

One of the most charming parties of reaching their destination amused them the season was given by Miss Fanny selves by building a big bonfire and with Brown, on Wednesday night, in honor of Miss Melita Pearl of San Francisco Datesman and Miss Jones gave a charm-Brown, on Wednesday night, in honor of Miss Melita Pearl, of San Francisco, of Miss Melita Pearl, of San Francisco.

The feature of the evening was a ping pong tournament, the tables being placed both on the lawn and in the house. The ladles' finals were played off between Miss Rachel Josephi and Miss Ruth Master Joseph Kelve was a very felly Mrs. Khurle Lett Portland by steamer. Mirs Rachel Josephi and Miss Ruth Maxwell; the gentlemen's between Jordan Zan and Maurice Cheal. Miss Josephi and Mr. Cheal were the fortunate ones, and were most beautifully rewarded for their hard work. Among those present were: Misses Jordan, Heitshu, Pease, Maxwell, Honeyman, Josephi, Warren, Lavelle, Weidler, Jackson, Lawson, Sobey, and Messrs. Whitehouse, Zan, Riley, Gerlinger, West, Maxwell, Honeyman, Teal, Cheal, Woodward and others.

Announcements were received in Portland during the week of the marriage in Scattle of Mr. James S. Goldsmith, brother of Mr. Louis Goldsmith, of this city, to Mies Carlotta Althea Ketchum. The wedding took place on Wednesday aftermoon at 5:30 at the home of the bride's mother at 1824 Eighteenth avenue. Mr. Goldsmith is one of the best-known and most influential business men in Seattle, and his bride, who is both beautiful and accomplished, comes from one of the oldest families in that city. Immediately after, the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Goidsmith left for a trip to Vancouver. After nce of two weeks they will return

One of the pleasantest events of the line, leaving the city at 8:30 o'clock. and arriving at Canemah on hour later. At the Park dancing was the evening's amusement. A delicious lunch was served, after which the homeward journey was begun. A trio furnished ex-Gerlinger's guests were: Mr. and home of Mrs. LaTourette. W. W. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. O'Day, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tarpley, Mrs. B. Gerlinger Dalton, Miss Ailen, Miss Scott, Miss Brown, Miss Pease, of San Francisco; the Misses Lavelle, the Misses Cranston; Messes. F. M. Warren Jr., Lane Tanybill, of Baltimore, Md.; orge West, Howard Holland, H. L. wers. Jordan Zan, Morris Whitehouse, David Honeyman and George Gerlinger.

A jolly party of young people spent Friday evening on the steam launch Hoo father, Hoo, going down the Willamette River and up the Columbia to Vancouver, re- Oesch, of Portland, maid of honor, turning to the city at midnight. The party was given by a number of young ladies in return for a similar excursion by the young men two weeks ago. Those who gown of gray silk organide and carried an so successfully planned and carried out arm bouquet of white and pink carnations. the affair were: The Misses Warren, Helen Goss, Parker, Barrett, Burns, Gladys Weddler, Margaret Walter, Parker and Nannie Robertson. The guests were: Mesere Sladen, Fred Strons, Robert Strong, Williams, Robertson, Chester Sewell, Siaden, Koehler, Newman, George Warren, Cadweloder Jones, Fred Morey and Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Labbe.

Miss Helen Goss gave an afternoon card party on Friday, the guest of honor beof hearts was played during the after-noon, prizes being won by Miss Carlotta flowers. After the ceremony a large Parker and Mire Inex Barrett. The guests party of the relatives and immediate of the occasion were: Miss Smith, the friends of the bride and groom were driven Misses Sitton, the Misses Falling, the to "The Grange" ranch, the former home Misses Strong, Miss Kathline Burns, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Crowley, Miss Hazel Croker, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Honeyman, Miss Luiu Hall, Miss Barker, Miss Henrietta Ellot, Miss Barber, Miss Hearle, Miss Rachel Josephi, Miss Sewell and Miss Ainslie,

