

On Wednesday evening last a quiet of Portland, Or., and Dr. Louis Fox Frissell, of New York, were married at the Congregational Church, in Simsbury, at 4 home wedding, at which only immediate relatives and friends were present, was solemnized at the home of Mrs. M. F. Cooke, 20 East Sixth street north, the of Newton, Mass. The bride was given occasion being the marriage of her daugh-ter, Agnes, to Judge W. L. Bradshaw, Montgomery, of Governor McLean's staff.

of The Dalles.

To the beautiful strains of the wedding error John S. Phelps, of Missouri, and march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. P. | Sreat-grandaughter of the late Hon. Elisha Phelps, of Simsbury, member of Congress and State Controller, Dr. Fris-P. Young, sister of the bride, the couple entered the parior, preceded by Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of the First Presbyterian Church, who read the solemn marriage graduated from Yale in the class of '66, service, after which soft strains of music and is house physician at the Presbyterian Hospital. Mrs. Phelps Montgomery, of made pleasing accompaniment to the con-

The bride was becomingly gowned in the brides sister: Miss Mary P. Eno. pale-green slik, daintily trimmed in lace Miss Ada McCrea, and Miss Lavina Fria-medallions and velvet ribbons, and carried a shower bouquet of La France ments were light and dainty.

Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw left for Calfornia on their wedding trip, and will be at home after August 15, at The Dailes.

WEDDINGS.

Frissell-Hontgomery.

Miss Antoineirs Mrs. Ant The rooms were prettlly decorated, and Miss Antoinette Montgomery, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, was married in Simsbury, Conn., last week to Dr. Louis Fox Prissell. Among the guests at the wedding was Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, of Portiand. The following account of the wedding appeared in the Hartford Daily Courant of June 19:

Courant of June 19:

"Miss Antoinette Wood Montgomery,
daughter of Mrs. James B. Montgomery.

Romaine, was united in marriage to James of Mispah Presbyterian Church, officiating. Only relatives and a few friends were present. To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Ida Stillwell, the groom and his best man. Ralph Bogart, marched from the hall to the canopy of white roses and white sweet peas, where they were met by the bride and bridesmaid, Miss Rena Berry, and the ceremony performed. After congratulations the most delicious refreshments were served, and Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell departed, amid a shower of rice, for a trip to Puget Sound and Vic-toria. Miss Luiu Nuckels, of Chicago, caught the bride's bouquet. The bride was attired in a beautiful white allk or-gandle and carried white carnations, while the bridesmald wore the same in pink; with pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Still-well will be at home after July 15 at their new cottage, 833 East Twenty-seventh

Stillwell, Rev. J. B. McGlade, pastor

The marriage of Harold G. Rice and Miss Grace Himes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Himes, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, was one of the pret-Mrs. George H. Annual of the preserve of the June weddings. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on Corbett street, and bride's parents on Corbett street, and ding march, and the bridesmald, Miss Mille Miller, and Herman Doering, the man entered, followed by the bride was attended by a large number of friends of the two young people, both of whom are very popular. The house was elaborately and very beautifully decorated for the occasion with marguerites, white carare very popular. The house was elaborately and very beautifully decorated for the occasion with marguerites, white carnations and La France roses. The parlor decorations were of green and white and those in the hall and dining-room were pink.

Allier Miller, and Herman Doering, the best man, entered, followed by the bride and bridegroom. During the ceremony, "Oh, Promise Me" was softly played by Miss Mattie Van Houten. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white silk organile, over white taffeta, and carried white pink.

As the wedding party entered the parlor, Edward Stemme played the wedding march from "Lohengrin." The coremony was performed by Dr. S. M. Freeland, of the First Congregational Church. The bridal party was led by four dainty little flower-girls. Fay and Lurah Himes, Arma Reid and Mildred Riggs, sisters and nieces of the bride. Louis Rice, the bridegroom's brother, was best man, and Miss Charlotte Thomas was bridesmaid. The bride was gowned in a snowy wedding dress of organdy, with a filmy vell, and looked very pretty. She carried a bouquet of white As the wedding party entered the parlor, little flower-girls were dressed in pink and blue dimity and each carried a backet of took place under a camppy of marguerites, ferns and lvy, a dainty wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will be at home after August 1 at 718 East

Miller-Krieger. Burnside street.

Howard-Adkins.

