KOSTALGETS PERFECT SUPPORT

Little Pitcher Holds Miners Down to One Run and Five Straggling Hits-Weed Knocks a Three-Bagger,

NORTHWEST LEAGUE, Yesterday's Games. Portland, 3: Butte, 1. Holena, C. Scattle, 4. Tacoma, S. Spokane, 3. Standing of the Clubs.

BUTTE, Aug. 23.-(Special.)-Butte could not hit. This tells the whole story of today's game. Pitcher Kostal was given perfect support, and the men from the mining camp had absolutely no chance. The game started by Ward getting second on an error by Harris, the Van Buren's hands. Knox hit one to liarris, who threw him out at first. Weed returning the ball in time to catch Ward at third, thus completing a neat double play. Zeigler then hit a hard one to Knox, who nailed It. Van Buren singled, but was forced out at second, on Anderson's hit to Knox, who made a pretty throw to Ward. Anderson reached second on a pass ball, but Weed was an easy out. Portland the St. Louis team to come close in the scored in her half of the second. Vigneux | fifth. Attendance, 420. Score: singled and Muller sacrificed him, "Samany" scoring a moment later on Harris' single. Deisel got first on Ward's error, but Kestal hit to Kane, who completed double, catching Deisel on first. Portland scored again in the third inning, Van Buren getting to first on an error by Knox, and scoring on Weed's three-bag-The sixth inning brought another run in for the visitors and cinched the game. Weed and Vigneux singled. Muller hit to Roach, who caught him at first, advancing the other runners a base. Harris hit a slow one to Ward, and Weed reached the home plate, this ending the day's scoring. Kestal held the Butte club down to one run and five straggling hits. The little pitcher was an entire mystery to the big men of the McCloskey aggrega-tion, and man after man went down before his curves. Roach, for Butte. pitched fairly good ball. The support ac-corded him was good, but Kostal simply prevented the ball being found, whereby something might be done. Score:
