Wonderful Bargains In Dress Goods

We are offering famous bargains in our Dress Goods Department this week.

Our entire line of beautiful Unlined Skirtings and Suitings, all this season's weaves and colors, among them the excellent and popular Portland Woolen Mills' Meltons, are reduced. These are excellent materials for tailor-made street suits and storm skirts. They are all 56 in. goods and sell regularly $1.50 per yard. This week they are $1.19

We are also offering a large assortment of the ever popular Homespun Chevots, in plain, mixed and tweed effects, in very pretty soft olive green, blues and grays. These are strictly all wool and 56 inches wide. Regular price $1.25 and $1.35, special this week 98c

Wool Waistings

In addition we have reduced an elegant line of Wool Waistings, in all wool and wool and silk mixed; also Henriettas and Albatross, embroidered in polka dots; fancy Grenadines with beautiful zibaline stripes. ## Royal Worcester Corsets

It is needless to bewilder a customer by showing them a variety of makes of corsets when we are fully convinced there is one make which covers everything to be desired in the way of a corset. In make, in materials, in finish, and above all, in shape and comfort, the Royal Worcester Corset accomplishes this to perfection. Modeled on scientific lines it is designed to fit the figure, and if anything, to add to its already beautiful lines, not to mold it to some preconceived idea of what a form should be. By this it is not meant this corset is made according to one model only. We carry the Royal Worcester Corset in 130 different styles, therefore we are prepared to fit any figure, long or short waisted, broad or narrow hips.

That the Royal Worcester is a popular corset is attested by the fact that this house, which is the only one in Portland that carries the Royal Worcester Corset, and it is the only corset we do carry, sold twice as many corsets during the past year as any other house in the city.

We call especial attention to our new lines just in.

Among them is the "Princess Hip Corset," especially designed for stout people. It comes in gray and white, prettily trimmed, prices from $1.50

Another one very cool and dainty is the ribbon girdle, designed for hot weather, price $2.50

We also wish to state that we are making great reductions on a large line of Royal Worcester Corsets. The prices on these, compared with the qualities, are astonishing.

Mail Orders

To out-of-town people who read our advertisements, and would like to avail themselves of the bargains offered, we have to say that our mail order department takes special care in filling mail orders, both as to promptness and strict attention to the expressed desire of the customer. All our mail orders are filled the same day they are received, and goods are selected strictly in accordance with the description furnished. As much attention is paid to a small order as a large one, for we want every order we send out to be a proof of the reliability of our published advertisements. Send your mail orders in early, while the advertised stock is still complete.