On Wednesday evening, June II, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins, at Heppner, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Elenora, to Professor William Carpenter Howard, of Oakendale, Wash J. was and the profession. dale, Wash. It was one of the prettiest weddings of the season, the residence be-ing tastefully decornted with roses, carnations and illies.

Promptly at 8 o'clock an appropriate song was sung by Miss Jennie Howard, of Spokane, sister of the groom, and the bride and groom entered the parlor unattended, where the ceremony of the M. E. Church South was pronounced. The bride was tastefully attired in gown of white peau de crepe, with chif-fon and applique trimmings, and carried a bunch of white carnations.

street, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. It was an ideal home wedding. The decorations were elaborate and transformed the spacious pariors into a veritable wed-ding bower. The marriage was solemnized under a festoon drapery of roses. During the service Miss Lillian Monk sang, soft-ity: "Oh, Promise Me." T. M. Collister was best man, and Miss McAllister was bridesmaid. An elegant wedding dinner was served. Among the numerous wedding presents conspicuous were a full set of Haviland china, presented by the employes in the china department of Olds, Wortman & King, where the groom is em-ployed, and a pearl crescent, the groom's gift to the bride.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdle, trimmed with chiffon and lace applique, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Gortler went to Puget Sound for a week's tour. After July 1 they will be at home at 391

On Monday evening, June 16, Mr. Stanley Sherman Soule was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Barch, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barch, of Payette, Idaho. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Davey in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. The bride, who is a most charming and talented young woman, was attired in an elegant gown of white satin and chiffon, and carried a bunch of rare orchids and maiden-hair ferns. The groom son, Yale, %, was best man, and the ushers were: Gifford Pinchot, Yale '89, Gov-ernment Forester, of Washington, D. C.;

Elisworth Eliot, Yale, '84; Linsiy P. Will-lams, Joseph S. Wheelwright, Yale '97, there were present many from this city, New York and Simabury, a reception was given by Mrs. Antoincite Eno Wood, for whom the bride is named, at the old Phelps homestead, built by Elinha Phelps.

grandfather of Mrs. Wood. Refreshments were served by Habenstein, and music was rendered by Hatch's orchestra."

Stillwell-Bogart.

A charming home wedding occurred the evening of June 26, at the residence of Morris L. Whitehend and Beasle L. Braden were married at the home of the bride's father, William Braden, 288 Clay street, on Morris L. Whitehead and Beaste L. Brasen were married at the nome of the orde's father, william Brasen. 288 Clay street, on Wednesday, June 25, at 8:30 P. M., Ber. William S. Gilbert officiating. Both parties are widely known in the city, the bride being of a pinneer family. Pifts guests, all relatives but two, were present. The house was literally transformed into a hower of flowers, estimating in a beautiful arch of marguerites and roses, under which the marriage service was prenounced; Leonard F. Sundborn was best man, and Pourl Summons was bridesmaid. Alex Oliver was second man, and May Limerick was second maid. Florence House played the march and entertained the company with a number of selections. Refreshments were served. The numerous presents we enough to completely furnish the new home at 195 Market street.

WEDDING OF MORRIS L. WHITEHEAD AND

MISS BESSIE L. BRADEN.

A very pretty weiding took place Wednesday evening, June II, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nasts, 254 Forter street, the occasion being the marriage of their eldest daughter. Agnes, to Mr. Frederick Walsh. Promptly at 8 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mies Virginia Multhauf, the couple entered the parior and took their places under a canopy of smilax and carnations, where they were met by Rev. S. C. Lapham, who pronounced the marriage ceremony. The bride was beautifully attired in white chiffon, with velt, and carried a large shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmald, Mies Louisa Nasts, sister of the bride, wore white organdle and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. Little Gertrude Shafer, niece of roses. Little Gertrude Shafer, niece of the bridegroom, prettily dressed in blue slik, acted as ring-bearer. Mr. Chester Bergcom was best man. After congratu-lations, the guests passed into the spa-cious and beautifully decorated dining-room, where they partook of a delicious supper. Many costly presents were re-ceived.

Brickell-Miller.

A very pretty home wedding took place on Tuesday, June M. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, M. Sixth street, when their daughter, Edythe, was mar-ried to Frank A. Brickell. The floral decorations of the house were elaborate and very beautiful, consisting of roses and malden-hair ferns. The dining-room decorations consisted of red roses and ferns, besutifully arranged. The marriage ceremony, the ring service of the Episcopai church, was performed by Rev. W. A. M. Breck. At 8:30 o'clock Miss Matie Van oweet peas. The bridesmaid's gown was of white Paris muslin over white silk. Many guests were present and the bride pretty. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Thomas wore pink organdy and carried pink carnations. The bride wore a lovely gown of biscuit-colored white little flower-girls were dressed in pink and blue dimity and each carried a basket of carnations. The house was tastefully decroses. After the marriage service, which task margineries took wises under a constant of the occasion with marguerites.