One of the largest and most delightful boating parties ever given on the Willamette was the moonlight excursion to colors. At noon the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Skeels, of Scholl's young men who live at the Norton. A Ferry. Or., the bride's former pastor, large barge, attached to the steamer Pathe bride, attired in organdy and carrioma, was fitted up for the occasion with everything to make a luxurious pleasure bridesmaid, Miss Lide Bramhall. John craft. A new floor was lable and covered. inmette was the moonlight excursion to craft. A new floor was laid and covered with canvas for dancing, and at one end played Lobengrin's march after the caremon's were served. The barge was elaborately decorated with evergreens, palme and Chinese landars. orately decorated with evergreens, palms under the trees in the yard. Here plake and Chinese lanterns. Music for dancing and white were the colors for the table was provided by the German band, whose beautiful Strauss waitzes are getting to be very well known and much in demand for dances. The catering for the party was done by the Arlington Club.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

On Tuesday evening, after holding a short business session and initiating a candidate for membership, Mount Hood Circle, No. 151. Women of Woodcraft, threw open their doors in welcome to Multinomah Camp. No. 77, and Sunnyside Camp. No. 159. Woodmen of the World. A fine programme was rendered, after which beautifully decorated baskets, which had been filled with dainty lunches by the ladies, were soid at auction to the highest hidders, causing not a little meeri. highest hidders, causing not a little merri-highest hidders, causing not a little merri-ment. J. A. Murphy acted as auctioneer, ment. J. A. Murphy acted as auctioneer, ment. J. A. Murphy acted as auctioneer, and a member of a prominent New York family. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will return quet hull. Returning to the main hall, to New York September 1, and will make dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. music being furnished by Everest's or-their monthly social meeting at a benutiful spot on the river bank near Sellwood, on Monday evening, instead of in the church parlors, as usual. The party, numbering about 66, went up early in the evening on the Oregon City car, and on March." The bride, gowned in white or their monthly social meeting at a beauti-

Master Joseph Kehne gave a very jelly birthday party on Saturday evening, July 19, at his home at 180 East Seventh street After a luncheon of ice cream and other Summer delicacies, the boys were enter-tained with games and music. Master Dwight Miller, one of the guests, played several plane selections in a manner which showed a mastery of the instrument remarkable in a boy of his age. Those present were as follows: Charles Chgwell, Adolph Harr, Donald Rowe, Claude Hicks, Dwight Miller, Edward Lyons, Harold Lyons, George Colfer, John Colfer and Joseph Kelner, Jr.

A very pleasant laws party was given on Wednesday evening in henor of Miss Ima Jean Maxwell, at her home at 390 Benton street. The lawn was gay with Chinese lanterns and ziry Summer gowns, and made a very pretty picture. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Anna Stuart entertained in hono of Mass Higgins, of Astoria, on Friday evening. The house at 454 Hall street was opened to about 25 guests, who heart-ily enjoyed cards and music till a late hour. Miss Higgins and Mr. King earned the honors of the evening at the whist

On Wednesday evening last the Misses week was a trolley ride to Conemah Park McGowan entertained a few friends at on Friday evening, given by Louis Ger- their home in North Mount Tabor, in linger, Jr. The guests of the evening honor of their cousin, Mira Chara Mo-boarded a special car on the P. C. & O. Gowan, of Michigan. The evening was a musical one, the solos by Miss Welch being especially enjoyable.

> One of the pleasant events of the week was an informal affair given on Monday evening by Mrs. LaTourette in honor of Mr. Walter Guild, who is a guest at the Johnson-Cuthbert.

