WEDDINGS.

Trenkman-Shofner.

Trenkman-Shoiner. One of the pretilest of the Summer wed-dings took place Wednesday, July 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shoiner, on Portland Heights, when their eldest daughter, Elizabeth, was united in mar-riage to Benjamin T. Trenkman. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, delicate Indian arrow-wood and strategic beautifully decorated for the graceful branches of the syringa chang-ing the pariors into a veritable wildwood bower. In the dining-room, where the color scheme was yellow, vivid nastur-tiums gleamed like gold through the bright green leaves of the Oregon grape. At 6 o'clock, to the soft strains of the wedding march, the bride and groom weeding march, the bride and groom entered the parlor and stood beneath a canopy of white blossoms, while Rev. Alexender Blackburn pronounced the marriage ceremony. The bride tooked charming in a gown of white filusion trimmed with duchense point and white softh either. She ware hor mether's wed. satin ribbon. She wore her mother's wed-ding vell and carried a bauquet of bride's roses. After the short but impressive ceremony the company repaired to the dining-rooms where a delicious wedding supper awaited them.