Miller-Krieger.

On Wednesday evening, June 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, 285 Benton street, Miss Mollie Krieger was married to Mr. Alfred Miller, Rev. C. A. Prissing officiating. The bride was dressed in a becoming costume of fleece-white linen. Her bouquet was of bride's roses, The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Krieger, sister of the bride, wore a pretty dress of tan silk organdie, carrying pink carna-tions. Mr. William Miller, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home on East Stark

Lore-Benson. Albert Lore and Marie Benson were married at the home of the bride's father, W. V. Benson, 137 Morris street, on Thursday, June 26, at 8:30 P. M., Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. William O. Davis was best man and Georgia Benson bridesmaid. Fifty guests were present. After music and refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. Lore went to their new home at Eightcenth and East Morrison streets.

Cole-Pierce.

Don A. Cole and Ada A. Pierce were married on Wednesday evening, June 15, at 8 P. M., at their own newly furnished cottage, 655 Taggart street, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Walter W. Wilson was best man and Laura M. Clarke bridesmald. The marriage was sole bridesmaid. The marriage was solemn-ized under an arch of roses, only immediate relatives being present.

West-Hawman. Wharton L. West and Viola Hawman were married at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church on Friday, June 27, at noon, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiat-ing. Mr. and Mrs. West will spend a week at Long Beach. Upon their return they will live at 458 Taylor street.

Hampton-King.

The wedding of Mr. J. Hampton and Miss Alice C. Kling took place Tuesday, June 24, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. King, at 89 East Elighth street. Rev. J. C. W. Deguire performed the ceremony.

McClelland-Gray. John W. W. McClelland, of this city, and Marguerite E. Gray, of Halsey, were married on Friday evening, June 13, at 8 P. M., at the manus of the Calvary Presbyterian Church of this city, Rev. Wil-liam S. Gilbert officiating.

Schalk-Jenkins. June 26, at the residence of the bride's father, by Dr. G. C. Cressey, Mr. George D. Schalk and Mrs Birdle L. Jenkins, both of Portland.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harrison announce the engagement of their daughter, Jessie Ethel Hume, to Captain William B. Buff fum, of Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jacobson, of San Francisco, announce the engagement of their daughter, Litta, to Mr. Henry William Goldstein, of Oroville, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Hubert announce the engagement of their only caughter. Helen, to Mr. Gustav Abendroth. The wedding is to take place in

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. F. A. Spencer gave a very charming card party on Thursday afternoon at her home, on Flanders street, for the benefit of St. Ann's Charitable Society. A large number of guests were present dur ing the afternoon, and the game of whist was very much enjoyed. The first prize was won by Miss Lawler, and the second by Mrs. King. The house decorations were exquisite. The lower hall was a bower of green and white-evergreen and marguerites. La France roses formed the parlor decorations, and the dining-room adornment consisted solely of sheafs of the beautiful blue korn blumen. While they were admiring the flowers that filled they were admiring the flowers that filled the rooms, the guests were also interested in examining Mrs. Spencer's pictures, for she is an accomplished artist, and has many color studies from European landscape. One of the most interesting of these is a sketch of the street in Barbizan where Millet lived when he was an unknown artist. Mrs. Spencer has also done a great deal of work in black and white, and before her marriage was one of the staff illustrators of McClure's Magazine. of McClure's Magazine.

Dr. C. Parke Poston and others gave a delightful launching party to a num-ber of friends Wednesday night. A stop was made at Ross Island, where lunch was made at Ross Island, where lunch was served by the gentlemen from the light of a huge bonfire built under the spreading branches of oak trees. After lunch the boat proceeded up the Willam-ette beyond Seilwood, and made the re-turn home by midnight. The party was composed of the following: Miss Male is a member of one of Portland's successful business firms. After partaking of a sumptuous wedding breakfast and receiving the best wishes from a host of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Soule departed for an extended wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends in Portland after July 1.

Naste-Walsh.

