

were married at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church Tuesday, July 1, at 8 P. M. Rev. Wm. B. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Benham left on the evening train for Tacoma, their future home.

Gano-Morris. Miss Nellie C. Morris, youngest daughter of Mrs. J. A. Morris, and Mr. Ray Gano, of Bremerton, Wash., were married on Tuesday, departing the same day for Spokane, where they will remain two months. From Spokane they will go to their future home, Winslow, Ariz.

Gardner-Knox. John Gardner and Ella Mildred Knox were married at the home of the bride's mother at 229 South Front street on Thursday, July 1, at 2:30 P. M., Rev. Wm. S. Gilbert officiating. Immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will live at 42 Gilman street.

Robinson-Loeb. Miss Allie Loeb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Loeb, was married July 5 to Mr. W. W. Robinson. Mr. Robinson is a popular young business man of this city. They left yesterday for a tour of the Puget Sound cities and will return on Thursday next.

Vermeire-Foley. Mr. Bernard Vermeire and Miss Margaret Foley were married Monday morning, June 29, at St. Francis Church, by the Rev. Father Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. Vermeire will be at home to their friends at No. 4 Union avenue, North, after July 13.

Schafer-Cupper. A pretty wedding was solemnized at All Saints' Church in Heppner, Wednesday morning, July 5, at 9 o'clock, in the marriage of Miss Ethel Cupper and Oscar H. A. Cupper, of Monument, to Oscar Schafer, Rev. W. E. Pettivine officiating.

Williams-Earhart. Albert Williams of Astoria and Marie Earhart were married at 283 Third street on Wednesday, July 5, at 1 P. M., Rev. Wm. S. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will live in Astoria.

North-Mayfield. At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. R. R. Dunlap, near Highland, Clackamas County, on July 1, Mr. Fred W. North was married to Miss Zona Mayfield.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. The following is from the San Leandro Reporter, San Leandro, Cal.: "Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McLaughlin arranged a reception on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. McLaughlin's brother, William Wallace, and his newly-wedded and most charming wife, Helen. The reception was held at the residence of Mrs. McLaughlin, which was neatly arranged for the occasion and the young couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations from all present. After congratulations, games were indulged in until later in the evening, when the guests were seated around the tables, upon which a fine collation was spread. Toasts were heartily responded to, the principal answer being delivered by Mr. Banks. This gentleman, who is a rising young attorney and has just been elected to the Oregon State Legislature, proved himself a gifted speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Banks started for their home in Portland, Or. on Wednesday. On their way they stop at several points of interest in California."

The graduating nurses of Good Samaritan Hospital were given a very delightful party on Thursday evening by the members of the Junior class. The decorations of the nurses' home at Twenty-second and Leveoy streets, where the party was given, were very elaborate and were exceedingly pretty. The color scheme was red, white and blue. Flags were draped against the walls and among branches and greenery twinkled red, white and blue electric lights. Dances were enjoyed until 12 o'clock, and dainty refreshments were served. About 50 guests were present. The graduating class, in whose honor the party was given, is as follows: Miss Hammond, Miss Boyd, Miss Ayerest, Miss Montague, Miss Scott, Miss Rich, Miss Thomas, Miss Miles, Miss Ward, Mrs. Katherine Edris, Miss Shaw, Miss Callender.

A most delightful matinee musicale was given last Saturday afternoon by the pupils of Miss Grace Wilton. The musicale, which was given at Miss Wilton's home, was attended by a number of mothers and friends, all of whom were pleased with the entertainment. Selections from Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin, Grieg, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Heiler and Strabner were well rendered. Miss Rita Albo received special praise for her work, her interpretation and expression being excellent. Among the younger students who have commenced their musical education

Bennett-Luders. Thomas Harvey Bennett and Miss Florence Luders were married at Vancouver, Wash., June 25, at the residence of Rev. Dr. Little, who performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will be at home at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. W. Gambert, corner East Twenty-sixth and Main streets.

