CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

The anniversary of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Klippel was celebrated at their residence, 637 Planders street, Friday. Fifty years ago, in the town of Boonville, Mo., were joined in the bonds of matrimony Adam Klippel and Elizabeth Snider Brownfield, and the two were sent forth on life's journey amid the greetings of a host of friends who had assembled at the village church to witness the ceremony. After half a century, their children, children's children and many relatives and intimate friends met to congratulate them upon the attainment of their golden wedding. The evening passed most joyously, and was enhanced by a neat congratulatory address by the Rev. F. H. Luecke, pastor of the First German M. E. Church, and was followed by music and singing by Miss Edna Klippel, grandniece of the groom. During the evening a band of serenaders appeared in front of the residence, and favored the party with excellent music. It was the brass band, "Die Kapelle," of First Church, that had come in a body to congratulate the jubilee couple. It was an agreeable surprise, and added greatly to the enjoyment of the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Klippel were the parents of six children, three sons and three daughters. Annie, their first born, died in infancy; Tillie, their second oldest daughter, was married to J. C. McCrimmon, of North Yakima, and 15 years ago she died, at the age of 29. The four surviving children—Richard H. Klippel, Edgar A. Klippel, Charles W. Klippel and Ida Klippel Torgler—reside in this city, have families of their own, and are well known in the community. They, with their families, together with a large representation of other Klippels, Plunks, Masgleyes and Torglers, were present on this occasion. The jubilee couple were lovingly remembered in ways suitable on such occasions. They were the recipients of a number of valuable presents. Taking into consideration the strenuous activity of Mr. Klippel the past 20 years, time has, apparently, dealt very gently with him and his companion. The husband at 75 and the wife at 68 are both still hale and hearty, and seem good for many years yet in this life. As a minister, editor and business man, the career of Mr. Klippel is well known in Portland. Mr. Klippel is a native of Albany, N. Y., and Mr. Klippel of a village near Bingen-on-the-Rhine, Germany. Sixty-four years ago he, with his parents, landed in this country, and settled in Cincinnati. For the past 23 years he has resided in Oregon.

proceeded to enjoy a day of unalloyed pleasure and rest. Those making up the party were: Judge and Mrs. J. E. Sibbey, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Beit, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Eakin, Dr. and Mrs. Mark Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Riggs, Miss Bertha Fuller, Miss Emma Deans, Miss Frankie Hayter, all of Dallas; Miss Beatrice King, of Kamloops, B. C.; Miss Ethelwynne Glass, of Portland; Messrs. R. E. Bryan, C. L. Starr, Oscar Hayter, R. E. Williams and J. C. Hayter.