The marriage of Mr. Carey Johnson and Miss Mabel Cuthbert, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cuthbert, was celebrated by Rev. John E. Simpson, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church this city, in the Congregational Church of Clackamas, Or., Thursday morning, July 24. The bride was given away by her father. Mr. Fred Paterson, of Clack-amas, was best man, and Miss Mamie bride was dresed in white Persian lawn, trimmed with o. lace, over white silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor wore a During a pause in the ceremony Miss Conyers, who is gifted with a particularly sweet voice, sang Francis Allison's "Song of Thanksgiving," and Mrs. Chandler, for-mer organist of St. Mark's Church, played the wedding murch from "Lohen-grin," on the arrival of the bride, and that of Mendelssohn as a recessional. The church was crowded by well-wishing on-lookers, and was beautifully decorated by the young ladies of Clacksmus. The bride and groom stood under a canopy composed party of the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were driven of the bride, where a substantial wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert departed for a month at the coast. Bramball-Graham.

The marriage of Charles Bramhall and Miss Aima Graham took place at the home of Robert Graham, father of the bride, east of Sandy River, last Thursday. The rooms of the house were decorated with sweet peas and roses of variegated

Griffin-Helmhold.

Mrs. Maggie Mitchell Helmbold, daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, was married in Washington last Monday to

The members of the San Grael Society of the First Presbyterian Church held their monthly social meeting at a hand.

andle and lace, carried a bouquet of ride's roses, and was attended by her rother, August Scherfe, who gave the ride away. The bridesmatd, Miss Katherine Hamm, wore blue organdle and carried pink carnations. Luther D. Baker attended the groom as best man, while Mildred Taggart, as flower girl, preceded the procession, scattering flowers as she west. Ersest Stimmons and Frank Tomlinson acted as ushers, and Mrs. Mary A. Dupec presided at the piano. The bridal party left the church to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march. A de-lightful luncheon was then served at the home of the newly married couple, 415 Doyer street. Mr. and Mrs. Moody left Khunle-Dobelbower. pleasant home wedding occurred at 5:30 o'clock Sunday evening, July 20, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dobelbower, 311 Salmon street, when Miss Leona Maud Dobeibower was united in marriage to Lewis Khunie. Promptly at the appointed hour, the strains of Men-delssohn's "Wedding March" played by Mrs. S. B. N. Paul announced the en-trance of the bridal party. The bride was attired in cream applique lace over cream slik, with tulle vell and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmalk, Miss Jennie Opperman, were white net lace over white sik, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Lewis Khunie, brother of Mrs. Khunle left Portland by steamer for San Francisco. They will be at home to receive their friends at Fifteenth and Washington streets, after August L.

Wagner-Robb. Mr. John P. Wagner and Miss Cordelia Robb, of Forest Grove, were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Little, the Presbyterian minister, at his home at Van-couver, Wash., on July 9. Their future home will be at Forcet Grove, where the groom is engaged in business.

Parr-Neer.

John Farr and Miss Mary Neer were married at Goble, Or., July 20. G. M. Farr and Miss Myrile Powler were also married at Goble on the same day, the marriage service at both weddings being performed by Rev. C. E. Philbrook. Town-Clark.

At the residence of Dr. Blackburn, Charles Hunt Town and Gertrude L. Clark. They will reside in San Fran-

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill annound the engagement of their daughter, Grace, to Mr. William A. MacEacham. Mrs. Ida Ballis announces the engage ment of her daughter, Miss Eva Louise Ballis, to Charles Arthur Douglas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Fisher announce the engagement of their daughter. Gertrude Odelia, to Mr. Thomas Carliele Bloomer. The wedding will take place

this month. The wedding of Miss Lotte Edith Brand, of San Francisco, and Mr. Frank Branch Riley, of Portland, will be solemn-lized on Wednesday evening, August 6, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brand, 2709 Buchanan street, San Francisco,

Society Personals. Mr. G. M. Hines and family are at Long

Mrs. M. C. Bowles is spending the Sum-

Mrs. A. N. Shannon is visiting friends at Dayton, Wash. Miss Maude Morey is spending a few weeks at the Coast.

Mrs. L. M. Parrish is spending the Summer at Seaview. Miss Eva R. Clark is visiting Miss Fan-Miss Etha Williams, of Eugene, is visiting Portland friends. Mrs. C. B. Wade, of Pendleton, is visiting friends in Portland. Mrs. F. M. Carroll, of Seattle, is visit-ng friends in this city. Dr. and Mrs. Reisacher are spending a few weeks in California.