Staples, Misses Nina, Fay and Ance Rullingsworth, Miss Estella Hazard, Miss Clara Mayre, Misses Edna and Luella Haight, Miss Granger, Mrs. Carrington, Messra Clinton Haight, William Killingsworth, Claude Simpson, Robert Bell, Clinton Sharno, Dr. C. Parke Poston, Jay Upton and Mr. Carrington.

Sweet girl graduates clad in white were in evidence at the delightful dance given last night at Arion Hall by the High School Alumni in honor of the 76 members of the June class of 1902. Quite a number of older graduates and their friends attended, and the dance, coupled with the social time, was one of the most enloyable ever given by the alumni. For an evening in June, the weather was exceptionally sultable for a Summer dance, and these who were not present missed a ceptionally suitable for a Summer dance, and these who were not present missed a treat. If ever a committee worked hard over necessary arrangements to make the dance a success, the committee managing Friday night's rance did. It was at first proposed to treat graduates and friends to an outing under the leafy shades of Canemah, but fortune was against the plan. First came the burning of Madison-street bridge, and it then became son-street bridge, and it then became doubtful if the necessary extra cars could be secured. Then came the strike of the trolley-car employes, and it was found im-practicable to hire a steamer or go by steam cars. "Have a dance in Portland." was urged, and the result was Friday night's pleasant affair. So little time was left for preparation that Arion Hall was not elaborately decorated in honor of the occasion—the girls were the decorations. The patronesses were Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Neison, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Desendorf. Hall and music committee: Miss B. Monroe, Fred Noitner and Fred McCarver. Programme committee: Frank S. Bennett Miss May Season and Lloyd B. Wickersham. Justice of the Peace Kraemer, president of the Alumni Association, gave a kindly and graceful address of welcome, and a pleasing reply on behalf of come, and a pleasing reply on behalf of the June class was made by Ben Morrow. Fourteen numbers were danced, with four extras, and delightful music was supplied by Everest's Orchestra. It so happened that while the dance was going on the Arion Male Chorus Club had its usual re-hearsal in the same building, and at the invitation of the dance committee the Arion singers kindly sang a chorus, unac-companied, to the dancers, who listened with rapt attention. The singers were about 30 in number, and were heartily en-cored. Toward the close of the dance delicious refreshments were served on tete-a.

The musical and dramatic concert given by the pupils of the Sacred Heart School and the Musical Aid Club, at the Sacred Heart Hall, on Milwaukle stret, East Side, on Thursday evening, was a decided success. The hall was beautifully decorated, and presented an inviting appearance. Each part of the programme was well rendered, and great tact and ability displayed by the performers. At the close of the concert, Rev. Father Black, the popular pastor of St. Francis' Church, vered a brief, but very eloquent address, in which he complimented all who took part in the programme for their efficiency. The following is the programme:

Alarm

Aid Club.
Instrumental trio—"Festival March"
Misses H. Deters. M. Day, E. Sherrett.
Vocal chorus—"Angel Land"

Senior class.
Instrumental duet—"Merry Bells"

Misses G. Wanamacher, A. Mann.
Vocal chorus—"Owl Song"

Junior class.

Recitation

Mr. D

Mrs. W. H. Mills and Mrs. A. E. Rockey delightfully entertained a number of their friends on last Tuesday morning by taking them on an excursion to Grove. They started from Portland on a special car at 7:30 o'clock, reaching home at 6 o'clock in the evening. Breakfast and luncheon were served on the car, and at Forest Grove the party took carriages and enjoyed a drive along the country roads, which are now bordered by acres and acres of the blue corn-flowers, and are particularly lovely.

The Eliza Spaulding Cabin, No. 1. N. D. of O., were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. D. A. McRae, 346 Montgomery street, last Tuesday evening. At the conclusion of the business meeting, the company enjoyed charming musical selections by Miss McRae and Mr. Davis, after which a dainty lunch was served in the tastily-decorated dining-hall.

The singing of Miss Lillian Monk, the popular Portland contralto, at the Civic Improvement Association rally, was one improvement Association raily, was one of the most enjoyable events of the week in musical circles. Her numbers were: Nevin's "O. That We Two Were Maying," and, as an encore, Carrie Jacobs Bond's "Shadows," both of which were artistically rendered.

An enjoyable plano recital was given Monday evening at Parsons Hall, by the pupils of Miss Anna Fliedner. A large attendance of invited guests was present, who listened with marked apprecia

I. Gevurtz & Sons

The Homefurnishers 173-175 FIRST ST., N. W. COR. YAMHILL

kitchen Chairs

The chairs have four spindles, are golden oak finish, and retail all over Portland from 50c to 60c. We will sell these chairs Monday only from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. None sold to dealers. Not more than 3 to one customer.

