CHAUTAUQUA AT AN END

ANNUAL ASSEMBLY CLOSES AT GLADSTONE PARK.

Colonel Sobieski Gives Reminiscences of Civil War-Oregon City Wins at Baseball.

GLADSTONE PARK, July 19.-The most successful Chautauoua Assembly ever held in this state came to a close here this evening, and a large crowd was on the grounds to witness the last programme, which was an exceptionally fine one.

In the morning, from 8 to 11, the classes met and finished their work, and at 11 a programme was given by the pupils of the Chemawa Indian Training School, which was very interesting, being witnessed by a large number of the friends of the school.

The following is the programme that

Piano solo-"En Route" (Sidney Smith) Recitation—(a) "Mixed Receipt"
(b) "Her Name"...... Ethel Parrish

At 2 o'clock the Cecelian Quartet, of Williamette University, opened the atternoon exercises by singing "Jack and Gill," responding to a hearty encore with "A Swiss Love Song."

Colonel Sobleski's Reminiscences. Colonel John Sobleski was then introduced and gave another of his delightful

Colonel Sobieski told of his entering the Army in 1855, when he was but 12 years of age. Franklin Pierce was then Prestdent, and Jefferson Davis Secretary of War. General Winfield Scott commanded the Army, which at that time consisted of 2000 men all told. He told of his first campaign, the celebrated expedition across the plains under Albert Sydney Johnston in 1857, when Brigham Young rebeited against the United States. He told of the many campaigns against the Indians, relating many of his experiences while on

At the outbreak of the Civil War his battery was called to Washington to assist at the inauguration of President Lin-coin.

The speaker told of the many great butties he went through while he was with the Army of the Potomac. Colonel Sobieski gave vivid descriptions of the battie between the Monitor and the Merrimac, the charge of the Irish brigade at the buttle of Fredericksburg, the charge of the Tenth Pennsylvania under Colonel Kenner at the buttle of Changellorsville. Kenney at the battle of Chancellorsville, and Lee's surrender in 1885. "Thus the great conflict ended. The mistake of our fathers had been atoned for. In the Constitutional convention of 1788, Gover-nor Morris said, 'We have met here for the purpose of launching a free govern-ment. Let us do our work so wisely that there shall be no trouble for our children in the future. Let us begin by providing for the abolishment of human slavery. If we fall in this, the fabric that we seek to creet will tumble down over the ears of our descendants. The advice was unheeded, and when the earthquake occurred in the care. curred in 1861, a chaem opened sufficiently wide to permit 500,000 of the noblest and bravest of our country to be engulfed. Let us hope that the statesmen of the future will act wiser and that our country never again shall be scourged by a civil war."
At the close of the lecture Colonel Sobieski was heartly applauded, and crowds gathered around the platform to shake hands with the distinguished speaker.

Oregon City Wins Baseball. At 3:20 an exhibition game of baseball was played between the Oregon City team and the Chemawa nine, Oregon City win-ning by a score of 12 to 8. Until the fifth inning the Chemawa boys were in th lead, but in the sixth they went up in the air and lost the game. In the ninth the Indians made a great attempt to overcome Oregon City's lead of seven runs, and suc-ceeded in making three after two men were out. Their fireworks were soon over with, and the game ended with the score 12 to 8 in Oregon City's favor.

Evening Programme.

In the evening Miss Minnie Hamili gave another of her delightful readings. first number was "The Bugle Song," given in an artistic manner. Miss Hamili then gave "The Tones of the Bells," which was received with great applause by the large audience. The next number on the programme was "The Daisy Chain," a song cycle by Lina Lehmann. The following noted singers took part: Mrs. Albert Sheldon, soprano; Mrs. Walter Reed, con-tralto; William Belcher, tenor; Dom Zan, bass. Edgar Coursen was the accompanist. It proved to be one of the finest en-tertainments given at Chautauqua this year, and was thoroughly enjoyed by those who heard it.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua
Alumni Society held a meeting this afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. A. B. Manfor the ensuing year: Mrs. A. B. Man-ley, president; Mrs. J. M. Laue, vicepresident; Mrs. Emma Galloway, secre-tary, and Mrs. J. P. Apperson, treasurer, Much enthusiasm was shown at the meeting, and several new names were added

The Baptist Chautauqua or Summer Asnembly for Bible study, under the direc-tion of the Portland Baptist Ministers Union, will convene at Gladstone Park next Monday. Classes will be held from July 21 to 21.

No officers were elected at the business meeting, a majority of the stock not being represented at the meeting. The election will be held Tuesday, September 16.