Mrs. W. B. Roberts is spending the ummer in Westfield, Mans. Mrs. J. N. Rankin is the guest of Mrs. Charles C. Malson at Needy.

Misses Isabel and Kathryn Mott left | Joseph F. Kelly and family left yester-

Tuesday for an extended visit-in Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Mrs. A. Mattingly has returned from a month's visit in San Francisco. Miss Adda George, of Albany, is visit-ng her sister, Mrs. H. G. Colton. Mrs. O. W. Tarr, of Chicago, is visiting riends and relatives in this city.

Earl E. Mayo is spending his vacation at he Hotel Breakers, Long Beach. Mrs. J. P. Mattingly has returned from month's visit through California. Miss Katherine Cahalin left Thursday for Seaview to spend the senson. Charles Dougherty left last week for Wilholt Springs, to spend 10 days. iting friends in Portland and Astoria. Miss Leona Smith has returned to Corvallis, after a short visit in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Colwell and fam-

By left Saturday for a 19 days' outing. Mrs. G. Frank Moffett is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Parrish, at Scaview. Miss Leonora Fisher will leave, Tuesday night, for a month's visit at Grant's Pars. Miss Bertha Moores has returned from Honolulu, where she spent the past year. Mr. William H. James, of Sacramento has been visiting his parents in this city. Mrs. M. A. Dutcher is visiting ner daughter, Mrs. George Askins, at Needy,

Mrs L. Q. Swetland and daughter are visiting Mrs. Evelyn P. Dudley, at Ocean

Park. L. G. Brock, of Cellna, O., is the guest of his brother, Professor J. W. Brock, at Lents.

Mrs. H. M. Haller and daughters, Marie and Helen, are at Seaside for the Sum Mrs. Alice Leinenweber, of this city has been spending a few days in Astoria. Miss Sadie Baum, of Pendleton, is the guest of Mrs. G. Bettman, 421 Seventh street.

George C. Henriot left the city last ast Monday evening for a week at Long Bench. James Strain and Scott Davis are spendng their vacation in the Olympic Moun-

Mr. go, is the guest of W. H. Churchill and

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gwiney have gone to Florence, Or., on a three weeks vacation

Miss Nellie E. Hennessey is spending a few weeks at the Hackney Cottage, Miss Abramine Thatcher is at Seaview, where she is the guest of Miss Lillian O'Brien. Miss J. Jones, of Salem, is visiting her niece, Mrs. John Mackenzie, of 431 East Pine street. Miss Matthews, of Salem, is visiting Mrs. Harry A. Green, 134 North Eight-centh street.

J. C. Jameson is at Seaside for a week with his family, who are sojourning there for the season.

Captain W. A. Bethel, of Vancouver Barracks, is spending a few days at Cloud Capp Inn. Miss Frances Hays has left on a month's acation trip to San Francisco and Re-Andrew Kun and family are spending their Summer vacation at Clatsop Beach in their new cottage. Mrs. O. S. Binswanger and children left for the seaside yesterday to spend a few weeks at Hotel Flavel.

Mrs. J. A. Prag and Mrs. J. O. Prag and children are occupying the Noles cottage at Long Beach. Miss Delilah A. Flynn, of Chicago, is spending the Summer at the home of her Summer, uncle, Arthur J. Martin. Genera

Miss Jennie Cunningham, of Salem, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Cavanagh, 600 East Morrison street. Mrs. E. H. C. Taylor and Miss Taylor, of St. Paul. Minn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Frieleigh. Mrs. W. W. Robinson will be at home at the Gladstone on the first and second Wednesdays of the month. Captain Andrew Hoben and family and Miss Edith Flynn, of Seattle, left yesterday for a short trip to Senside. Mrs. John O. Thomas is enjoying an out-Miss Carrie Hall, of Eugene.