A FEW SPECIALS

Which Will Interest Economical Buyers

DANN ADJUSTABLE GO-CARTS

Have all the latest improvements, back and front separately adjustable, rubber tires, best steel springs. We have them from $30.00 down to $6.95

ECLIPSE STEEL RANGES

Are the best bakers on earth. Have every improvement known to range makers, and are guaranteed 15 years. No. 8 Eclipse Steel Range, high closet,

$27.50

REFRIGERATORS

Made of best hardwood, charcoal filled, 30 styles, at $7.50

CARPETS

At Very Low Prices

We have an immense stock of beautiful Carpets. Our competitors admit that our prices are the lowest in the city. As a special for this week we offer Smith's best Brussels--excellent wearing carpet, in some very pretty patterns,

65c

WE SELL ON VERY EASY TERMS IF DESIRED.

tion to the IS well-rendered numbers of the programme. The pupils all played from memory, and showed marked ability in their interpretation. . . .

Tuesday afternoon a surprise picnic was given at Magoo's Park in honor of Miss LeRoy, who will soon leave for Boise City, Idaho, where, in September, she will ne the principalship of the Lincoln

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Monday, when the Thusnelda Lodge, No. 1, gave Mrs. A. Wicke a very pleas-ant surprise in honor of her fiftieth birthday. Numerous presents were received.

. . . A very enjoyable entertainment was given last Friday by the pupils of Miss Annie Mattingly's Kindergarten, which was witnessed by a large number of friends and parents of the children.

Miss Mignonne Edwardes and Minni Wise gave a delightful launching party to a few of their friends last Saturday evening on the launch Hartford.

COMING EVENTS.

In place of its regular monthly meeting the Forestry Club will hold a basket pic-nic at Cawego Saturday, July 5. Mem-bers of all the women's clubs of the city Mrs. E. H. Brooks left last Thursday

Society Personals. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kahn have gone to the beach, Sea View, Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Nash have gone

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. King have gone to San Francisco for a brief visit. Ned Falling and Lawrence Selling have returned from Yale University.

Luther Todd Hazen is spending his vacaion on a farm in Southern Oregon. Mrs. D. S. Peters left last week for a ofourn of several weeks in California. Mr. Arthur S. Gibbs and family, of Santa Barbara, Cal., are visiting in Portland. Mrs. Ada C. Hertsche has gone to Omaha for a few months' visit with her parents. Miss Gertrude Schacht left on Tuesday for a visit of a year with relatives in

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hazen returned come last Monday from an extended trip o Cailfornia. Mrs. Charles E. Curry and Master Clarence Curry, of Sun Francisco, are at the Hobart-Curtis. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Meyer leave this week for Alaska, where they will spend a YOUNG PORTLAND COUPLE WED William E. Rueppell and Miss Mabel Stevenson

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was the marriage of Mr. William E. Rueppell and Miss Mabel Stevenson, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tork, corner East Sherman and East Eighth streets, Wednesday, June 25. Mendelssohn's wedding march was of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tork, corner East Sherman and East Eighth streets, Wednesday, June 25. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Cronemberg, Walls the ceremony was being performed by Rev. Mead M. Bledsoe, of the Calvary Pupits Church, Mrs. Cronemberg played softly, "Oh, Promise Me," the effect being very pleasing. The bride was dressed in gray silk crops de office over pink taffeta, with chiffon trimmed with silk applique. She carried a becquet of bride's resex. The bridesmaid was Miss Effe May, who was becutifully dressed in pink organity over pink. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. Little Marie, Helt was the ring-bearer. She was attired in becoming white. Henry Jennings acted as best man. The fiscal decorations of the house were elaborate and beautiful. Miss Dottle Tork, of McMinnville, caught the bride's bouquet. The presents were numerous and costly. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, of this city. She is an accomplished young woman, and popular in Portland social circles. The grown Mr. Bluesell, is af employe of the Dayter Headware Company and its research and the present and control of the company of the property of the Dayter Headware Company. cies. The groom, Mr. Rueppell, is an employe of the Dayton Hardware Company, and is a young man of eterling character, and has a bright future before him in the business world. After the wedding a reception was held, and later the guests sat down to an elaborate wedding feast. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and invited guests.