Benham-Herrod. D. B. Benham, of Tacoma, Wash., and Mary E. Herrod, of Rochester, N. Y., were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ladd, at 1000 Kelly street.

Warren-McDonald. The marriage of Angus McDonald, of Nehalem, Mont., and Miss Alice Lenore Warren was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 25, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Belknap. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Foster, of the Presbyterian Church, of Knappa. The wedding was attended by played by Mrs. H. C. Thompson. The ceremony took place under festoons of white roses. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk organza, carrying pink La France roses. The decorations were beautiful, consisting of pink and white roses throughout the spacious rooms. After congratulations by the relatives and intimate friends, refreshments were served in the large dining-room.

Curry-Fagothey. One of the prettiest weddings of the week was the marriage of Mr. Frank Hargraves, of San Francisco, and Miss Lillian Curry, of the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Curry, 411 East Mill street, Wednesday evening, July 2. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Black. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of gray crepe de chine and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Rose Russell, while Mr. Lou Penton was the best man. The floral decorations of the house were elaborate and beautiful. After the ceremony an elegant wedding supper was served to some 40 relatives and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fagothey left on the evening train for their future home in San Francisco.

Norris-Hansen. The last of the June weddings in La Grande was the marriage Monday evening of Miss Lulu May Hansen to Charles H. Norris, at that place. The wedding took place at the Presbyterian Church at 6 o'clock. Over 200 guests were in attendance. The bride was attended by Miss Jeanette Clark as bridesmaid, Robert Newlin was best man, and the ushers were James E. Smith, Sherwood Williams, George Hansen, Jr., and Thomas L. Williams. Rev. W. L. Van Noy performed the ceremony and Mrs. Woodard W. Berry played the wedding march. A reception was tendered the guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Norris will reside in La Grande.

McGrath-Stirber. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Woodburn on Tuesday, June 12, J. William McGrath and Miss Barbara Stirber being united in marriage. Rev. Father Leveque officiated. The altar was tastefully decorated with roses and ever-during the year, and who have made very rapid progress, are: Daisy Gibson, Leola Strubbe, Blanche Belding, Hazel Belding, Isabel Beckwith, Zedie McKenzie, Beryl Sutherland and Johnny Hincks.

Last Monday evening Miss Myrtle B. Moffet entertained a few of her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moffet, on Seventeenth and Kearney streets. The house was prettily decorated with pink La France roses, vases, Oregon grape ferns, fronds and ivy. The first game of the evening was whist, at which Miss Laura Northrup won the first prize, and Miss Lillian Mock the consolation. Refreshments were then served, after which the memory test, of recalling the names of well-known "people of the day," caused considerable merriment. The first prize at this game was won by drawing straws, which was awarded to Miss Gertrude Pratt. Mr. T. C. Cole won the consolation.

Mrs. W. A. Gordon entertained the members of the Women's Alliance and the several banquets of the Unitarian Church Wednesday afternoon at her home, 618 Carter street, Portland Heights. This was the last meeting of the season and in honor of the occasion the handsome apartments were resplendent with decorations. The reception hall and parlors were adorned with ferns, sprays and fragrant lilies. The dining-room was exquisitely decorated with La France roses and sweet peas. A short business session was held, after which delicious refreshments were served at table-tete tables. Forty-two members were present.

Mrs. S. Button gave a very delightful party on Friday evening, June 27, at her home, on Corbett street, in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Button. Ping pong, whist and music were enjoyed during the evening, a number of charming vocal selections being given by Miss Elizabeth. Toward the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. S. Buchanan gave an afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George Foreythe, of San Francisco, last Wednesday.

COMING EVENTS. A novel and delightful lawn fete, for the benefit of the Seaman's Institute, will be given in the beautiful grounds of the Welder home, corner of Nineteenth and Leveoy streets, on the evening of July 13. The grounds will be illuminated and the booths decorated in an artistic color scheme. The following ladies will provide for the booths: Mrs. F. L. Kellock, Mrs. Hamilton Brooke, Miss Sansbury, Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens, Mrs. J. P. Grayson, Miss May Hirsch, Miss Hexter, Miss Helen Goss, Miss Burns and Miss Evelyn Newman.