Miss Jessie L. Fisher, of The Dalles, is visiting in Portland for a few days, prior to her departure for Ocean Park. Miss Ethel Wehrung, of Hillsboro, is visiting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Dougherty, Seventh and College streets. Mrs. J. E. Hunt is spending the reason in her cottage at Centreville. Her moth-er, Mrs. E. L. Chapman, is with her,

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Holladay have re-turned from their wedding tour, and will make their home at the Hobart-Curtis Misses Marie and Anna Maher returned home Tuesday evening, after a wee vacation at Asteria and the Breakers. Mrs. D. Ellery and son Clarence have returned from Seattle, where they have been visiting friends the past two weeks. Mrs. Edgar B. Piper and family are at Seaside for the Summer. Mrs. C. J. Willis, her mother, and Miss Wills are with

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. Irvin, sister of the bride, 692 Front street, Thursday, July 16, where Mins Margarette, daughter of Mr. E. J. Williams and Mr. Otto Brunks, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. H. J. Talbott. The wedding march was played by Professor Yoder. H. E. Radenincher acted as best man, and Miss Rubie Irvin, of Salem, as bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully at-tired in a gown or duchesse slik, with duchese lace, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid was daintily attired in white organdy, and were white carnations. The rooms were beautifully decorated in marguerites, ferns and carnations. After the ceremony a reception and dainty refreshments were served. Many friends gathered to extend them the early congratulations. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Irvin, of Salem; Mrs. Hamilton, of Cascades, Wesh., sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brunke will at home to their friends after August 1.

GEVURTZ &

173-175 First-St., N.W. Cor. Yamhill

Sitka Refrigerators THE BEST ON EARTH

These Refrigerators are made of hardwood, charcoal filled, white tile lined. Over 500,000 of these Refrigerators have been sold since first manufactured. THEY WILL SAVE THEIR COST IN ICE

Small Size Refrigerator

Medium Size Refrigerator

Size Refrigerator

BIG SALE OF IRON BEDS

We are unloading another car of these beds, and all odd beds must go at once. This solid malleable iron bee has four coats white enamel; gold lacquered, has rail on head and foot; is sold everywhere at $3.00; our price, this week only,

$5.00

$12.00

With each bill of $15.00 or over we give FREE a fine polished COBBLER OAK ROCKER

CARPETS

GRAND SAVINGS IN THIS SUMMER SALE

Smith's extra Brussels, with or with-out border, excellent wearing carpet, worth 20c yard; special this week at 65c yard

40c yard WE SELL ON EASY TERMS

IN CITY OR

COUNTRY IF DESIRED

2-3 wool ingrain, extra heavy, worth the yard; this week best made. Each range to bake perfeetly, and

ECLIPSE STEEL RANGES

years. These perfect satis-No. 8 Eclipse steel range and high

Are the very out in 15

No. $ Eclipse cook stove, four-hole; oven 18x20, $15.00

Hobbs, of McMinnville, were guests of Miss Jessie Wain this week.

S. A. Miles was a visitor at the home of Chief Justice F. A. Moore this week.

State Senator George C. Brownell, of Oregon City, was in the city Tuesday,

Dr. A. B. Gillis and Conred Krebbs have rone to Woods, Or., for a fishing expedi-

D. J. Fry and family and John Maurer and family are at Slab Creek for a vacu-

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones have re-

State Senator John D. Daly, of Benton County, spent a few hours Wednesday in

H. L. Whippie, of San Francisco, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. H. Alken, of Salem Rebekah Lodge gave a very enjoyable afternoon pienie in Savage's

A. M. Grilley, secretary of the Y. M. C.

A. at Boise, was a guest of his parents in this city this week.

Miss Flora Halleck has returned to her nome in Pendleton, after a brief visit from a two weeks' vacation at this city

this city.

Mayor a

Cloud Cap Inn.

