Miss Rita Pelton entertained her friends at Saturday evening, July 26, at the All Saints Mission Rooms, which were beautifully decorated to represent a lawn, with lanterns and follage from the woods. Thirty guests were present and were royally entertained. Delicious refresh-ments were daintily served.

Mrs. H. A. Stiles entertained a number of guests at her home at 464 East Clay street, yesterday. The occasion was a surprise party on the 25th birthday of her husband, who is a member of the Southern Pacific Band, which added greatly to the entertainment.

All Saints' Mission ladies enjoyed a delightful outing last Friday at Mount Scott, given by Mrs. A. L. Pelton in hon-or of her birthday. Delicious luncheon was served under the trees.

WEDDINGS.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place Sunday, July 20, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Vobes, when Miss Datsy Vobes was married to Mr. Rhoda Hayes. The bride was given away by Mr. Copin. The bride was very charming in a gown of white silk organdle and carried a large bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin

Mr. James Strain was best man. During the ceremony the bridal party stood under a canopy of smilax and white flowers. The beautiful service of the Episcopal Church was performed by Rev. William Breck, of St. Matthew's Church.

The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns, tvy, smilax, potted plants, roses, and baskets of Crimson Rambler roses. After congratulations a dainty lunch was served, and then most of the guests escorted the bride and groom to the depot, and amid a shower of rice and roses, the happy couple left on the south-bound train for a short wedding trip. After their return they will be at me to their friends at 189 Hooker street,

Morgan-Toris. One of the prettiest and sunniest of the Summer weddings was the marriage of Thomas C. Bloomer and Miss Gertrude O. Fisher, which took place on Wednesday, July 30, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the Montgomery street. The house decorations were elaborate and very pretty. A large were elaborate and very pretty. A large wedding bell-of ferns and white flowers containing a smaller one of metal—was suspended in the parior, and under it Rev. William E. Randail performed the cere-mony. Six peals of the wedding bell were the signal for the beginning of the service, giving a novel and charming effect. The bride wore a beautiful gown of pearl gray cloth, trimmed with ince, and carried white roses. Miss Birdle Wise was brides-maid and Dr. Amos was best man. After the wedding a supper was served to the guests in the dining-room, where the decorations were also very pretty. The newly wedded couple went to California on the evening train, and after a short wedding trip, will return to Portland about

August 10. Bloomer-Fisher.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Fisher, 25 Montgomery street, Wednes-day evening, July 20, when their daughter, Miss Gertrude Odella Fisher, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Carlisle Bloomer, Fromptly at 6 o'clock the wedding bells began their melodious chiming, and as the last silvery sound ceased Mrs. L. B. N. Paul, the planiste, sent forth the strains of Wagner's wedding march, announcing the entrance of the bridal party.
During the impressive ceremony, performed by Dr. Randall, of the Second
Baptist Church, DeKoven's "O Promise
Me" was softly rendered. The bride looked charming, attired in pale gray tuile over pink silk, and carrying a bou-quet of bride's roses and smilax. The bridesmald, Miss Birdle Wise, was becomingly gowned in pink, carrying a bouque of white carnations. Dr. Amos acted as best man. The decorations of the par-lors, hall and dining-room were quite unique. The prettiest piece of decoration was a large bell, formed of ivy, smilax and sic and games until 10 o'clock, when the wild white sea fern of the hills. Two the wild white sea fern of the hills. A great many flowers were and inside a chancel ralling of ivy, smilax n the decorations of the house, to-with potted palms and ferns. The caught by Miss Birdie Wise. After the tea table was decorated with glowing nas-turtiums in artistic combination with dinging-room, which was also beautifully turtiums in artistic combination with dinging-room, which was also beautifully "baby breath," while in the parior the decorated, and another large bell hung ful repast was served from hand-painted china, Mr. and Mrs. Bloomer left on the 8:30 P. M. train and entered their carriage amid a fusiliade of rice and old shoes. They will be at home August 16, at 250

Reedy-Barnes.

A very preity home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnes, parents of the bride, 589 Borthwick street, on Wednesday evening, July 20, when Alta Lunessia Barnes became the wife of W. H. Reedy. Albyn Essen, of the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church, performed the ceremony. The room was tastefully decorated with natural and ar-tificial flowers, a beautiful floral bell being suspended from the arch occupied by the contracting parties during the mar-riage service. A goodly concourse of relatives and invited guests was present to do honor to the occasion, and to wish the young couple a prosperous journey through life. Mr. Forest Reedy, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mamle Barnes, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride's costume was of white silk organdie, with chiffon trim-mings, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was clad in pink organdle and carried nasturtions. The groom and best man appeared in conventional black. The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, W. H. Markley, who gave her away. During the wedding service, Miss Ethel Elliott sang very effective-ly "O Promise Me." Following the serv-ice the company assembled in the diningroom to do Justice to a repast which was a every way worthy of the occasion. The bridal pair were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents. Coincident with the departure of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Reedy repaired to their new home, at 555 Union avenue, where they are at home to their friends.

Palmer-Parrott. On July 23, at the residence of the officiating minister, Albyn Esson, of the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church, Mr. Sabien S. Palmer and Miss Margaret E. Parrott were matried in the presence of immediate friends. Following their mar-riage, they departed for Monmouth, where they are spending their honeymoon with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are engaged in the work of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, and Will continue to reside in Portland.

Tibbetts-Russell. Archie L. Tibbetta and Miss Addte Russell were married Wednesday, July 30. ribbons. The bridesmald, Miss Flora Du Cett, wore white organdle and carried pink carnations, and Miss Millie Miller, the maid of honor, wore pink silk organdle and carried pink and white carnations,
Mr. James Strain was best man. There's married married pink and afterward Mr. and Mrs. Tibbetts left smid a merry shower of rice, for a journey to Victoria, B. C. They will be at home to their friends after August 20.

Farquar-Brandenburg.

George O. Brandenburg and Miss Ethei E. Farquhar were married at 2 o'clock P. M., Sunday, July 17, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Powers, 168 East Eleventh street, the Rev. F. L.