A celebrated pianist from the far East will be present, and mandolin and guitar clubs will play sweet string music. As the cause is a worthy one, the affair will no doubt receive liberal patronage from the Portland public.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE. The Indo-American League will hold its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the W. C. T. U. headquarters at 1200 Broadway.

SOCIETY PERSONALS. Chester Struble is spending a vacation at a gifted speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Banks started for their home in Portland, Or. on Wednesday. On their way they stop at several points of interest in California.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

I. GEVURTZ & SONS
THE HOMEFURNISHERS
173-175 First St., N.W. Cor. Yamhill

$6.00 BEDS NOW $4.25
Very neat bed, pretty enamel spinners, four coats white enamel; regular $6.00, now $4.25

$12.00 BEDS NOW $7.50
This pretty bed, bow front brass rail on head and foot, brass knobs, four brass spinners, in blue, white, or green enamel; regular $12.00, now $7.50

Screen Safes, 75c.
Safe, like cut, well made and strong, screen on three sides, door in front. Sold three days only. No delivery charge. Come to dealers. Worth it.

$18.00 BEDS NOW $12.00
Very pretty bed, like cut, handsome brass trimmings, of scrolls, pretty iron work in all colors; regular $18.00, now $12.00

$23.00 BEDS NOW $17.00
This beautiful iron bed, handsome brass work, bent scrolls and columns, very pretty twisted work in all colors, well worth $23.00 this week, $17.00 guests of Mrs. Chase at Honorius cottage, North Beach.

WE SELL ON EASY TERMS IF DESIRED.

Mrs. Thomas Moffet and Miss Myrtle Moffet have gone to Moffet's Springs for the summer.

Mrs. Arthur E. Veluth, of Bakersfield, Cal., formerly of Portland, is in the city visiting friends.

Madam Buck, of Vancouver, B. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. M. Brengren, at 530 Sixth street.

Mrs. Ida Lelienweber, of Astoria, has returned home after a week's visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Otto Rothschild and children leave tonight for a two months' visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. W. H. Hudson left on Thursday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Spencer, of Brownsville.

Mrs. Clyde J. Chamberlain, of Tacoma, is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. S. Samuels, at 509 East Davis street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer and Miss Hazel Blumauer left Tuesday evening for a visit to San Francisco.

The Misses Eta and Nora Stewart will leave on tonight's steamer for a visit to friends in San Francisco.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Stern, accompanied by their son Ralph, have gone for an extended trip abroad.

Norman Pease has returned from Cornell University, and will spend the summer with his parents in this city.

Mrs. Carrie Browne Dexter, soprano soloist of the First Presbyterian Church, of Oakland, Cal., is a guest at the Imperial.

John D. Carson, who has been attending a reunion of the class of '99, at Yale University, is expected home in a few days.

The Misses Mamie and Cora Haslam have gone to Salem, where they are the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. L. P. Adams.

A. L. Nelson and wife, who formerly resided in Portland and are now residents of Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting friends in this city.

Mr. Tris Richardson and wife, of Wichita, Kan., are visiting in Portland, being the guests of Mr. A. J. Farmer, Mrs. Richardson's brother.

Miss Katie Duncan, Miss Frances Edwards and Miss Macgough, of San Francisco, are spending a few weeks with Portland friends.

Samuel Elliot, son of Rev. T. L. Elliot, has returned from St. Louis, where he completed his freshman year at Washington University.

Miss Grace Saylor, daughter of Dr. W. H. Saylor, of this city, has returned home after spending the winter in Santa Barbara and Redlands, Cal.

Miss Johanna Cramer, a teacher in the Woodlawn schools, Miss Madge Cramer and Gustave Cramer, left Tuesday for a few months' outing at the Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Clayton and son Harry, of Orange, Cal., are in the city on a visit with Mrs. Clayton's sister, Mrs. Dr. L. A. Kent, 23 Eleventh street.