Grove Thursday.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES ON DANN ADJUSTABLE GO-CARTS

$27.50

day for an outing at White Salmon. Dr. | cago. Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton will spend Louis R. Fitzpatrick was one of the Kelly a portion of September at Hillarden and party. Mrs. F. H. Shaw and her niece,

James F. Johnson, have gone to White Salmon, Wash., where they will epend the General Immigration Agent G. M. Mc-Kinney, of the Harriman lines, visited his sister Mrs. J C. Mayo, of this city, last week, Miss Gertrude Esser left last week for Scattle, where she will spend the Summer, the guest of Mrs. John G. Abele, nee Donnerberg.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Watkins, who have been visiting the Summer resorts in California for the last two weeks, will be home about August 5. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Palacies, of Port-land, accompanied by their cousin, Mrs. Ida M. Fenfsin, from Chicago, have left for a trip to California.

Mr. R. K. Warren, who was seriously injured in a driving accident on the Fourth of July, is now greatly improved and is able to be about. Mrs. Bert Gilkey, accompanied by her sister, Miss Edith Neely, left today for Long Beach, where they expect to remain for a month or two. Mrs. D P. Thompson and daughter, Genevieve, will go to Walla Walla this week to attend the Stirling-Brents wedding on Wednesday next. Dr. H. V. Adix, who has been East for the past few years attending Still Col-lege of Osteopathy, returned to the city ecently and is now at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Robertson have returned from Washington, D. C., and have taken the Holmes cottage, on East Burnside street, for the Summer. Mrs. A. R. Pennick, Miss Anna and Master Ronald, accompanied by Miss Sa-bina Mosier, are occupying the Hawley cottage at Seavlew for the season. Mrs. Lee Hoffman and family, of Boston, are spending the Summer at the Hobart-Curtis. They formerly lived in this city, but moved to Boston several years ago. Mrs. A. J. Gratton and her sister, Miss Alice Eberhard, with Eugene Gratton and Miss Claudia Gratton, are domiciled for the season in their cottage at Gearhart

Miss Margaret Rice and Miss Nellio Slavin and Miss Molly Reynolds left on the steamer Columbia for an extended visit in San Francisco and other parts of

Mr. T. C. Elliet, of Walla Walla, was in the city Thursday, to meet the historian and author, W. I. Marshall, of Cht-Mr. Elliot left Friday morning for Long Beach.

Mrs. J. E. Sawyers and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Sawyers, of Greencastle, Ind., arrived in Portland inst week and will spend the Winter with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn. Ar. Sherwood Hopkins Adams and wife

Miss Emma Brown and Mr. Orville T. Pratt, who have been the guests of the Misses Sitton for several days, have re-turned to their homes in San Francisco, Mrs. John D. Biles and Miss Biles left Friday morning for "Kinnikinnic Lodge," Seaside, the Summer home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward L. Howe, whose guests they will be until the early part of Sep-

Miss Evelyn Hurley left Saturday for South Bend, Wash, where she will give a song concert, assisted by Mrs. Hazel-tine. Miss Hurley will visit friends in Seattle, Tacoma, and Victoria before re-C. R. Fay, formerly a resident of Portland, now professor of history in the Boys' High School, New York City, and his wife, Mabel Gray Fay, are spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fay and Mr. and Mrs. D.

Mrs. Jennie E. Wright, accompanied by Mrs. Robert C. Wright and her sisters, the Misses S. Blanche Gray and Louise Gray, of Astoria, are spending the Summer at Cednr Lodge. In Montezuma Park. The ladies are enjoying all the heauties of Oregon woods, hills and streams in that loughe places which courts to be held. that lovely place, which ought to be bet-ter known, as it is only about two hours' ride from Portland by hoat or vehicle. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Knewlton, of Free port, Ill., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Hill. Mr. Knowlton is a prominent factor in matters financial, educa-tional and religious in the Middle West, being a member of the banking firm of Knowlton Bros., a trustee and the treasurer of Beloit College, and a director of some time at one of the seaside resorts.

Mount Tabor.

The miniature rallway, music from 2 to 6, and other attractions today. If you don't go you will miss a treat. Cars from Third and Yambili streets, every five min-Woodstock Band.

