

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A farrow reception was tendered Rev. Robert McLean, retiring pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, and family in the new church, East Thirteenth and East Pine streets, Friday night. It was the first large meeting held in the new edifice, and great admiration was expressed over the beautiful appearance of the auditorium. There was a large attendance of the members and also representatives from other churches in the city.

At the opening several short talks were given. Bishop J. M. Thoburn, missionary bishop of India, was present and gave a pleasing and appropriate talk in view of the early departure of Mr. McLean for the mission field in Porto Rico. Remarks were made by Rev. D. C. McClelland, Rev. A. A. Hurd, Rev. William E. Randall, Rev. J. F. Gorman, Rev. E. T. Allen, Rev. A. S. Patten and finally Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, the incoming pastor of Third Church.

Response was made by Mr. McLean, expressive of his appreciation of the many kind things which had been said concerning himself and family. He was sure they would not be forgotten. Two of the pleasing events of the evening were the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. McLean by the ladies of the Third Presbyterian Church of a roll containing $1 silver dollars, and also the present of a handsome Spanish Bible by the session of the Third Presbyterian Church. After the exercises the large company were served with light refreshments in the Sunday school room.

This week the Grant's Park Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. McLean was pastor for 11 years, sent Edward McLean, the son who goes with his father to Porto Rico, a fine Kodak and two rolls containing $5 in silver to Mr. and Mrs. McLean.

United in marriage at 8 P. M., August 11. The wedding was unique, in that the ceremony was performed in a tent, neatly and lastly decorated with Oregon grape and flowers. The bride was dressed in mousseline de soie and the bridesmaid in soft clinging pink mousseline. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Green, pastor of the Memorial Evangelical Church.

A beautiful and impressive wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. H. Hubert, 1010 Commercial street, at 8 o'clock on the afternoon of August 12 when their only daughter, Helen, and Mr. Gustave Abendroth were united in marriage by the Rev. J. A. Leach.

The piano accompanied the steps of the happy pair as they descended the stairs, preceded by the pretty little maid, Ruth Brown, and carried a shower bouquet of white clematis and jasmine, while the clergyman repeated the pretty ring ceremony of his denomination, accompanied by the tones of "Oh, From the Mountains Come the Winds." The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white crepe de china and veil, held in place by a cluster pearl brooch, gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was beautiful in a pale blue silk organdy, carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses. After refreshments were served, the party left for a two weeks' visit at Flavel and other seaside resorts.

The marriage of Miss Clara Grimes and A. Irving Robbins was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, August 13, at the home of the bride's parents, 155 Fourteenth street. Rev. W. O. Forbes performed the ceremony. The bride was most becomingly attired in white organdy and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Nettie Grimes, as bridesmaid, wore a charming gown of pink and carried pink carnations. Mr. D. G. Chamberlain acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins left on the afternoon train for Tacoma, where they will make their future home.

Tuesday evening, August 12, at the Church of St. Stephen (Episcopal), the Rev. Sellwood street and Vancouver avenue, in the presence of a few friends, a quiet wedding took place. ence, 1709 Howard street, San Francisco. Mr. Cooke is a descendant of Francis Cooke, who came over to America in the Mayflower. He was born in Jefferson County, New York, in 1825; moved to Ohio, where he was educated at Oberlin College, and emigrated to Oregon in 1851, settling in Salem. He was married in 1852 in Portland, Or., to Miss Isabelle Walker, a native of Meriden, Conn. The couple moved to San Francisco six years ago. The reception the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cooke was cheerfully decorated, says the San Francisco Chronicle, and the ladies of the Third Congregational Church prepared the supper, which was a feature of the occasion. Very beautiful presents came from relatives and friends. Two children, Clyde Cooke and Gaylor Cooke, and two grandchildren were present. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke have a daughter, Miss Marie Ware, a son, George H. Lee, and a son, Dr. Clinton T. Cooke, a physician of Seattle. The late Allyn H. Cooke, a graduate of Stanford University and well known instructor in the Polytechnic High School of San Francisco, was another son of this family. Among the reception guests were Mrs. P. S. Knight, of Salem, and Mrs. W. Lair Hill, of Berkeley, who are well known in Oregon. Mr. Cooke was formerly a prominent business man of Salem, where he founded and conducted until destruction by fire the extensive machinery plant known as the Agricultural Works. Mrs. Cooke is known as a writer of graceful poetry, as well as a social leader and prominent worker in women's organizations.

CLEVER ACTOR ENGAGED FOR NEILL STOCK COMPANY. The above is a very good likeness of Howard Russell, the clever young actor, who has been engaged for the Neill Stock Company, which opens the Baker Theater the 21st of this month. Mr. Russell has been with some of the very best companies touring the country. Last season he was with Howard Kyle, playing the juvenile part in "Nathan Hale," and did some exceptionally good work. There is a great deal of activity around the Baker Theater, getting ready for the opening of the season. Members of the Neill Stock Company are beginning to arrive, and the entire company will be here on Thursday of this week, when rehearsals will begin for "A Social Highwayman," the play selected for the opening night. There will be 11 members of the Neill Stock Company, all having been carefully selected for stock work, it being one of the most complete companies that has ever made Portland its home.