H. C. Hall, of Paxton, Illinois, who has been visiting with his cousin, Mrs. E. J. Irwin, 109 Hill street, for the past two weeks, returned to his home Monday.

Mrs. William D. Opydyck and son Cyril, of Seattle, are visiting Mrs. Opydyck's sister, Mrs. John Barnes, 50 Clifton street, until they remain several weeks.

Miss Theresa Neustadter arrived last week from Salsburg, Germany, and is stopping with her aunt, Mrs. P. Feldman, 38 Ella street, where she will make her future home.

Hon. and Mrs. R. S. Sheridan and children, of Boise, Idaho, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mack. They will go to North Beach in a few days to spend the season.

Mrs. Fanny Wallace, of Upper Albina, returned to the city Thursday, after visiting a week with Mrs. Hetich and sister, Miss May Morton, at Astoria and Beasley.

Miss Flora L. Vincent, who has been attending the State Normal School at Albion, Idaho, having completed the two-year course and received a state certificate, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. M. G. Hall and daughters, who have been spending the past 15 months in Kirksville, Mo., have returned home. Miss Hazel Hall, who has been undergoing osteopathic treatment, is improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Banks arrived last week from their wedding trip, during which they visited San Francisco and points of interest in Southern California. On the way up they stopped several days at Shasta Springs.

Mrs. C. H. Warren, widow of late Major C. H. Warren, desires to lease a limited number of young ladies abroad. Call 2654 Seventh, 9 to 12 A. M. Phone Front 1211.

home Monday, after a week's visit with Mrs. W. L. Miller, of Canandaigua.

Misses Lois and Alice Peebles, of Weston, were the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Robert A. Miller in Gladstone Wednesday.

Miss Elma Albright returned Wednesday from a three weeks' visit at Clatskanie, where she was the guest of Miss Laurie Conyers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Williams, nee Miss Priscilla Hoeflein, of Newport, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams in Gladstone.

Judge and Mrs. T. F. Cowing and Mrs. F. E. DeParco left Wednesday for Seattle to visit relatives. They will tour Washington and British Columbia and will be absent a month.

J. W. Bertlan returned from a month's vacation in the East Wednesday and left Friday morning for Rogue River to receive charge of the United States Fish Commission at that point.

The marriage of Miss Anna M. Neffzer to C. P. Andrews was solemnized Thursday morning at the Congregational Church. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Newport. Upon their return they will make their home on the Andrews farm at Highland.

Salem.
Mrs. N. J. Damon is at Newport on her summer vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Irvine have gone to Seal Rock for the summer.
Mrs. J. E. Allison has returned from a visit to her mother at Brooks.
Mrs. Ralph L. Carter, of Spokane, is a guest of Mrs. R. J. Hendricks.
Mr. Alvin Davanport, of Silverton, was guest of Salem friends this week.
Miss Carrie Watts, of Forest Grove, is a guest at the home of Mrs. W. H. Byrd.
Chauncey Bishop, of Portland, spent the Fourth visiting relatives and friends in Salem.
President J. H. Orcutt, of the Drain Normal School, spent last Tuesday in Salem.
Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Miss Ruth Gatch were guests of friends in Seattle this week.
Miss Minnie Gules, of Woodburn, spent a few days this week visiting Mrs. E. C. Patton, of this city.
Miss Caroline Kamm, of Portland, was in the city this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Brown.
Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, of this city, attended the Riggs-Rowell wedding at Albany last Wednesday.
Mrs. Belle Wise, who has been visiting Mrs. James Gill, returned to her home in Astoria Thursday.
Mrs. C. E. Getzer has returned to her home in Forest Grove after a short visit with Miss Lulu Nicklin, in this city.
State Senator J. E. Hunt and daughters, of Portland, spent a day in Salem this week visiting the state institutions.
Mr. A. N. Bush returned Tuesday from a tour of the Eastern States. Mr. A. N. Bush is expected home about July 15.
Mrs. Henrietta Dillon and sister, Mrs. Knight Armstrong, of Condon, Ind., are visiting at the home of General W. H. Odell.
Miss Bertha Slater has returned to her home in La Grande after a brief visit in the home of her brother, W. T. Slater, of this city.
Miss Agnes Gilbert returned the first of the week from an extended tour of Europe. She spent several months studying art in Paris.
Hon. H. J. Roetvel, of Ellsworth, Kan., is a guest of his cousin, Anthony C. Kord, of this city. Mr. Roetvel is a member of the Kansas Legislature.
Eugene Breyman has returned from a visit to New York City, where he went last winter for the benefit of his health, which is somewhat improved.

