; when front is lowered step for feet is raised; rubber tires, patent brake; 20 styles, from $7.50 to $20.00. This very neat cart, handsome wicker work, $7.50

MATTING SPECIALS
Extra heavy seamless China matting, worth 25c yard, 15c
Linen warp matting, pretty carpet patterns, worth 40c, 25c

1000 RUGS, 25c
All-wool, 1 to 2 yards long. While they last, 25c each

SITKA REFRIGERATORS
Charcoal filled, white tile-lined, made of the best hardwood; from $7.50 to $10.00. Family size refrigerator, white tile-lined, $8.50

Rogers Knives & Forks
6 each. Triple-plate $2.95

Window Shades
All sizes made to order at lowest prices.

Sprinkling Cans
Medium size, best tin. 35c

8-Day Clocks
Solid oak case, strikes half hours $2.25

Gilbert Alarm Clock
Warranted one year. 77c

Mr. and Mrs. Fiedner left over the Northern Pacific at 2 P. M. for a short trip. They will be pleased to receive their friends in their new home, 687 East Ash street, after August 1.

Smith-Morrison.
Mr. Frank Brandon Smith, of Duluth, Minn., and Miss Charlotte May Morrison were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Morrison, 335 Multnomah street, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 13. Rev. H. S. Templeton, of Westminster Presbyterian Church, officiated. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, and met the groom and his best man, Mr. William Morrison, under a beautiful bower of smilax and roses. After the impressive Presbyterian wedding service a reception was held, and later the guests sat down to an elaborate wedding supper. Miss Bellinger received the ring in the wedding cake, and Miss Breyman caught the bride's bouquet. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of old point lace over crepe de chine. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Morrison, wore a gown of pale blue point d'esprit. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for their future home in Duluth, Minn., on the 11:30 train. During the year she has lived here Miss Morrison made many friends, who will deeply regret her departure. Mr. Smith is a well-known business man of Duluth.

Otteneheimer-Frank.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The wedding of Henry J. Otteneheimer, of Salem, Or., and Miss Alice May Frank, of San Francisco, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frank, 211 California street, at 1 o'clock P. M. Wednesday, June 13. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Younger. About 75 guests were present, all relatives or close friends of the contracting parties. The Frank residence was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, rare potted plants and ribbons tastefully strung from walls to chandeliers, and over the canopy under which the ceremony was performed. After the guests had extended congratulations and good wishes, all repaired to the dining-room, where a wedding breakfast was served.

The bride is an accomplished and talented member of San Francisco's best social circles. The groom is the well-known and popular Pacific Coast manager for Lillenthal Bros., of New York, with headquarters at Salem, Or., and has a host of friends throughout the entire Northwest. The newly married couple have gone south for a few days, after which they will visit Portland, Seattle and British Columbia, returning to Salem, Or., where they will make their home.

Griesback-O'Leary.
A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church Saturday, June 14, the contracting parties being Henry Griesback and Miss Julia O'Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Leary. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hogan. Mrs. Della Regan, a cousin of the bride, acted as matron of honor, and John O'Leary, brother of the bride, was best man. After the wedding they were driven to the home of the bride's cousin, Cornelius Regan, where a sumptuous supper was served to relatives and friends. Music and dancing were enjoyed till a late hour.

King-Diets.
A June wedding of the past week was that of G. Louis King and Miss Emma Diets. Rev. Mr. Hafner of the Reformed Lutheran Church, officiating. After the ceremony the bridal party was driven to 208 Macadam street, to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ober's, intimate friends of the bride and groom, where a delicious supper was served. At home to friends, 63 Seventh street, city.

Brown-Brager.
On Wednesday afternoon, June 12, at the home of the bride's mother, Miss Anna M. Brager and Mr. Claude D. Brown were united in marriage by the Rev. E. W. St. Pierre. Only members of the family were present. Following the ceremony a delicious lunch was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Brown left mid showers of rice and old shoes for a short trip up the Columbia.

Vail-Reed.
The wedding of Harry M. Vail and Miss Hattie M. Reed took place June 11 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Reed, at 12 East Twenty-second street. Rev. E. S. Memming, pastor of the Mount Tabor Methodist Church, performed the services. A wedding feast followed the ceremony, of which the wedding party partook. Mr. and Mrs. Vail are living at 12 East Twenty-second street. Both are well known and popular young people.

Long-Barnholzer.
Gibbs W. Long and Miss Laura Irene Barnholzer were married on June 15 at the manse of the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Rev. William S. Gilbert performing the ceremony. After the wedding a dainty supper was served to the immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Long have gone on a trip to the mountains, to be absent about a month.

King-Illidge.
S. W. King and Mrs. Dorothy Illidge were quietly married at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Illidge's home, on King street. Rev. George B. Van Waters performing the ceremony. After a trip to British Columbia, they will be at home at 240 King street.

Chance-Keup.
Charles H. Chance and Miss Eugenia Keup, both of Sumpter, were married at Sumpter, June 9, by Rev. James Byres, at the Presbyterian parsonage in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride. No cards.

Watkins-Moses.
At Los Angeles Miss Winnie A. Moses, of Portland, and Edwin Phillips Watkins, of Redlands, Cal., were married on Tuesday, June 17.

Heben-Stevens.
Mrs. Carril Stevens, formerly of Portland, was married to Mr. Max Heben, of Butte, Mont., on June 14.

ENGAGEMENTS.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hartman announce

PORTLAND GIRL WEDDED TO CLEVELAND PHYSICIAN

Mrs. Dr. Thomas Miser.

Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer.

Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Doble, Mrs. Pink, Mrs. MacEwan, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott, the Misses Whitehouse, Bettison, Smith, Huriburt, Lanyon, Denzell, Wyman, O'Connor, Mary O'Connor, May Batchelor, May Koshland, Marx, Oppenheimer, Sarah Winans, Sinclair, Rena Kuhn, Bessie Stuart, Jessie Hartman, Ina Ray, Willetta Leaser, May Blake, Ewola Miller, Lord, Nickels, Wasco Morris, DeBevoise, Edna DeBevoise, Marion DeBevoise, Donna Fletcher, Harlow, Marion Chase, MacEwan, Clara MacEwan, Irene Timms, Marion Brodie, Mabel Hammond, Marie Thompson, May (Ogawa), Ruth Maxwell, Benham, Caroline Benson, Virginia Winsor, Maids Hart,

SALEM BUSINESS MAN MARRIES A SAN FRANCISCO GIRL

the engagement of their daughter, Christine, to Mr. Anthony T. Niedermeier.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
On Tuesday evening, June 17, one of the most enjoyable reunions of St. Mary's Alumnae Association took place in St. Mary's Music Hall. The hall was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns, and a most effective scene was presented when at 8 o'clock a large representation of the