HENRY ORDWAY SERIOURLY INJURED .-Injuries which may cause death were re-ceived yesterday by Henry Ordway, an Injuries which up by Henry Ordway, an ceived yesterday by Henry Ordway, an ing Company. A defect in the dock was the cause of the accident, and he sus-tained a broken pelvis and a number of bad bruises. He was standing on the dock when one of the workmen was passing to equip the bureau with a large amount to equip the bureau with a large amount the cause of the accident, and he sub-trined a broken peivis and a number of bad brukes. He was standing on the dock when one of the workmen was passing with a heavy truckload of lumber. Just as the truck was passing him one of the whole load was tipped up, and he was caught under the timber. Ho was taken at once to St. Vincent's Hoepital, where it was found that his peivis had been broken. When asked as to his chances of recovery the doctor in charge said: "The fatality in these cases is very great, for it is hard for such an injury not to do damage to some of the peivic viewar, and idd not find the are interest the such as the part of the such as the pende-ence, Dallas, Hillshoro, Hood River, The Dalles, Shaniko, Heppner, Arlington, La Grande and Baker City. I made a close examination, however, and did not find that any internal damage had been done, and 1 think that his chances for recovery are good."

ONE More Hor Dar.-The mercury stands above its normal resting place, and Forecast Official Beals does not expect it to be any cooler until tomorrow, if then, A maximum temperature of $5 degrees was registered yesterday, which, while it is not up to the heat of Wedneeday and Thursday, caused almost as much discomfort on account of the sultry air and the absolute lack of breeze. The warm speil has visited the whole state, but in the western part it was somewhat cooler yes-terday. The most disagreeable feature of the past few days is the very warm evenings, which are unusual for Pott-land. At 6 o'clock last night the mercury stood at 91, and it was late before Fin Stood at 21, and 11 was rate perove the head had abated to any great extent. The hourly temperatures yesterday were as follows: 5 A. M., 62; 6 A. M., 60; 7 A. M., 61; 8 A. M., 65; 9 A. M., 67; 10 A. M., 70; 31 A. M., 76; 12 M., 62; 1 P. M., 88; 2 P. M., 93; 5 P. M., 93; 4 P. M., 93; 5 P. M., 93; 6 P. M. 90. P. M., 93; 6 P. M., 91.

DULL DAY IN PUBLIC OFFICES .- There was an air of duilness in public offices yesterday. There was a session of the yesterday. There was a session of the United States District Court in the morning, but in the afternoon the doors were locked, and the court attaches, with the exception of the clerks, had little or mothing to do. In the Courthouse the courts were all shut down, but the clerks in the various offices managed to keep busy writing up records, and the Deputy Shellfis had a few papers to serve. The City Hall as the papers to serve. City Hall was quiet. The clerks put in next Legislature providin their time leisurely, and there were few its, save those who called to pay water rents.

JOHN P. RATH. For the past 20 years with H. C. Brandes, and H. L. SANDYS, ELECTRICAL INSPECTOR FOR PORTLAND, -Architects and electrical engineers have received notice that an electrical inspector is to be appointed at Portland in the in-terest of the fire underwriters. He will inspect all wires and electrical machinery, We invite all to inspect our master-pieces, each in its line. You may want a mantel, some giassware, a fixture, a port-able, a grate, tiling, or what not. You are sure to find something to suit the furnishings of your rooms in our store, and the price will suit you, too. Most people have taste. Most people love their homes. To all such we can promise an intellectual delight if they will call. The merely curious are welcome. There is no such comprehensive display for selection this side of San Francisco, and nothing superior there. from transformers down to fans and elec-trically-heated curling irons. When owners of property do not have their buildings fully protected against danger from fire arising from imperfect wires or insulation, they will have to pay higher in-surance. Electricity is getting to be more and more of a factor in fire risks.