Baker City.
H. Vandevreer and Miss Jimima Jones were married at the residence of the bride's parents at South Baker Monday evening. A large company of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony, and participated in the reception, which followed.
Mrs. Joseph Burton, of South Baker, gave a house party at her home Wednesday evening. The reception-rooms were very prettily decorated. About 30 guests were present. Cards and music made the evening pass very pleasantly. Instrumental selections by Miss Edna Burton and songs by Miss Nellie Thompson and Mrs. Belmont, were features of a well-arranged programme. Refreshments were served.
Mrs. J. H. Parker entertained a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon. The color scheme of the decorations was red, white and blue. Red and white flowers tied with blue ribbon abounded everywhere. Mrs. Parker was assisted in receiving by Mesdames H. Bamberger, C.

Astoria.
Mrs. F. I. Dunbar, of Salem, is visiting Dr. H. G. Van Duak.
Dr. E. Dewitt Connell, of Portland, visited Dr. Estes this week.
Miss Laura Fox entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club this week.
Mrs. S. Danziger, of San Francisco, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.
Miss Harriet Thiant gave a most enjoyable salubrious party to Olney, Friday.
Mrs. Walter W. Ridenbaugh has returned from visiting her sister, Mrs. Carlton B. Allen, at Ilwaco.
Miss Violet Bowley gave a reception Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Rodgers, of California.
Mrs. C. H. Cooper and family are now occupying their cottage, "Danvers," at Seaside, for the summer.
Misses Nellie and Katie Flavel have returned to their home in this city, after an absence of several months.
Judge J. H. D. Gray and son Harry have gone to White Salmon, where they will remain for several weeks for the benefit of Judge Gray's health.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Thompson and Miss Emma Warren visited Knappa Wednesday to attend the wedding of Miss Alice Warren to Angus McDonald, of Astoria.

Engene.
Mrs. H. E. Ankeny is visiting in Jacksonville.
Miss Stella Monroe is visiting friends at Salem.
Miss Ada Hanson visited relatives in Cottage Grove Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Krause, of Portland, are visiting relatives here.
George M. Miller arrived here from Seattle Thursday for a short visit.
Miss Grace Campbell, of Sumpter, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Cheabire.
Mrs. Emma Thompson and Miss De Ankeny have gone to Newport for a brief outing.
Add Brown, Miss Edith Brown and Miss Julia Mathews, of Portland, arrived here Tuesday. They will spend their vacation

OREGON.
Oregon City.
Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Portland, visited relatives in this city the first of the week.
Mrs. Frank Busch and sons left Saturday for Elkwood ranch on an extended outing.
Miss Edith Hershman, of Ilwaco, Wash., was the guest of Miss Veda Williams last Monday.
Miss Anclie Sally, of Portland, returned

PRIZE-WINNING AUTOMOBILE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. The first prize for the best-decorated automobile in the Fourth of July parade was won by Dr. C. B. Brown. This was beautifully decorated, and carried a boy dressed as Uncle Sam, who was driving the eagle, which with its wings outspread presented to the spectators the illusion that it was furnishing the motive power. On the second seat were two girls, dressed in costumes, one to represent Columbia and the other to symbolize the Lewis and Clark Fair.

The Pianola
Manufactured and for sale only by
THE AEOLIAN COMPANY,
M. B. Wells, Sole Northwest Agt., 353-355 Washington st., cor. Park