Band concerts from 4 to 6 P. M., at Woodstock today. Cars leave Third and Yamhill, 10, 30 and 50 minutes after the

OREGON. Oregon City. Dr. R. B. Beatle and daughter left

Dr. W. E. Carll left Thursday for a several weeks' trip in Eastern Oregon for the benefit of his health. Mrs. C. S. Scamann left Tuesday morning for a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Hubbard, Salem and Albany. The marriage of J. U. Ross, of the Southern Pacific Company, to Miss Bertha Warren, was solemnized Tuesday. They will reside in this city.

The Les Papillon hop in Canemah Park Friday evening was a very successful dancing party. The pavillon was througed with dancers until a late hour. Miss Imogen Harding and Miss Antoinette Walden left Wednesday for a two weeks' outing on the Nebalem, where they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vosburg. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and daughter, of Detroit, Mich., visited Mrs. G. W. Grace and the Misses Fairclough Wednesday. They are making a tour of the West, and expect to locate in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt entertained Thursday evening in honor of the birth-day of their daughter, Miss Maria Pratt, The evening was pleasantly passed with charactes and music, and at a late hour luncheon was served.

Mrs. T. W. Clark's lawn fete Priday night for the benefit of the Humane Society was attended by a large number of people. The grounds were gaily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and refreshments were served on the lawn. The proceeds will go toward the erection of a public departing forwards to this effect. public drinking fountain in this city.

city, were in Woodburn Wednesday

Dr. Grace Albright is spending a few weeks in California.

Mrs. E. E. Goucher and Mrs. J. P. Irtine have returned to their homes in Mc-Minnville, after a short visit with Mrs. J. F. Calbreath.

with Mrs. Rose Bernardi,

At noon last Wednesday Miss Grace M. Draper and Chester A. Parvin, both of this city, were married by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, of the Presbyterian Church. The ceremony took place at the home of J. G. Burgraff, only a few of the imme-diate friends and relatives being present. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Draper, of this city. The groom is the youngest son of Professor and Mrs. Z. M. Parvin. After a brief sojourn at the seaside the newly-married couple will return o Salem to reside.

Baker City.

The members of the Presbyterian choir, inder the leadership of Rev. J. N. R. Bell, pastor of the church, went for their annual outing to Ebel's grove last Wed-needay. They had a pleasant day, a fine fide early in the morning, and late in the evening. About 39 people participated in the festivities. Gerald M. Calder and Miss Luin Ash were married at the residence of the bride's parents at Pocahontas, in this county, last Sunday, Rev. C. E. Todd officiating. Only the immediate relatives of Dr. Grace Albright is spending a few the young people and a few invited guests witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stulhammer, of this Calder will make their home in this city. The leading mid-Summer social event Miss Ethel Harris and Miss Maude was the lawn social given by the ladies

a strictly up-to-date lady's tailor made suit is an almost indispensable garment of a lady's wardrobe-nothing else is so chic, desirable or distinguished-in order to introduce our new establishment to the ladies of Portland, we announce a reduction of 25 per cent for 30 days below the regular prices - ladies will find it very profitable to place their Fall orders with us now-we have exclusive novelties in Woolens, Broadcloths, Kerseys, Meltons, Homespuns and Cheviots-the very latest styles always on hand -our garments will be made only by expert lady tailors, personally superintended by Mr. Heibl, who has the reputation of being New York's best cutter, fitter and designer-he will draw a special design to suit your figure, as well as taste-all work positively ladies' & gents' tailoring co.

guaranteed - our motto: "No fit, no pay"-

345 Washington street, near

Aeolian Orchestrelle

"COFFMAN'S" Elite Ice Cream Parlors have been enlarged, and, recognizing the worth of THE AEOLIAN ORCHESTRELLE, Mr. Coffman has ordered one placed in his parlors for the pleasure of his patrons. These instruments are made and sold only by

THE AEOLIAN COMPANY,

McCormick Theological Seminary in Chi- M. B. Wells, Sole Northwest Agt.

353-355 Washington st., cor. Park.